Make Your Selection From Our New Lines

Of Sideboards and Buffets. Most complete in the Valley. Bottom Prices.

Picture Framing Neatly Done at Reasonable Prices,

GRAF & CO.

IN SEARCH FOR RABBIT.

Gradually Regains Its Strength

on Warm Milk and Water

Diet.

London.-An extraordinary instance

Bessie, the dog in question, is a valnable one, and her delighted mistress regards her escape from death as something like a miracle. That the dog is little the worse for the adven-

Long Entombment.

ture was proved by her lively bark of welcome when a reporter first saw

That was the last that was seen heard of her until last Sunday, when her mistress, happening to pass in the direction of the burrow, heard faint whines proceeding from it. Another dog, noticing the sounds, made for the

There his evident excitement made it apparent that he had discovered something extraordinary. The woman herself hardly dared to hope that the lost Bessie had been found, imagining that she had been stolen, but immediately ran back to the house and or

Two men were quickly on the spot,

open a trench about eight or nine feet long. On going deeper they found the head of the dog wedged between some

Bessie was still alive, after being 26 days in that coffin-like space without food, without water, and without any

The animal was tenderly lifted out of the hole, and it was then seen what a change had come over her. "Fat as a young pig" before she went in, she now appeared to be nothing but skin and bone, her ribs projecting painfully

Very carefully she was taken into the house and fed on warm milk and water, quickly recovering, even at tempting later on to playfully "beg"

some meat from her mistress' hands.

A little later, however, the ruling instinct again proved too strong, and she was off after a mouse in the conservatory, but that effort also was a

The dog had actually lived on its own fat-it was about 14 pounds lighter after its entombment-but, as its Bessie has revisited the spot since but showed no fear of the place. But There some curious epitaphs appear to the memory of those who are nourned by their loving owners. One

Came in.

Looked about,

Didn't like it.

Went out.

Bessle is now "progressing satisfac-orily," is the proud possessor of a record in dogged endurance, and Captain Henry Dies From Cancer.

Hugh H. Henry, past national com mander of the Army and Navy union

U. S. A., and chief of staff of the pres-inently with many patriotic societies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- Captain hopes to more than double her five ittle too ambitious.

race tells.

reads:

years of Hfe.

under her black and tan coat.

dered the warren to be dug up.

rabbit hole immediately.

stones.

room to turn.

of a dog's wonderful endurance comes from Guildford, in Surrey.

Cor. of Broad St. and Park Ave., Waverly. Furniture and Undertaking.

THE NATIONAL BANK OF SAYRE.

Capital - $50,000.00 Surplus - $12,000.00

We solicit your Banking business, and will pay you three per cent. interest per annum for money left on Certificate of Deposit or Savines Account

The department of savings is a special feature of this Bank, and all deposits, whether large or small, draw the same rate of

M. H. SAWTELLE,

Cashier.

The Valley Record

J. H. MURRELLE, Publisher. W. T. CARRY, Editor.

Published every afternoon except Sun-day at Murrelle's Printing Office, Sayre, iption, $3.00 per year; 25 cents per month.

Advertising rates reasonable, and made known on application.

Entered as second-class matter May 10, 1905, at the postoffice at Sayre, Pa, under the Act of Congress of March 3,

"All the news that's fit to print' WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 28, 1906

Her Trouble.

"Your wife doesn't look well?"

"She isn't." "She looks worried?"

"She is. "What's the trouble?"

"I had the party-line telephone taken out of my house." worry she chased a rabbit down a big hole. "That's a funny

"Oh, I don't know; she has no way now of finding out what her neighbors are about."-Houston Post. Like a Woman.

"Did you notice that hat that Mra. Scrumptions had on at the theater, tonight, Mollie?" "I should say that I did. It was perfectly horrid, and they say that she brought it from Paris with her."

Well, I'm just sure that she bought It on one of those little back streets there."-Cincinnati Commercial-Trib-

Righteously Indignant. Jenks-The boss told me this morn ing that I looked as if I had gone to bed with my clothes on. I told him pretty sharply that he was mistaken. Clark-Oh, come now, you know you Jenks-I did not. These are my brother's clothes, -Philadelphia Press.

