GOOD HEALTH is reflected in persons who couple a careful, wholesome diet with the moderate use of an invigorating, healthful food beverage like STEGMAIER'S BEER. The ruddy good nature manifest in those who indulge in an occasional glass of good beer, is proverbial. They are good natured because they have gained strength and health and vigor from its use. In striking contrast are the pessimistic coffee or tea drinker and the optimistic beer drinker. Try our beer. It is the same of healthful liquid refreshment. STEGMAIER BREWING CO., SAYRE, PA.

NEW SECRETARIES.

Senate Confirms Moody, Bonaparte, Metcalf and Straus.

RAYNER'S ATTACK ON PRESIDENT.

Congress to Spell According to Standard Dictionaries—Taft Reports on Death of Ten Manila Convicts by Poisonous Germs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The senate confirmed the nominations of William H. Moody of Massachusetts to be an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, Charles J. Bonaparte of Maryland to be attorney general, Victor H. Metcalf of California to be secretary of the navy and Oscar S. Straus of New York to be secretary of commerce and labor.

The opposition to Messrs. Moody and Bonaparte, which had been raised in the senate by a number of Democratic senators, was not strongly pressed at the session, and no roll call was asked for.

While Mr. Grosvenor was discussing the amendment Mr. Towne (N. Y.) asked him whether the item referred to was not "on page 23, beginning with line 23?" "Yes, I believe so," replied Mr. Grosvenor.

"Then is not that a double skidoo, and if so does it not of necessity go out?" "Oh, that's an old story," replied Mr. Grosvenor amid laughter.

Senator Denwood (Mo.) insisted that the amendment altered existing law and "rightfully should go out on a point of order."

Castro criticism of President Roosevelt's position on the Japanese question prefaced Senator Rayner's discussion in the senate of the constitutional questions involved.

If the military and civil forces of the federal government were to be used by the president, Mr. Rayner said, it became very important to know his exact power in the matter.

"Because," he said, "it is quite a serious matter, in view of the great calamity that has lately befallen the city of San Francisco, for the president to contemplate the bombarding of the city at this time and to declare war against the boards of county school trustees of California if there is no justification or pretext upon which such ferocious proceedings can be undertaken."

waits house Reception. WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Roosevelt received the members of the diplomatic corps and their families at the White House. Mrs. Longworth and Miss Haguer, Mrs. Roosevelt's secretary, assisted in the dining room, and Captain McCoy of the president's staff presented the guests.

APPEAL TO POWERS

Vatican Strongly Protests Action of France.

VIOLATES RIGHTS OF HUMANITY.

Day of Grace Granted the Parisian Churches Expired Today—Police and Soldiers Guard Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—Dispatches from Rome say that Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, will present to the powers a vigorously worded protest against the action of the French government in searching the archives of the papal curia.

This protest will be handed to the members of the diplomatic body accredited to the Vatican. The secretary of state sets forth, among other things, that the incident in question is the first instance in history of such a violation of the rights of man.

The pope, when he heard that Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, had been compelled to leave the episcopal residence, telegraphed immediately placing the palace of the nunciature in Paris, which is owned by the Vatican, at his disposal and at the same time expressing his cordial sympathy with the venerable prelate.

The day of grace granted to the churches of Paris in the execution of the law providing for the separation of church and state expired at noon today. The delay has only served to increase the excitement caused by the expulsion from France of Mr. Montaigne, secretary of the papal nunciature at Paris.

A detachment of police now guards the buildings occupied by the chamber of deputies and the senate in order to prevent possible antigovernment demonstrations on the part of the clericals.

It turns out that the papers seized at the papal nunciature placed in the government's hands important evidence which may prove exceedingly embarrassing to the Vatican if open war is to take place. They include, besides all the diplomatic records covering the correspondence exchanged before the rupture with the Vatican, recent instructions from Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, a mass of letters from prelates all over the world and letters in the handwriting of deputies of the Right party.

M. Jaurès, the Socialist leader, asserts in his paper that the seized documents even prove the existence of a conspiracy.

The clergy have appealed to their parishioners to be present at the churches today at the first mass celebrated outside the pale of the law. The government, however, is proceeding gently. These services were not broken up, but policemen in attendance noted infractions of the law and cited offending priests before the nearest justice of the peace. The chief danger of disorders in Paris is in the possible invasion of churches by rowdies and free thinkers. Reserves of gendarmes are stationed at various points throughout the city to guard against trouble.

