Infant Died Yesterday.

South Waverly—May, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murphy died yesterday at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The death was due to an attack of pneumonia. The funeral took place at 2:30 this afternoon.

HUGH J. BALDWIN FUNERAL TOMORROW

Services Will Take Place From His Late Home at Three O'clock in the Afternoon.

Waverly—The principal topic of conversation among all classes of citizens in Waverly today is the death of Hugh J. Baldwin, who passed away so unexpectedly yesterday morning. Nothing but expressions of sorrow are heard on all sides. He was a man who had always been active for the best interests of the community, and the feeling is general that his taking off is a public calamity, and in his death the community has lost one who could not well be spared.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from his home on Pennsylvania avenue. The service at the house will be conducted by the Rev. Peter R. Ross. The remains will be buried in Forrest Home cemetery, and the Rev. Howard Crydenwise will conduct the service at the grave. Arrangements have been made by the village board of trustees to attend in a body, and at their meeting last night they passed resolutions of respect, and requested the businessmen to close their places during the time of the funeral service.

All members of the fire department and all the ex-chiefs will attend. The members of the Waverly Camp S. of V. will be present in a body.

ERIE WRECK BLOCKS PASSENGER TRAINS.

Derailment Near Smithboro Blocks Both Tracks.

Waverly—A bad freight wreck on the Erie railroad near Smithboro yesterday afternoon blocked both the east and west bound tracks, and it was necessary to send passenger trains number 14, 24 and 19 around by the way of the Lehigh and Lackawanna.

The train was going east when a truck on one of the cars broke, this piled up the cars behind and several of them were thrown from the track. The wreck occurred about 4:30 o'clock and it was several hours before it was finally cleared up, and trains began to run on time.

C. A. Collins of Binghamton, who has been visiting friends in Waverly for the past few days returned home today.

VILLAGE TRUSTEES PASS RESOLUTIONS.

Will Attend Funeral of Hugh J. Baldwin in a Body—Request That All Business Places Be Closed During the Time of Funeral

Waverly—At the regular monthly meeting of the trustees of the village held last evening the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the Divine Providence to take from our midst our esteemed friend, Hugh J. Baldwin, and

Whereas, He had served the village as its president for several years, and had labored faithfully and efficiently for the welfare of such village, and was largely instrumental in securing many of the permanent improvements, which we now enjoy.

Resolved, That out of respect for the memory of the said Hugh J. Baldwin the deliberations of this board be postponed, and that the board be adjourned until some date subsequent to his burial. Further

Resolved, That this board attend the funeral services in a body and that the business men of the village be requested to close their places of business during the funeral services.

Securing Sea Fox Missing Ponce.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—There is still no news from the missing steamship Ponce of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship company, which sailed on Dec. 26 from Ponce, Porto Rico, for New York. The voyage under ordinary circumstances should have been made in six days, and the vessel is accordingly a full week overdue. The Ponce was last reported on Dec. 28. Under orders from the United States treasury department three revenue cutters are scouring the seas for the missing boat.

HOBOS WINED AT EXPENSE OF LEHIGH.

Discovered Bottle Whiskey in Car in Which They Were Stealing a Ride.

A couple of hoboes traveling via Lehigh Valley freight train struck a piece of luck a few days ago. They got into a car without being discovered and then to their joy found that one of the boxes in the car contained bottled whiskey. Bottle after bottle was emptied as the train sped over the mountain cutoff, and the tramps would not have changed their berths for a seat in the buffet car of the Black Diamond. They succeeded in making their escape. A car inspector detected the theft when the train reached Coxtown.

Simmers Wins Out.

Robert M. Simmers of Phoenixville, agent for the State Dairy and Food Bureau, who was suspended two months ago, on charges of accepting fees from violators of the pure food laws in Luzerne county, has been recommended by Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield to Governor Pennypacker for reinstatement.

Mr. Critchfield says the charges against Simmers were not sustained.