Business Is Business. Woman-What! Twenty cents for that little piece o' beef? It's out rageous-it's robbery-it's a shame,

'but I s'pose I'll have to pay it. Butcher-It'll cost ye a quarter now, mum. I'm sorry ter say th' price hez gone up again while you've been kicking about it .- Life.

Still Working.

"I found an adder in my kitchen this The effort was too much, and she fell morning."

"Nonsense! This is not the season for snake stories." "This is no snake story. ferring to my gas meter.

"Oh, mine's a multiplier."-Houston

Too True. Robinson-They say that there are owner proudly remarked: "Perhaps two things that a man cannot dodgedeath and faxation.

Smith-Well, I never have known anyone to dodge death successfully, but she seemed to cast a sidelong glance I have known of several of our mil- at the dog cemetery which adjoins. Honaires dodging taxation .- Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Putting It Gently. Mrs. Knewbride-Don't you like this cake, George? I made it with my own hands. Mr. Knewbride-Yes, my dear, buter-I think there must be some typographical errors in your cook book .-Cleveland Leader.

Accomplished. Tess-Oh, yes, she was married on the thirteenth.

Jess-On the thirteenth? Gracious isn't that unlucky? Tess-How can it be unlucky if she's actually married?-Philadelphia

Judging by Precedent. This book of yours is full of rank monsense,"s aid the publisher. "In that case," answered the author, "I shall have to ask for a larger roy-alty. Improvement is assured."-Wash-

HOW SHE SURRENDERED By JAMES HUCHES

Gordon's face clouded over. "But this is such a splendid chance," he "It's the opportunity of a It would be criminal to let

You don't have to," said Amy, loft "If you care more about the old position than you care about your inended wife, you are at liberty to go out to-morrow, if you want to, I won't

But you can come home and see our people every year," he pleaded ENTOMBED 26 DAYS You can come home for three months ery year. That's fair enough." 'If you loved me," she scorned, "you DOG IS STILL ALIVE vouldn't ask me to leave mother.

"If you loved me," he retorted you'd be willing to come with me. 'Look here, Amy," he pleaded, gent ly. This is the chance that comes ANIMAL WEDGED FAST IN HOLE o a young fellow only once. Mr. Gor don writes that he wants to surround himself with young men whom he knows. If I go now, by the time IS FOUND BY ITS MISTRESS am 35 1 shall have a position tha would not come to me here before am gray-haired. I know how you feel Canine, Though Too Weak to Move, about leaving the folks and going clear across the continent, but if you oved me you would be willing to go

"Then I don't love you," she said, decidedly, "for I am not going." She held out to him the circlet of which she had been so proud, and he placed it in his pocket book and turned away. She watched him go down the walk. and then ran back into the house to throw herself on the sofa in an agony of grief. She did love Ben Gordon, but she thought that he should be more attentive to her wishes. He had been offered an opportunity o take a place in the office of an old friend of his father's. If things were right he would forge ahead with far greater rapidity than in the eastern bank, where five years of faithful work had merely advanced him from collection clerk to under bookkeeper. He went quietly ahead with his preparations, and though his face fell each morning and evening as he looked in the mail rack in the hall for some word from Amy, he did not seek her

More than once he was tempted to go over to her house and make a last appeal, even though his reason told him that to do so would be to spoil t all. At any sign of surrender she would seek to press her advantage and that he knew would only lead to worse trouble. Even at the last moment he waver ed, but he climbed into the carriage that had come to carry him to the train, and though he was possessed by an almost irresistible impulse to direct the driver to go over to the Mellens', he kept straight on toward

"Train's 20 minutes late," announc About a month ago Bessie thought ed the baggage master as he checked she would go on a little sporting ex-"You've got about half an pedition of her own in the extensive hour to wait." grounds which adjoin the house, and

He stepped out of the baggage room intending to find a seat on the platform, and came face to face with Amy

"I saw you go in," she said. didn't think that you would go away without seeing me.

"I did not want to," he assured, "but I thought it would be better. If ! had it would have opened the argument and ! did not want to make matters any worse than they are."

