CUTTING ICE POLLUTES VILLAGE WATER SUPPLY.

Sufficient Care Not Taken to Keep the Water Free From Filth.

Waverly—Last Wednesday H. M. Ogden of the state health commission came to Waverly, having been called here for the purpose of investigating the manner in which the ice is harvested on the Waverly reservoir.

The evidence obtained showed that considerable filth got into the water during the process of harvesting the ice crop. Some of this is preventable, while much of it is due to carelessness and direct disregard of all sanitary precautions on the part of the men engaged in the work. On several occasions horses had broken through into the water and at one time a horse was hurt and died to death before it was taken out. Orders were given to the men to clean up all excrement that was dropped on the ice, but this was not done in the absence of some one who would enforce it.

Mr. Ogden has not made any report on the evidence secured, but it is likely that the state health department will be heard from soon.

MOTHER-OVERJOYED FINDS DAUGHTER

Left Home Nine Months Ago and Her Whereabouts Had Been a Mystery Ever Since.

Waverly—For the past nine months the police force of Waverly, and in fact of all the towns in this vicinity have been on the lookout for a young girl named Ophelia Marcellus, who left her home in the country about six miles south of Wellsburg about nine months ago with a man named Peter Derry. Since her departure her parents have been bending every energy to locate her but without success.

Last night, however, the girl's mother called at police headquarters and told Officer Corcoran that she had located the girl at the home of George Howe on Pine street in this village.

The officer accompanied her to the Howe house. The girl was not there at the time but Mrs. Howe went out and soon returned with the girl who had been calling at a neighbors. The mother, and daughter were overjoyed at seeing each other, and the scene was a very affecting one.

The girl, who since her absence had become a mother, and had a child about two months of age, returned home with her mother. The man with whom she ran away is still in Waverly. He is a man about forty years of age and is employed in this vicinity. He resided on a farm and was a neighbor of the girl. Their relations became intimate, and about nine months ago they left home together. It seems that they first went to Canada, and while they were gone Derry's wife sold off the larger portion of the farming implements. Derry returned and started in to take possession of his property wherever he could find it without the formality of a replevin suit. This started a litigation, and that suit it seems is still pending. He was also arrested for abduction, but owing to the fact that the girl was over 18 years of age the charge was not sustained.

It seems that the girl has been living at various places between here and Elmira Heights, but has kept concealed so well that she had not been located despite the efforts put forth. She had grown home sick however, and on Wednesday she wrote a letter to her mother telling her where she was. The mother received the letter yesterday, and immediately came to Waverly, and found her daughter.

WILLIAM THOMPSON KILLED AT WELLSBURG.

Stepped From in Front of One Train in Front Another, and Was Instantly Killed.

Waverly—William Thompson, an old man was killed at Wellsburg Tuesday evening. He was an employe of the Powers-Mansfield Co. that is constructing the new trolley line to Elmira. He had several children, and was in destitute circumstances up to a short time ago, and the authorities were about to send him to the county house when Mr. Mansfield hearing of his condition gave him a job. Tuesday night after he had quit work they were walking down the track when they saw a train approaching. Thompson stepped from the track directly in front of a locomotive that was going in the opposite direction, and was literally ground to pieces.

LEVI CURTIS TAKEN ILL WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Waverly—Levi Curtis was attacked by a fainting spell while on Broad street Wednesday afternoon. He was taken into his office and revived after a few moments, and was removed to his home. He was reported as being dangerously ill, but is very much better this morning. Mrs. Curtis was away from home visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grant at Akron, O. She is on her way home accompanied by her daughter.

HOW ARE THESE CHICKENS FOR EGG PRODUCERS?

Waverly—Edward Gardiner has six chickens that are not yet six months old, and which he says have already laid a total of 196 eggs. He is very proud of them and says that if they keep on, and he can produce more that will equal their laying capacity that he will go into the egg business exclusively.

ADVERTISING TAKES NOTICE.

The notice printed in yesterday's Record insinuating that advertisers must have their copy for change in this office on the day before they are to appear is impertinent, and is due to the constant in-casus in business. Under no circumstances will this rule be departed from, and advertisers are therefore urged to govern themselves accordingly.

ITALIANS PILFERING COAL AT TOWANDA.

Company Sends Officers to Interview the Foreigners Who Are Compelled to Liquidate.

Recently the Lehigh Valley has suffered the loss of a considerable quantity of coal at Towanda. The thefts were for the most part committed by the Italians who are employed by the company at that place. The other day the detectives in the employ of the company interviewed some of the foreigners on the subject of taken coal, without consent of the company, and the foreigners promised to settle today.

Dominic Sharrone, the Italian charged with the murder of Eugene Messenger, will be compelled to stand another trial. The discharge of the jury, on account of the illness of one of the members, will necessitate the issuing of a new venire. It is not known whether or not the district attorney will bring the case up again at the present term of criminal court.
