ATHENS.

Miss Cranmer, who has been at the home of O. D. Kinney, returned to Monroeton today.

Mrs. J. M. Olendorf of Afton, N. Y., is in Athens where she will remain with her son, J. H. Olendorf all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Raup have been guests of his brother, Geo. H. Raup and nephew H. F. Raup since New Years day and returned to Milton, Pa., today.

Alfred, the 10 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Douglass, North Main street died this morning at 6:45 o'clock. There are no arrangements made yet for the funeral.

Abe Groat has a collection of pennies and old copper coins dated 1833 and 1849, also two cent pieces dated 1859 and 1860 and two nickel pennies dated 1864 and 1865.

We are requested to state that the Athens lodge of the National Protective Association of Troy, Pa., meets in G. A. R. hall every first and third Monday evenings in the month, and not the second and fourth as recently published.

A. C. Arnold and daughter, Mrs. Alice Raub drove over to Bumpville today to visit friends there and on account of the serious illness of Mrs. A. E. Arnold, the wife of the former's brother.

The regular meeting of the National Protective Association will be held Saturday evening in G. A. R. hall at 8 o'clock for the purpose of installing the newly elected officers. A full attendance is requested.

There is more old coins today. Mrs. G. L. Fuller has a silver quarter in good state of preservation dated 1813. It was made of better metal than is now used and is thinner although of the same size in diameter. She also has a gold dollar dated 1853. This coin has not been issued for many years and is now at a premium.

In conversation with J. S. Champion this morning we learned something of the immense operations of Jennings Bros. in the new town they have built up in West-Virginia. He went there with them about two years ago and there was not a house or other habitable dwelling there. He was a millwright and has been employed on the machinery and buildings and now they have sixty houses; a large mill with one band saw and a gang of saws, and complete equipment for manufacturing the finest lumber. They have 20,000 acres of timber land; enough to keep their mills in operation for twenty years. Mr. Champion will not return.

SUTTON FACES TWO SERIOUS CHARGES

Couple Captured at Athens Arraigned in Court at Danville.

Athens—The wayward couple, Charles Sutton alias Wray and Miss Ada Krum, who was captured in Athens a week ago arrived in Danville in charge of Officer Voris Monday and from an account given in Tuesday's Morning News of that city it is evident that there is trouble ahead for one of them at least. We quote from that paper:

Charles Sutton and Miss Ada Krum the runaway couple who were apprehended at Athens as noted in our last issue, in custody of John Grier Voris arrived in this city Monday evening. The girl has been restored to her parents, and Sutton alias Wray is languishing in the county jail with two charges hanging over him. On arriving at Danville they were hustled directly to the office of Justice Dalton where the desolate wife and mother of the latter, as well as the mother of the runaway girl had been in waiting since 12 o'clock. The meeting of the mother and daughter, who had been given up as lost, contained an element of deep pathos. The woman, yielding to her motherly instinct, although deeply hurt, showed a disposition to take her daughter back and forgive all. The girl however, had much to explain. She confessed that she did not know what had prompted the course she had taken "I just got into my head to go away," she said "and I did not want to go alone." The little journey abroad, however, will probably last her life time. Sutton and the girl made their way on foot the entire distance from Danville to Athens about 148 miles. Somewhere between Berwick and West Nanticoke they spent two weeks on a farm husking corn. They confessed that they had endured great hardships and one night they were obliged to spend out doors with no shelter. This was where a forest fire was raging and the inhabitants were all out fighting the flames. But the burning timber made it warm so they did not suffer on account of the cold. To the charge of desertion and non-support preferred against Sutton by his wife he pleaded guilty, but to another charge preferred upon information of the girl's mother charging him with being responsible for the girl's condition he plead not guilty. He will have to face this charge in the courts and for want of bail he is obliged to remain in jail until his case comes on for trial. The girl was taken home by her mother.

The Pittsburg, Binghamton & Eastern railroad has been on the carpet so long, and its route changed so many times that it has become a sort of changing panorama to outsiders. Our citizens in Rome, Orwell, Le-Raysville and Nichols have been making their plans to greet the cars when they made their first trip into their borders so long that they will be considerably dismayed when they learn that they are now considering the new location to build by way of Troy, Waverly and Nichols. From Nichols they are contemplating paralleling the D. L. & W. to Binghamton. But there is time for many more changes before the road is completed.

J. S. Champion who has been the guest of J. A. Champion the past week returned to Golden Hill today.