"Why didn't you come and tell me you were sorry?" she demanded. "Did I have to?" he asked. 'Couldn't you realize what it meant to me to go away and leave you here! and with pick and shovel they dug

"You're not going to," she announced, calmly. "That is, you don't have to. "But I must go on this train," he persisted, puzzled. "May I go, too?" she asked, softly, I'm sorry I was so mean the other You were right, and if you'll night. still have me I'll go with you now."

"But you can't," he cried. "There is no chance to get married before the train comes. "Yes, there is," she declared Mother and father and Dr. Cartwright are in the station, and Dr. Cartwright will marry us in ten min

you."-Boston Globe.

Aristocrats Disgruntled. John Burns's appearance among the British king's advisers, though reeived by the patrician Britons with gasp, didn't begin to excite the lamor that Kaiser Wilhelm's choice of a colonial chief has caused in Germany. Bernhard Dernberg, who has ust succeeded Prince Von Hohenlohe not only not "noble," but the aristocrats declare that he is not even of the old German rock; that he is a badly baptized Jew," whatever that may mean. He is witheringly accused by others of not being of "the financial dynasties." Enforcing Food Law. The state food law is being more vigorously enforced in Massachusetts at the present time than ever before. In five months of this year the state board of health obtained the convic tion of 165 dealers who sold products that did not conform with the requirements of the food law of the state. A more rigid law has just gone into effect, and a more thorough inspection is promised by the state authorities. Figures that Stagger. All the men, women and children dead after an operation for cancer of much as the coal mined in the United the stomach. He was identified promi- States this year. The iron ore brought down the lakes this season will equal He will be buried tomorrow at Aring in weight about 30 per cent of the top.

News and advertising matter may be eft at Gregg's Racket Store, Waverly.

After 12 o'clock noon call the main ber 6, as there will be no meeting over severe. No'd by C. M. Driggs, Sayre left at Gregg's Racket Store, Waverly. office at Sayre, Valley 'phone 128X,

P. W. Towner the jeweler has gone to New York city.

Miss Gunderman is working P. W. Towner's jewelry store.

William Harding of Candor i visiting Waverly friends today.

The little child of James Lynch, of Spaulding St. is ill of pneumonia. Mrs. Dora Riker of West Broad St. went to New York city this

The Tiogn Hose company are preparing to make extensive repairs to their club room.

Thanksgiving day and night, 401 Loder street, Waverly, N. Y.

Mr. ard Mrs. William P. Tillots

the Baptist church will hold a social at the church parlors this

Miss Frances Schoglund of Susquehanna, Pa., is visiting her sister Mrs. Dayton Handricks of Chemung street.

Dr. Switzer, who is receiving treatment at the Packer hospital, has not had a hemmorrhage since last Friday, and is improving

A delegation of ladies from the Woman's Home Missionary so cie'v are in attendance at the county convention of that society

Mrs. Daisy Lounsberry of Fulton, N. Y. will come to Waverly tomorrow and will spend a week at the home of Frank Lounsberry of Johnson street.

and will spend Thanksgiving at and the busy world will for the the home of his son W. E Case, must part cease work and erjoy a Athens Traction company.

The Wells Fargo Express company yesterday presented their day off tomorrow. agent at this place, James Rumsey, ard the driver, Arthur Northrup with fine turkeys for Thanksgiving.

SERVICES TOMORROW

at 7 o'clock there will be a sunrise and Mrr. Harper became engaged in prayer service at the Methodist church In the evening instead of had used from the barrel belonging to the regular Thursday night prayer meeting there will be a special shotgun, and Harper with an autopraise service. Rev, H. B. Cook, pastor of the Methodist church will preach the annual Thanksgiving ing sermon at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock a m. The regular bargained. "You must promise never prayer meetings will be held at the you will be the senior partner, won't to throw it up to me that I ran after Baptist and Presbyterian churches in the evening.

NEARLY COMPLETED

W. verly-The new Masonic temple is rapidly approaching completion and in a short time that as director of the Colonial Office, is society will move from their present location in the N. P. L. building into their new quarters. F. F. Smith is at present installing the heating apparatus which will include steam heat in the third story and hot air in the first and second stories. The rooms vacated by the Masons will be used by the N.

