BREVITIES

"Fog's Ferry" at the Loomis tonight.
Another inch or two of snow will make good sleighing.
The railroad men earn their money such weather as this.
Will accept a limited number of pupils on the mandolin. Address Edwin F. Loomis, Athens, Pa. 218-31
A bill has been introduced by Senator Edmiston requiring judges to give a decision within at least six months after argument.
At the Loomis opera house this evening the entertainment will be "Fog's Ferry" the piece in which Mrs. Fiske starred several years ago.
Among the acts introduced in the senate this week is one by the Hon. R. S. Edmiston, repealing the act creating the state police department.
Farmers report that the country roads are badly drifted, but that the sleighing is not good on account of the roughness of the roads previous to the fall of snow.
Best grade Lehigh Valley and Berne coal, well screened, prompt delivery, hard and soft wood. Both phones at yard and office at Raymond & Haupt's. D. Clary Co's Co.
An economical way to show that you are a public spirited citizen is to get out and clean up the sidewalk in front of your premises. By doing so you will also confer a favor on pedestrians.
The next annual meeting of the Bradford County Society of New York city will convene at Cavanaugh's hotel 258 West 23d street, near Eighth avenue, on Monday evening, January 21.
The grand jury meets next week and District Attorney Mills is now busy preparing a large number of indictments which he will present to the jury. Among them are several Sayre cases, of more or less importance.
In our write up of the trouble on the east side on Thursday the name of Mabel Taylor appeared as one of the defendants. This was an error. It should have read Mabel Wilson. We make this correction in justice to a young girl of the same name.

LEHIGH VALLEY BRAKEMAN DEAD
George Grimley, a Highly Respected Young Man Expired Yesterday Morning.

George Grimley, a Lehigh Valley brakeman who has resided in Sayre for the past two and one-half years, died yesterday morning about five o'clock at his home on Lincoln street. He had been ill only one week, and death was due to pneumonia. The deceased was formerly a resident of Windham, and since his coming to Sayre has gained a host of friends, all of whom will regret his death.
Besides his wife and two small children he is survived by his parents, who reside at Windham; two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Goldsmith of Elmira, and Eva Grimley of Windham, and two brothers, John of Sayre, and Lee of Windham.
A short prayer service will be held at his late home on Sunday morning at nine o'clock, following which the remains will be taken to his former home at Windham.

LEHIGH'S NEW TRAIN TO BE A HAVEN OF REST.
Shop Men Will Have Plenty of Opportunity to Recuperate and Enjoy the Ride Between This Place and Towanda.

The Bradford Argus, speaking of the new train which is to be run by the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company between Sayre and Towanda, says that the ride morning and evening has nothing to do with it. In fact the Argus by inference says that the men will enjoy it because it will be a daily rest and diversion. In the last analysis the Argus is correct. Diversion is hardly the word, but as long as it seems to be the best the Argus has at hand, we have no occasion to find fault with its application. So far as the "daily rest" is concerned, that is certainly humorous. Shades of Bill Nye and the rest of the funny "fellows" who ever heard of anyone "resting" by riding on a railroad train. The only time that a railway passenger ever feels rested, is when his feet have touched the station platform at the end of his journey. 'Tis then and only then, that he really appreciates the "joys" of traveling.

The project in Sayre, however, is not meeting with any particular amount of condemnation, but the men in the shops have ridiculed the proposition until it begins to look like the proverbial thirty cents. The men are putting up some first-class arguments against the train, too. They say that after they have moved to Towanda and have nicely settled in their $6 per month houses, and are living on the fat of the land, so to speak, the corporation known as the Lehigh Valley might take it into its head to abandon the idea as being impracticable. The Lehigh Valley, along with other corporate bodies, has been known to do some very strange things, and the men say that such a thing is likely to happen, provided the Lehigh reaches the conclusion that the train is too expensive and not filling expectations. Then the men say they would be told by the officials that if they wanted jobs in the Sayre shops they would either have to move back to Sayre or get to this burg the best way they can. Yes, the scheme is quite feasible, but the men who will be foolish to take advantage of it can be counted on the fingers of one hand.

M. Procas, who sold his confectionery store on Desmond street to the Greek Confectionery Company yesterday, will leave in a few days for Greece. Mr. Procas has two boys in that far off country and he will bring them to America and place them in school. Their mother is dead and Mr. Procas is so well pleased with the institutions of this country that he wants his children brought up and educated here.

LIVELY TIMES ON LOCKHART STREET
Beligent Merchant Ejected Constable From His Place of Business Much to the Amusement of a Large Crowd of Spectators.

A crowd of interesting spectators watched with evident pleasure an ejection process which took place in one of Sayre's business places yesterday afternoon just as the shades of darkness were hovering about the earth. It appears that a well known plumber, sold a range cook stove to a customer recently. An attachment known as a "hood" went with the stove. The stove and "hood" were sold upon a lease, and after having it a short time the purchaser disposed of it to another party. Several payments were due on the lease and when the plumber heard that his customer had disposed of the stove he started out to hunt the matter up. He learned that Harry Peer, the cigar dealer had the "hood" and securing the services of Constable George Fice the two went to Peer's cigar store and demanded the "hood." Mr. Peer acting under the advice of counsel refused to let the officer of the law have the "hood." The officer, however, had received some legal instructions, too, and he told Mr. Peer that he would take the "hood" anyway. Mr. Peer protested and then there was something doing. A war of words followed and the officer left the store. Later the officer returned, having received express instructions to get possession of the "hood" at all events. He entered the store a second time, and made a demand for the "hood." About that time something unlooked for happened. Mr. Peer rushed from behind the counter and told the officer to get out. The officer refused to obey the request and then Mr. Peer threw him out. At least that is the story of fifty or more onlookers, who were by this time wild with delight.
Constable Fice claims that he was in the store as an officer and that Peer had no right to put him out, but Peer claims that he has a right to eject any one whom he sees fit.

