Thanksgiving Thursday

will be observed as a general holiday. We will remain closed all day.

Bargain Hunting

before or after Thanksgiving always was more or less of a question; different now. Time was when shoppers chased all over this valley to find even staples; had to; stores were small, stocks incomplete. We've changed things, saw the opportunity; started the big store and it's here to stay; that's the whole affair in a nutshell.

Unusual Opportunities

on Furs, Coats and Suits, whether women's, misses or children's, one-third off. This offer is for today and Wednesday only. If you don't wear the best looking garment or fur on Thanksgiving for the money expended of any one in the crowd, it is no fault of ours, since the liberal offer is not made on a few, but you make your own selection from our big lines. This offer ceases at closing time Wednesday evening. No telephone orders, no mail orders, and only spot cash trading on terms offered.

Basement

is getting chock full of suitable gifts.

Millinery Department

offers Hats on same conditions as above, except a few numbers at as much as 1/2 off. No way we can think of will be more substantial toward a generous Thanksgiving than our offers above.

Christmas

only four weeks off. Each day unfolds new merchandise revelations here.

Of Interest to Children

Beginning Thursday morning you can mail your letters to Santa Claus near the main stairway on street floor. Uncle Sam has put up a mail box for your use. Santa Claus will get the mail later, toward Christmas. Sleigh loads of toys are here already, and new samples coming almost every day

There are variations in dental workmanship, just as there are differences in the various brands of flour. If you desire the highest degree of proficiency—the skill and knowledge that will make YOUR fillings serviceable twenty-five years from today—come in or phone for an appointment. ## YOUNG AT 90 YEARS

Athens—Seth Vargeson of Elmira was in Athens visiting his daughter, Mrs. Cyrus Hawkins, over Sunday. Although he is over 90 years old he is still a "kid" in many respects and could make some of the younger generation hustle to keep up with him. He does not wear glasses and he still has his natural teeth that do him good service and his step is as elastic as it has always been. Mrs. Hawkins was busy sewing and when she wanted to put a new thread in her cambric needle she went hunting around the room for her "specs". He saw her difficulty and said "Let me have that needle and I will show you what your dad can do." She handed it to him and he threaded the needle in short order without glasses. It is quite a treat to see such a young old man.

The Amateur Star players of Athens are "rehearsing" "The Cool Collegian" for the Presbyterian fair to be held in Elsbee opera house next week.

SWEEPED OVER NIAGARA.

Editor of Welland (Ont.) Tribune
Made Brave Effort at Rescue.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 27.—An unknown man was swept over the Horseshoe falls in a small boat after a daring attempt had been made to save him. An employee of the Ontario Power company first saw the little craft coming down the river in the grasp of the swift current. The occupant, a man, was standing up, frantically waving his hands.

Two rowboats started down the Chippewa river toward the Niagara to attempt a rescue at the mouth of the small stream. The rescuers went far beyond what is considered the danger line, but a cross current carried the unfortunate man away from them to ward Goat island, and in a few minutes he was carried over the Horseshoe falls.

The would be rescuers were by this time in a perilous position, and it was with great difficulty that they succeeded in reaching shore. They were John Rapaille, an employee of the Canadian Power company; Detective Greenwood and Louis B. Dudd, editor of the Welland Tribune, in one boat and George Gray and Thomas Flommerfelt in the second.