BUILDING BRIDGE

Waverly-Under the direction of Frank L. Howard the town of Barton is erecting a new bridge across dry brook on Pine street. Contractor S. C. Smith has just finished building the concrete abutments. The new bridge will extend clear across the street and will be a great improvement over to arrest him and his own judge to try

LOCAL NEWS

The next regular meeting of on Thanksgiving day.

The advance sale for "The opened at Hall's shoe store this evening. As the show is well liam's Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private

The leading attraction at the Locmis opera house last season wrs "The Mummy and the Humming Bird." It will be repeated for two performances, matinee and evening, next Saturday.

The second annual ball of the Sayre Aerie of Eagles will be held in Eighmey's hall this evening Excellent music has been provided and the Eagles promise to have Free oysters at Bishop's case a big time. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Dr. Nelson and Will Ricketts of Ithaca will play a match game son are visiting their daughter, of pool at Henson's pool rooms Mrs. C. O. Hoagland, on Clark tonighf. It will be a 200 ball game, and there is a purse up. A great game is expected as there is The Young People's society of much rivalry between the men. No admission will be charged.

The Ocioles of this place and a team from O wego will play a game of football on the Riverside grounds at this place tomorrow morning. The game will be called at ten o'clock, and as it is doubtless to be the closing game of the season a big crowd and a hot contest may be expected.

"The Mummy and the Humming Bird," which will be seen at the Loomis on Saturday afternoon and evening premises to draw two big houses. The advance sale of seats will be large and in order to be taken care of it will be an excellent plan to book your order for a seat

NO RECORD TOMORROW

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving, the day set apart principally through precedent for feasting and giving Plans and Estimates Furnished Mr. Case of Auburn is in town of thanks. It is a legal holiday Supt. of the Waverly, Sayre and rest along with the turkey and cranberry sauce. In common with the rest of humanity the employes of the Valley Record will take a Figr.t Duel Over a Barrel. Covington, Tenn.-As the result of a quarrel between their wives concerning their respective rights to use water from a rainwater barrel, J. H. Hughey and Charles Harper engaged in a gun and pistol duel near Tipton Waverly-Tomorrow morning and Harper was killed. Mrs. Hughey a wordy affray respecting the amount of water each was entitled to use and the house. They appealed to their husbands, and Hughey, armed with a matic revolver, met in their yard and opened a fight

Just Too Sweet. Miss Elder-Yes, Jack asked me be his partner for life, and I accepted Miss Younger-How lovely! And

'Mary's Frankfurters. Mary had some little "dogs," She put 'em in to stew; They never growled a single bit, ntil she'd eaten two -Yonkers Statesman

STRAP - HANGER'S FORCE OF

Jones (arriving late, after a basy day, and addressing his wife) -- Madam, take my cheat, please. I'm 'cushtomed to sthand.-The Sketch.

posure Brings on Rheumat ainful in its mildest form, qui known here there is a great de parts. Every box is guarauteed. Sold by druggists, by mail, for 50c and $1.00. Williams Mfg. Co., Prop's., Cleveland, O. For sale by C. M. Driggs, druggist.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

It Eats Up Rust. 6-5-4 will make an old, rusty Stove, or Stove Pipe, look like new, because it eats up rust, When you get ready to set up your Stoves, this Fall, give them all a coat of 6-5-4; it is applied like paint, will not rub off and shines itself. It also

6 - 5 - 4

SIDNE LUSIA

Saves Hard Work

 W. T. CAREY.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

If your dealer hasn't it, Bolich Bros. hav

OFFICE ROOM 5, M. P. A. BUILDING.

Telephone 246y.

MADAME DEAN'S FRENCH FEMALE A Sare, Contain Heater for Septembers Mewerstation NEVER ENGWS TO FAIL, Safe! Sare! Spendy! Sat!

UNITED MEDICAL CO., BOX 74, LANCASTER, PA Sold in Sayre by the West Sayre

R. H. DRISLANE,

Contractor and Builder 910 Willer St. Cards For Sale.

The Valley Record has in stock [the llowing card signs: For Sale Private Office Pirase Do Not Ask for Oredia Positively No Admittance Furnished Rooms

(In effect Nov. :8, 1905.) Trains leave Sayre as follows: HASTBOUND.

