THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES

High Standard and Low Cost is the Slogan
Announcing Further January Clearance of Reputable Merchandise.

In general large buyers are more apt to get their money's worth. The most expensive way to buy coal is by the bucketful, that's why this store buys in connection with 40 other big stores. Its outlet warrants this logical advantage over small dealers. This store is always fullhanded and forehanded and thrives best on comparison. Extremes meet in this Special Clearance Sale where you get greatest value for least possible cost.

State Treasurer Led Raid.
DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 14.—Frank P. Glasier, state treasurer, led the employees of his stove works at Chelsea, Mich., in a raid on eight saloons in that village. The party broke every slot machine into bits and then made a bonfire of the debris, nickels and all, in the public square. Chelsea was a quiet village, and the proprietors of its saloons were sticklers for law and order until a liquor dealer came from Detroit a few weeks ago and opened a handsomely appointed saloon, with slot machines, a free lunch counter and other modern accessories. In Main street. To keep their trade the other seven saloon keepers had to follow suit, and almost in a night the hitherto quiet town was converted into a little Monte Carlo.
