INTERESTING LECTURE AT BAPTIST CHURCH.
Waverly—A large crowd gathered at the Baptist church to hear the lecture of John Temple Graves on "The Reign of the Demagogue." It was one of the most finished and eloquent discourses ever heard in this section. He showed the danger to our institutions that lurked in the reign of these parasites, who would make every appeal to the passion and prejudices of the mob, and resorted to open corruption to gain their own ambitious ends. He said that the remedy was the education of the growing citizen, and inoculating him with the spirit of truth, right and civic virtue.
