SHARRONE MURDER CASE NEARING END

Italian Accused of Murdering Eugene Messenger May Learn His Fate Today—Court Overrules Motion to Take Case From Jury.

The case of the Commonwealth against Dominic Sharrone, the Italian charged with the murder of Eugene Messenger at Athens on the 25th day of August last, was practically closed yesterday, and will probably go to the jury this afternoon. Yesterday was occupied in taking testimony both for the commonwealth and the defense and when court adjourned last night all the witnesses had been sworn. District Attorney Mills stated that he might call several witnesses to rebut testimony given by witnesses for the defense, but that the taking of this testimony would take only a short time. The attorneys promised not to consume over one hour each in summing up, so that it is probable that Dominic Sharrone will know his fate before the close of the day. Immediately after the commonwealth had closed its side of the case yesterday afternoon Attorney L. T. Hoyt for the defense moved for the discharge of the defendant, on the grounds that the district attorney had utterly failed to make out a case or to prove that the defendant had anything to do with the commission of the crime for which he stood indicted. Judge Panning denied the motion on the ground that sufficient facts had been presented which should be determined by the jury. The denial of the motion was followed by the introduction of evidence for the defense. Three Italians were sworn. One of them swore that on the night of the murder Dominic Sharrone occupied a bed at his boarding house in Sayre all night. The witness testified that he slept in the same bed with Dominic and that the latter could not possibly have left his bed without the knowledge of the witness.

CHI PSI BUILDING IS A TOTAL LOSS

Cornell's Fraternity House is Now a Smoking Mass of Ruins—Seven Dead and Others Terribly Injured.

Four students and three prominent Ithaca are dead as a result of the fire which broke out yesterday morning in Chi Psi fraternity house at Ithaca. The building is a total loss, and its destruction with the appalling loss of life has thrown all Ithaca into mourning. The bodies of the dead with the exception of those of W. H. Nichols of Chicago and F. W. Grelle of East Orange, N. J., have been recovered. Today the ruins have been dynamited in order to facilitate the search for the missing bodies. The heroism of the members of the volunteer fire department, who died attacking the fire is the subject of unstated praise among Ithaca today. This heroism is matched by Schmueck, who re-entered the burning building to save his room-mate, Nichols. Schmueck died of the injuries he received. McCutcheon, another student, also exhibited bravery unmatchable. He remained in the building assisting his fellow students to escape until he was fatally burned. Pope, a freshman, was severely burned while seeking to aid members of the fraternity. The cause of the fire will probably never be known. The building is an unsightly wreck, with every article of furnishings completely destroyed. Cornell has been deprived of one of its landmarks. The building was erected by Jeanie McGraw-Fiske at a cost of $130,000. She was the daughter of the lumber king, John McGraw, who was of Cornell's early benefactors. He never enjoyed the palace and only entered it after death. Around the house clustered the memory of the great fight for the Fiske millions. Whether it will be rebuilt is a matter of speculation.

KILLED BY BLACK DIAMOND EXPRESS

Delivery Wagon Driver Met With Death at Crossing No. 11 at Wilkes-Barre Yesterday.

The south bound Black Diamond Express on the Lehigh Valley added another to its list of victims at crossing No. 11 at Wilkes-Barre yesterday afternoon, when it struck a wagon driven by Ephraim McCracken, injuring the latter so seriously that he died in the hospital shortly afterwards, killing outright both horses, and completely demolishing the wagon. McCracken had been delivering goods for a tinware firm all the afternoon and was on his return home when the accident occurred. The view to the crossing is sometimes obstructed by a string of cars but whether this was the cause yesterday is not known. McCracken drove on to the tracks directly in front of the oncoming express train which was rushing along at the rate of 40 miles an hour. The wagon and horses were carried a considerable distance along the tracks. The horses were finally thrown to one side and the wagon was carried several hundred yards further. McCracken was found in the seat of the wagon which had landed on the pilot of the engine. He was alive but unconscious. He was given immediate medical attention and hurried to the hospital as soon as possible. He died in the hospital shortly after being admitted. He is 31 years old and leaves a wife, Frank Blister was killed in a similar manner at the same crossing recently.