The efforts made by certain members of the chamber of deputies and other disinterested persons to insure a continuation of services in churches in spite of the papal veto by inducing Catholic laymen in each parish to make the forbidden declaration have not, so far as yet reported, met with much success.

There was a riotous demonstration at Nancy while the bishop was moving out of his residence. A crowd of 2,000 accompanied the officials to the residence, hooting them constantly. The bishop will be prosecuted on the charge of assaulting a policeman because he laid his hand upon a policeman's shoulder while he was leaving his residence.

WALTHOUR TEAM PROTESTS.

Row at Madison Square Garden Six Day Bicycle Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Vigorous protests have been made to the management of the six day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden by the Walthour-Bedell team on the unfair advantage taken by others, and particularly the Root-Folger team, in falling on the track the moment it appears that the Walthour-Bedell team, now a lap behind, has an opportunity to regain the lost distance.

Twice, it is said, when it looked as though the lap was regained, Folger and then Root went sprawling on the track. At each time either Walthour or Bedell was a half lap ahead of the bunch, with two men as a block between, and seemed to have the lap regained the red flag from the scorer's box flashed in the face of the sprinter, and the wild ride for the lap was lost.

Hisses followed the falls and continued at intervals, for the spectators want to see a fair field and no favor with the riders on even terms.

One of the fastest sprints since the race began was witnessed late in the afternoon, when Matt Downey and Jimmy Moran, the Irish team from Massachusetts, relieved each other at nearly every lap until they had practically gained one circuit of the track only to have it disallowed on account of a spill in which five of the riders fell in a bunch, though none was badly injured.

It is not particularly the matter of being foiled in their effort to regain the lap on which the Walthour and Bedell camp base their protest, but every time one of these riders tries to jump the field and sprint out a lap in the lead he loses more vitality than in a day's riding, and vitality counts for everything in a grueling race of this kind.

The teams now left in the race are Root and Folger, Downey and Moran, Vanderstuyft and Stol, Macdonald and Coffey, Breton and Vanou, Samuels and Hollister, Mettling and Logan, Hopper and Downing, Root and Macfarland, Galvin and Wiley, Pyle and Clark, Georget and Georget and Walthour and Bedell.

The score at noon stood at 1,553 miles for all the teams except Walthour and Bedell, who were a lap behind.

Increase Ban Johnson's Salary. CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The American Baseball league is a united and happy family once more. For the past year Ban Johnson, president of the league, and Charles Comiskey have been at loggerheads, and their differences have threatened to spread dissension among the other members of the organization. At the annual meeting of the league here these two men became reconciled and have renewed the close friendship which existed for so many years between them before the split twelve months ago. As an evidence of his pleasure at the cessation of hostilities Mr. Comiskey suggested that the clubs increase Johnson's salary from $10,000 to $15,000 a year. This proposal met with unanimous consent.

Don Hamilton Won All the Way. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—The feature of the card at Oakland was the Fairy Rose handicap, which presented seven classic performers. Proper, the favorite, spoiled his chances at the start, and Don Hamilton, getting off in the lead, held that position to the finish, with Corrigan counting gamely for place.

Narai at New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 13.—The steep purchase over the short course at City park was the exciting feature of the racing. Two horses—Esterjoy, the favorite, and Scepter—fell, while another horse ran out of the course. Narai, at 9 to 2, was first.

Foiled Auburn Cariosity. AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Prison officials succeeded pretty well in fooling a thousand people who had assembled at the Central station to catch a glimpse of Chester E. Gillette. Having made preparations to stop the train on the outskirts of the city, prison guards in uniform were still sent to the station, while the warden's private equipage with Principal Keeper Tupper and two guards was sent to Paris street crossing, where the train stopped, and Gillette and Sheriff Klock of Herkimer quickly entered the carriage and were driven to the prison.

Shah Has Four Days to Live. TEHERAN, Persia, Dec. 13.—The condition of the shah remains practically unchanged, although he has rallied slightly. At a consultation of physicians it was discovered for the first time that his majesty's heart has become seriously affected, thus adding a new complication to the situation, which already was considered grave. The condition of his heart and the repeated syncope lead to a consensus of opinion that the shah cannot live more than four days.

Lords and Commons Disagree. LONDON, Dec. 13.—The hostility between the house of lords and the house of commons has now reached an open stage. The lower house, after debating the matter, last night rejected all of the amendments of the house of lords to the education bill by a vote of 410 to 107, the Irish members voting with the government.
