JAIL BREAKER CAUGHT YESTERDAY

Youth Who Went Up Through Lockup Roof Again in Custody

This morning Constable Speacer Brougham went to Towanda and brought back with him Lyman Heeman, Jr., who escaped from jail here on last Monday evening. Heeman after his escape went to Waverly where his father lives and the officers made several trips to the domicile of the elder Heeman but failed to find the object of their search. Yesterday, however, Heeman, Jr., went to Towanda to spend Thanksgiving with friends near that place. Constable Charles McCracken heard of the matter and as he knew that Heeman was badly wanted here on various charges he placed the young man under arrest and consigned him to the county jail, where the prisoners don't go up through an air chamber nor kick holes in the roof.

Heeman is wanted here for stealing at various times copper and iron from the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. He had been given a hearing and held to appear at court. His commitment was in the hands of Spencer Brougham when Heeman escaped. Now the latter will be compelled to answer a charge of jail breaking. Constable Brougham having been armed with a warrant charging this offense when he went to Towanda this morning.

Constable Brougham brought Heeman here today on No. 157. He was taken before Justice Carey and arraigned on the charge of jail breaking. At the examination Heeman admitted having broken from the lockup and said the job was "dead easy." He was held to court in the sum of $200 bail, and this afternoon Constable Brougham took him to Towanda. The officer had two commitments in his pocket. One for jail breaking and the other for larceny. Heeman is also under indictment for several other offenses and when he faces the court he has promised to plead guilty to them all.

SECOND NUMBER S. H. S. COURSE

The second of the entertainments comprising the Sayre High school course will be given at the High school hall next Wednesday, Dec. 5, by the Elma B Smith company. There are four members in the company, and each is exceptionally good in his particular part. Miss Smith, the leader of the company, is a reader of rare ability. She is unquestionably the greatest imitator of children, birds and animals now before the public. It is impossible to describe her work; it must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

The other members of the company are Miss Merle Tillotson, a contralto, who possesses a voice of great volume and high culture. Miss Agnes Ambrose, a pianist, whose playing is characterized by great clearness of technique, alike in powerful passages and in those requiring delicacy and lightness. Mr. Cecil Burleigh, a violinist of great natural ability and high cultivation. In all it is a most excellent company, and a first class entertainment is assured.

CLUB HUNT

The Hunt of the Sayre City Club goes merrily on. Wm. Fritz is at the head of the list with five rabbits—very large ones the largest of which weighed 6½ lbs. if you do not think this is heavy, weigh one and see. Every member is urged to come to the banquet whether hunter or not. District Attorney Mills will act as toast-master.

LACEYVILLE AGOG WITH EXCITEMENT

Oil Well Shot at That Place Shows Up Well and Another One Will be Sunk.

Laceyville residents are agog with excitement as the result of oil having been struck on the flats near that place. Recently a gang of workmen have been putting down a well, which on Tuesday last had reached the depth of 2,400 feet. Becoming somewhat discouraged the promoters of the well sent for an expert at Olean, N. Y. The expert arrived on Tuesday morning and after investigating the well thoroughly discovered that oil sand had been struck at 800 feet. He decided to shoot the well at that depth, and the result is said to have been highly satisfactory. The well, however, had been put down so near the river that the hole immediately filled with water. The indications of oil are so strong, however, that a dry well will be drilled and the promoters expect to find the fluid in paying quantities. The citizens of the little town are wild over the prospect.

MUST LIQUIDATE THEIR OWN FINES

Lehigh Conductors and Engineers Warned to Keep Crossings Open

A notice has been posted by the Lehigh officials to the effect that engineers and conductors in the employ of the company who are convicted of blocking crossings will be compelled to pay the fines themselves. The order is the result of numerous complaints which have been made to the officials by Mayor Knies of Wilkes-Barre. He insists that so far as that city is concerned the practice of blocking the various crossings must cease and that all conductors and engineers who fail to heed the warning will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

CONSTABLE HOLLON MAKES SUGGESTION

Says He Will Furnish the Wire For Lockup Roof if the Chief Will Put it Up.

Editor Valley Record: I see that Lyman Heeman, Jr., has made his escape through that hole on the roof of the Sayre lockup. This is very unfortunate as we want Lyman, Jr., on three cases of burglary to be tried at December term of court. It was only a short time ago that Lyman's brother Fred (now sejourning for an indefinite period at Auburn) obtained his liberty through that same hole in the roof. I would suggest that your borough authorities purchase a reel of barb wire and line the roof with it before you incarcerate another Heeman, placing the strands not over an inch and a half apart, as a Heeman will crawl through any space he can insert his head. I will furnish the wire if Chief Walsh will apply it.

Yours respectfully, Guy C. Hollon.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

A very pleasant home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Piatt, on Stevens street, Saturday evening, Nov. 24th, at which time the marriage of Cora, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Piatt, was united in marriage to Harvey Tracy, of this place. The Rev. J. F. Warner, pastor of the Methodist-Episcopal church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends. After a wedding supper the happy couple left on a trip to Philadelphia and other points south. On their return they will reside in this place.

GOT COLD FEET

The Owego foot ball team failed to show up here yesterday for a game with the Orioles of this place. The Owegoites are said to have been afflicted with a case of cold feet. Well, the weather was rather chilly yesterday anyway, and as the Orioles are crack-a-jacks, the Owegoites can hardly be blamed for preferring to remain at home.