A Speedy Cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Liver Complaints, Headache, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bad Complexion, Nervousness and all Diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Bloodine Liver Pills
act gently, yet thoroughly upon the bowels, liver, stomach and digestive organs. The pills in old and chronic cases of constipation and indigestion, act at once, without griping, nor do they leave any unpleasant after-effects, nor form a constant habit of purging, produced by other cathartic remedies. Bloodine Liver Pills restore the deranged and torpid liver to its normal condition and beneficial action. Remove and prevent constipation by securing a natural and regular operation of the bowels, and relieve those unpleasant symptoms which attend a diseased or overloaded condition of the liver, stomach and bowels. To assist in obtaining this end, the following suggestions are offered.
REMARKS: Everyone who uses pills for their action on the liver, should know that large doses rarely prove so satisfactory as small ones. Large doses simply purge and irritate the system, usually leaving the bowels constipated, and seldom removing the cause of the trouble, or improving the general health. On the other hand, small doses develop the alternative effect of the medicine, do not irritate or congest the bowels, and greatly stimulate the liver and prevent the accumulation of bile by directing its flow into the proper channels. Therefore it is advisable to commence by taking not over one or two pills at a time, and increase dose as necessary.
Cures:—I find your "Bloodine Liver Pills" the most effective pill I ever used. They cause no griping or constipation after effect as most liver pills.
Yours truly,
MRS. AMADA RICHARDSON.

LEHIGH VALLEY WINS BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Judge Instructed Jury to Find for the Defendant Company.

The Monahan damage case against the Lehigh Valley was dismissed in court at Scranton yesterday by the trial judge instructing the jury to find a verdict for the defendant company. The case grew out of injuries received by Mrs. Thomas Monahan in a Lehigh Valley railroad accident some time ago. She brought suit to recover the sum of $15,000, alleging that she had been injured as the result of negligence on the part of the company. Her husband also sued the company for $10,000, on account of the loss of his wife's services. The case came up for trial in the court of common pleas at Scranton yesterday and after listening to the testimony on the part of the plaintiffs the judge took the case from the jury by instructing them to find for the defendant company.

FAILED TO PRODUCE PRINCIPAL WITNESS.

And Therefore Tony Malisa Was Discharged on Charge of Aggravated Assault.

Tony Malisa, the Italian who was arrested yesterday on a charge of aggravated assault preferred by Pietro Pietropetro, was discharged by Justice Carey this morning. The complaint in the case stated yesterday that he had a witness to the alleged assault, but this witness failed to materialize, so Malisa was released with an injunction not to appear in court again or he would be dealt with strenuously.

ITALIANS CHARGED WITH BOBBING STATION.

They Were Arrested at Ithaca Yesterday Afternoon on Suspicion

Two Italians were arrested at Ithaca last night on suspicion of having robbed the Lehigh Valley station at East Ithaca. The men were sent to the police station and they will be given an examination later. They had their effects packed up and were about to leave the city, and it was because of this fact that they were placed under suspicion.

BIG EVENT AT THE LOOMIS TUESDAY.

"His Honor, the Mayor," Is an Unusually Fine Attraction and Deserves a Crowded House.

An event of unusual interest will be the appearance at the Loomis on next Tuesday of the Alfred E. Aaron merry musical success, "His Honor, the Mayor" which comes here direct from its run of nearly seven months in New York city. Mr. Aaron brings the entire organization of one hundred persons direct from Wallack's Theatre, New York, with the same cast as contributed so much to its phenomenal success. Among his principals are such well known players as Harry Kelly, whose creation of the role of Deacon Flood has been the sensation of the metropolis the past summer. There also is Alfred E. Aaron's English ponies, the diminutive girls whose grace and agility as dancers has given them an international fame. "His Honor, the Mayor" is a musical play composed by two of America's best known musicians, Julian Edwards and Alfred E. Aarons. Mr. Edwards is the composer of such light operas as "Dolly Varden," "Brian Boru," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and "Love's Lottery" in which Mme. Schumann-Heink starred last year, while Mr. Aarons wrote the music for such successes as "The Knickerbocker Girl," "My Antoinette" and "Mam'zelle Awkins."

JOHN W. VOGEL'S CITY MINSTRELS.
