TO AID CHINESE.

Taft Accepts Harriman's Offer to Transport Food to Starving. WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Secretary of War Taft as president of the American National Red Cross sent the following telegram addressed to E. H. Harriman, executive officer, Union Pacific railroad, New York city.

Your telegram of the 28th ult. to the president of the United States tendering the free services of your San Francisco and Portland steamship lines for the transportation of supplies to Shanghai and Hongkong for the famine sufferers of China has been referred to the Red Cross by the state department, and on behalf of the Red Cross society I accept with sincere thanks your kind and generous offer. The Red Cross will take the liberty of communicating further with you in regard to details.

The Red Cross society, which through its branches and various other agencies is making every effort to obtain sufficient contributions of money and foodstuffs to make up a cargo for shipment to China at an early date, calculates from $100,000 to $150,000 will be required to purchase such cargo.

Had Cause for Complaint. A Lowestoft (England) servant, who successfully sued her mistress for wages in lieu of notice, stated that she was dismissed because she got up early one fine Sunday morning and went for a 20 minutes' walk.

He is a son of Jeremiah Vansice, a Civil War Veteran, who served with distinguished bravery in Co. G 49th Pa. Vols. He has all of the enthusiasm of his father and although he has served his four years' enlistment he is thinking of trying another term. When he first went out he served on the war vessel "Newark" but subsequently he was on the "Baltimore" and "Oregon."

The Great Lakes Fleet. A hardy breed of men doing their duty as they find it, the sailors of the great lakes are more and more in demand to man the new fleets that are building every year. While the shipyards of the sea coast were waiting over the death of business, the shipyards of the lakes booked orders for 31 steel vessels for the season of 1906, in size from six to twelve hundred tons capacity, with a total value of $14,000,000.—Outing Magazine.

Wild Boar in Philippines. There are thousands of wild boar in the Philippines and you can shoot them anywhere. The natives usually drive them into nets with dogs. Sometimes they are caught in pitfalls or traps. No one ever heard of the Philippine wild boar attacking anyone, although it grows to great size and looks very fierce. Like the wild jungle fowl, which will breed with domestic poultry, the wild boar will breed freely with the native pigs.

To Remove Iron Rust. A simple remedy for iron rust stain is to be found in common cream of tartar. If this is sprinkled on the stain and the damaged goods then allowed to remain in the sun for a little time the spot will be found to have disappeared. If the first application should prove unsuccessful a second will be almost sure to remove the stain.—Suburban Life.

BOLD VILLAIN

SCARED WOMAN

Attempted to Smash in Door, But Is Frightened Away By Appearance of Woman's Husband.

Athens—Last evening between 8:20 and 9 o'clock while E. O. Francke was at his store some one came to his house on South Main street and tried to get in. Mrs. Francke was alone and as she came to the door she enquired "what do you want?" "If you want Mr. Francke he is at the store." He says "I want to get in and go through the house and then I can see whether the person I want is here." She was frightened and refused to open the door. She says if you want Dick he is at the bank or at Father O'Rourke's. He said "I want Will." She says "Will is in New York." "Will is here and you open the door or I'll break through." Mrs. Francke then stepped to the telephone and rang up Central. The man then said "If you ring up anybody I'll break every bone in your body." He then became desperate and smashed a hole through a panel at the side of the door and thrust his hand through and attempted to reach the lock so as to unbolt it. Mrs. Francke struck his hand and kicked his arm so he was kept out and in about five minutes Mr. Francke arrived and the man disappeared. Mrs. Francke saw the man through the side window and describes him as a stout heavy man and that he wore a mask and sweater.

This was a bold act and as it happened early when people were upon the streets it is apparent that the man was a desperate character. This has produced a reign of terror all through town and people are getting their guns ready for action should another attempt be made. Mrs. Francke had a gun but it was up stairs and she had no time to get it or she would have shot through the panel at the scoundrel.

UNION VETERAN LEGION HELD GRAND MEETING.

Officers For the Ensuing Year Were Publicly Installed.

Athens—The Union Veteran Legion held one of the grand meetings yesterday that will long be to them a pleasant memory. At 1 o'clock, with their wives, they sat down to a good dinner at the Campbell House that Landlord Bonney had prepared for them. After this they marched down to Grand Army hall and had a public installation of the new officers. C. T. Hull officiated as installing officer and the following is a list of the officials for the year 1907: Colonel Commander, Rev. Hiram G. Blair of Standing Stone; Lieutenant Colonel, John H. Chaffee of Horubrook; Major, Abraham French of Sheshequin; Adjutant, W. H. H. Gore; Officer of the Day, H. H. Joslin of Ulster; Officer of the Guard, C. W. Frost; Chaplain, C. T. Hull; Sergeant Major, D. W. Tripp; Quartermaster, Sergeant, L. W. Kelley.

After the installation was over Colonel Blair who served in the Second Bucktails gave us one of his eloquent addresses full of enthusiasm and patriotic sentiment. He said that he experienced something of the feelings that he did when he was marching in front of Petersburg to meet the enemy where everything foreboded a desperate struggle. So the presence of the old veterans and their wives at this time brought a tremor to his senses for if he undertook to tell one half he had seen the old soldiers who had experienced the same thing would ensure him for not describing anything near the full truth, and the ladies would think that it was an exaggeration. So he could only thank those who had chosen him to this high office and he could only give the promise that he would do his best to dignify the position and use his best endeavors to do his duty.

Rev. Will Kelley was next called for, and responded with a very eloquent patriotic talk. His father was an old soldier and he always manifests a great regard for the veterans. We are always glad to greet him. The meeting closed and all were very much pleased with it.

The Squirrel Fish. In color the squirrel fish is a brilliant red, which makes it a conspicuous inhabitant of the sea as it darts here and there with quick, alert movements. The body of the squirrel fish shows a few stripes and is well covered with sharp spines.