2.32 A. M. Dally for Towards, Tunk-hannock, Wilkes-Barre, Mauch Chunk, Allentown, Bethlehem, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. 2.37 A. M. Daily for Towards, Tunkhannock, Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, Mauch Chunch, Allentown, Bethlehem, New York and Philadelphia.

A. M. (Waverly 6:30 A. M.) Weak days only, for Athens, Dister, Towanda, Monroten, New Albany, Dusbore, Satterfield, Halls, Williamsport, Wyalusing, Lacryville, Tunkhannock, Pittston and Wilkes-Barra. O.J. A.M. (Waverly S.35 A. M.) Daily for Jowanda, Tunkhannock, Pittston Wilkes-Barre, White Haven, Pena Haven Junction, Mauch Chunk Allentown, Bestlehem, New York, Phi adelphia, Ealtimore and Washington.

10.00 A. M. Sunday only, for Athens, Milan Ulster, Towards, Wyalusing, Lacey ville, Meshoppen and Tunkhannock. 2.50 P. M. (Waverly 18:33 P. M.) Dally for Towanda, Tunkhunneck, Philiston Wilkes-Barre, White Haven, Mauch Chunk, Allentown, Bethiebem, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

3.00 P. M. Daily, Black Diamend En-press, for Towands, Tunkhashock Wilkes-Barre, Mauch Churt, Aller town Buthlehem, New York, Philadelphis, Bal-time e and Washington. P. M. (Waverly 445 P. M.) Week

WESTBOUND.

AUBURN DIVISION.

We Do Not Ask You to Believe Us

That we are the best Tailors, but those who have tried us are convinced of the fact. Those who have not tried yet are cordially invited to give us only one trial-af-Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will oure Blind, Bleeding, Ulcerated and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors,

> We Are Genuine Tailors

A. Atkins.

Over Raymond & Haupt's Confectionery Store, Lockhart St. H. H. Mercereau,

Attorney-at-Law Sotary Public Special attention to Pension Papers, Valley Phone 11 X. 3 Desmand Street,

Mandolin Teacher

Will be in Sayre on Saturday, each week, which time I will devote to the instruction of pupils on the mandolin. Studio: Room 2, Richard block, over postoffice. For forther particulars address, Edwin F. Loomis, Athens, Pa.

DR. A. G. REES,

111 Miller Street, OFFICE HOURS:

8 to 11:00 a. m., 2 to 4:80, 7:00 to 8:00. Genito urinary and chronic disease pecialty. Both phones.

Carpenter and Builder.

17 Pleasant St. Waverly, B. Y.

Everything New and Up-to-Date.

Tromas Ave., Opposite L. V. Station. Rotes $1.50 Per Day.

Plans and Estimates Furnished 615 Stevenson St., Valley Phone 212y

Read The Record.

Rates :- Wanted, Lost, I for first three times, } cent a word each insertion thereafter. None taken for less than 25 cents. Situations free to paid-in-advance subscri Hotics. My wife Delphine Weller having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation this is to forbid any person harboring or trusting her as I will pay no bills of her contracting after this date. IRVING WELLER.

Athens, Pa., Nov. 26, 1906.-St. Want ads inserted by persons not ing a ledger account with The Re must be paid for when ordered pris We positively cannot charge wan indiscriminately—the expense of i Wanted. Wanted to rent, two nicely furnished oms in an all modern house, with or rooms in an all modern house, with or without board. Address X, Record. 80 Pin boys over 16 years of age. Uto-

Lost In Waverly or Sayre or on street car, combination Odd Fellows and Redmen's charm, 14k gold. Reward if left at C O. Hosgland's office, Waverly. 171-6

Two crowbars, one about 4 feet long and one 5 feet long, between Sayre and Tioga Point cemetery. Finder please leave at this office. Suitable reward.

For Sale.

Heating stove 408 Keystone avenue Guaranteed first class. 170-6* A portion of the Old Spring

ery cheap. Inquire 311 South

For Rent For rent at once, several houses ulre of C. C. West, Sayre.

Bocker-Yes; he carries his own cor

HABIT.

Knicker-Has Smith's auto every