HOLMES TAKEN TO THE COUNTY JAIL

His Bondsman Surrendered Him to the Authorities This Morning

Constable Spencer Brougham accompanied Tom Holmes to the county jail at Towanda this afternoon. Holmes was arrested Nov. 7, on complaint of Susan Burhans, who charged him with aggravated assault. At a hearing before Justice Carey Holmes was held to court and furnished bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance, E. A. Wilber qualifying as bondsman. After his release Holmes immediately began filling up on hard cider and has since made life miserable for those who reside in his neighborhood. Last night he went to Waverly to escape arrest, but while there fell into the clutches of the police. This morning Justice Hoagland sentenced him to 30 days at Owego cracking stone. In the meantime, however, his bondsman, Mr. Wilber, had been informed of the manner in which Holmes was performing and he decided to surrender him. Accordingly a bail piece was issued and Constable Brougham went to Waverly this forenoon and secured custody of Holmes.

REAL ESTATE ALWAYS SAFE

There is no investment so safe and secure and none that offers better profit to the investor than investments in real estate, and especially building lots. You can duplicate any and every other kind of security except real estate. But every piece of real estate has peculiar advantages of its own. It never can be lost or destroyed and it will always form a basis of all credit and security. No man can make a mistake by investing in a few lots in the new addition, Westbrook Heights on Thursday, Nov. 15th, commencing at 10 a.m. 75 lots at auction.

LEHIGH VALLEY GRANTS CONCESSIONS

PRICE FOR RENT OF SCRAPER WAS TOO LOW

Will Permit Borough to Lay Sewer Under Company Tracks

The sewer question has been hanging fire for some time on account of the council being unable to get the consent of the Lehigh to go under the tracks at a point below Hayden street. At the meeting of the council held last night, however, it developed that the company has granted concessions and will permit the sewer to go under the tracks on terms which are satisfactory. Heretofore the company has insisted that in event of their desiring to have the sewer removed they could do so without the consent of the council and burden the borough with the expense. An agreement was reached recently however, whereby the company will pay for the work in the event of their wanting to remove it to another point.