TEN CARS DERAILED BY A BROKEN NUT.
Accident in Sayre Yards Yesterday Afternoon Which Needed the Services of Wrecking Crew.

A broken nut on a "wing" rail was the cause of derailing ten Lehigh Valley freight cars in the Sayre yards yesterday afternoon. As eastbound freight train was burrying into the eastbound leader to get out of the way of passenger train No. 1. The train was about half way in when a nut broke on the "wing" rail near the switch. Ten cars left the rails and it took the wrecking crew a number of hours to retrack them. No. 1 went around the wreck and traffic was not delayed any appreciable length of time. The damage was slight.

The attraction at the Loomis tonight will be the well known comedy drama, "Fog's Ferry," with the popular little soubrette star, Lola Pomeroy, in the stellar role of Chip. The play will have a handsome scenic production, with a select cast, a quartette, and a troupe of clever plantation dancers.

Waived Examination.
Mrs. Ella R. Cook, charged with assault and battery and surety of the peace by Mrs. Marian Griffin, waived examination before Justice Carey last night and was held to the next court of quarter sessions in the sum of $200. She gave satisfactory bail and was released from custody. The case will next come before the grand jury which convenes at Towanda next week.

The attraction at Loomis opera house this evening will be "Fog's Ferry."

The other delegate elected was Mrs. H. C. Thatcher of Waverly, with Miss Lida Murray as first alternate, and Mrs. T. A. Sawyer as second alternate.

It was decided to observe February 22 with a public entertainment to be held in the Spalding library in Athens.
Mrs. I. K. Park read a letter from Mrs. Maurice which contained an account of the luncheon given by the Poughkeepsie Chapter, which she attended.

A paper, "Causes Leading to the American Revolution," by Mrs. F. W. Merriam, was the literary number of the program. She gave first the England point of view with regard to the colonists and their reasons for the measures which they tend to enforce, ill-will toward England and their resistance of oppressive acts was explained. It was very interesting to controversy were regarded in England and in America.
The paper was very helpful because of the clearness with which these facts were brought out.
After the meeting adjourned, elaborate refreshments were served by the hostess.

COLLISION IN LEHIGH YARDS AT COXTON.
Fast Freight and Engine Came Together With Disastrous Results.

Coxton yard was the scene of a collision yesterday morning. Some damage was done to rolling stock, but fortunately all of the train hands escaped without injury. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock. Engineer Barber of Sayre, at the throttle of locomotive No. 1,348, was crossing from one of the main tracks to the other, at a point near the coal dump, when a fast freight train came into the yard from the mountain cutoff. The freight was being pulled by locomotive No. 1,621, in charge of Engineer J. Fisher, of Wilkes-Barre. All trains are under orders to come into the yard under control, and Engineer Fisher was running slowly at the time of the accident. Unfortunately he was not able to stop his engine quickly enough when the empty engine failed to make the crossover in time to let him pass safely. Engine 1,348 was disabled and half a dozen of the freight cars were damaged more or less. The chief damage was to the sides of the cars, the doors being torn loose. The running gear was not seriously damaged, and the contents of the cars were not damaged. The engine of the freight train escaped with very little damage. Within a few hours the derailed rolling stock was replaced on the rails and the tracks were reopened.

BOTH DEFENDANTS WERE DISCHARGED.
Mrs. Cook Fails to Sustain Charge of Disorderly Conduct.

Marian Griffin and Mabel Wilson, charged with disorderly conduct by Mrs. E. R. Cook, were given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Justice Nelson. The court room was packed with witnesses and all the afternoon was consumed in taking testimony. District Attorney Mills represented Mrs. Cook, while Attorneys Yocum of this place and Hon. L. T. Hoyt of Athens, looked after the interests of the defense. There was a large crowd of spectators present who appeared to enjoy the testimony and at times sharp spats between opposing counsel. At the conclusion of the hearing both defendants were discharged.

This is a special company, two of the artists being members of the Conservatory faculty, and with two specially engaged artists will give a limited number of concerts during the winter season. It will be one of the notable events of the season.

The Chicago Stock Company.
The Wednesday production by this company next week, is one that will never be forgotten by those who will enjoy the sentiment, pathos, brilliant comedy and genial smiles of The Parish Priest. The incentive that led Dan Hart to pen this famous comedy, was the ideal fitness for the star part, embodying that peculiar comedy character work, as portrayed by Mr. Dan Sully, who so successfully essayed the stage picture of Father Whalen, and who, with his own company, presented the play throughout the leading cities of America. Mr. Roskamm became wrapped up in the comedy, and concluded to secure the rights to produce it at popular prices, at the end of Mr. Sully's continental tour in the high price theatres.

The Chicago Stock, have likewise become prominent in its production to the success that the play is retained in its repertoire for this, the third successive season. In fact, the week's engagement by the Chicago Stock in any city without "The Parish Priest," is similar to the play of "Hamlet" without a Hamlet; it is ideal with their success, hence, it will be again enjoyed as the Wednesday evening offering. The play is not of any sectarian or religious turn whatever, but on the contrary, it is a genuine domestic drama, full of heart throbs and smiles—pure, sweet comedy, employing lines so tender in touch to the heart strings that dispositions are certainly amended by purer motives—it is a sermon pure and simple; it is a lesson through which the hearer feels glad, he or she, is there.
The story of the play is as sweetly natural as the breath of the fields, the good folks who move in its senses are real, and their honest humor and every day views of life are cheerful; while throughout the clever chain of events runs the golden thread of a unique love story.
