John Birmingham was arrested last night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and placed in the borough lockup. Will Coveny also charges him with purloining $30 from him.

R. W. Kendall of Burlington, came to Athens yesterday to visit his daughter, Lettie who is teaching music here. He was formerly a member of the Symphony orchestra in Athens when they were in their glory.

PROTECTION HOSE HAD BIG TIME.

Entertained Their Friends at a Social Session Last Night. Athens—Protection Hose company although it is over half a century old has no symptoms of declining vigor or dotage if we are to judge from the jolly gathering last night. The declared purpose of the meeting was to enjoy a social evening and to get a good square meal. But when Joe Beaman, Will Schrier, Abe Groat and such kindred spirits get together the scope of their sociality expands and enlarges wonderfully and as we contemplate the scene we feel like the poet did when he wrote:

"I don't know how to tell it, But if such a thing could be, As the Angels wanted boardin' And they call around on me, I'd take them to Protection Company. The whole enduring flock When the feast is on the festive board, And the fodder in the shock." The hose rooms were gaily decorated and the boys came forty strong and there was business done all the time from start to finish.

Kirk Harris was appointed toast master and he blushing made his maiden speech. Joe Beaman responded giving the experiences at the Firemen's Convention at Mansfield. After which Abe Groat told something of his experiences when the old Exchange burned and one of the boys went to his home above the tracks and wakened him after the fire had spent its force and he got to the hose rooms just in time to pay his fine. Dr. Crawford sang his euphonious song, "Old Hemlock Row," and was encored, responding with "Woodchuck Serenade." Then Arch Maurice gave a character sketch of "The Cool Collegian," after which Nate Weiler and Thad Newman were called for but declined to take up the time as the evening was already far gone and they felt sleepy. Protection hose company will remember this evening for a long time. They are all good firemen and know how to enjoy themselves.

Well-Known in Athens.

Athens—From a recent Buffalo paper we notice that Governor Higgins has announced that he will appoint Harry L. Taylor to be judge of Erie county, N. Y., to succeed Edward K. Emery. The office will pay $5,000 a year for the term of six years. Mr. Taylor is a nephew of Postmaster Frank G. Sairs and he has visited in Athens several times and has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his good fortune. He was born in Halsey Valley, N. Y., in 1866, and after attending the public schools there he entered Cornell where he graduated in 1888. For a time thereafter he was a professional base ball player in the Louisville and Baltimore teams. He again entered Cornell as a student in the law school when Governor-Elect Hughes was a lecturer and graduated from there in 1893. He afterwards accompanied Mr. Hughes to New York and was in his office for a year. From there he went to Buffalo and opened an office for himself where he remained up to the present time. Last fall he entered into politics and was made a delegate to the State Convention at Saratoga. This was probably the opening influence that has secured his promotion.

WERE GIVEN A HEARING TODAY.

Tramps Brought Up From Towanda on Charge of Selling Stolen Goods. Athens—About a month ago a Lehigh car was robbed and some of the missing property was found in the possession of some Italians at South Waverly. They claimed that they had bought the articles of three tramps and Chief Mulligan took the trail they gave and captured Jim Burns, Pat Flynn and Ed. Hawley at Westbrook's barn at midnight and they were brought before Justice Johnson and committed to jail for 30 days on charge of vagrancy. Today Chief Mulligan went to Towanda and brought the prisoners to Athens to have a hearing on the charge of selling the goods.
