WELL ON SLIPPERY WALK CUT HEAD VERY BADLY.

Old Lady Painfully Injured by a Fall on the Steep Incline on Fulton Street.

Waverly—This morning an old lady whose name could not be ascertained but who said she came from Athens, was very painfully injured by falling on the stone sidewalk that runs down the steep grade on Fulton street to the Erie station.

She was going to Owego on the 10:30 train, and as she started down the incline that is always very slippery whenever there is any snow on it when she began to slide. She slipped along, finally losing her balance and striking her head on the stone walk.

She was badly stunned and her head over her eye and her face under the eye were cut very badly. She was assisted into the station, and after she had recovered somewhat she was assisted to the street car, and went back to Athens.

FIRE CONSUMES THREE BOX CARS

Second Alarm Called all the Waverly Firemen to the Scene of the Fire But They Were Not Needed.

Last night about midnight the fire alarm sounded and rang in an alarm from the East Ward. This had hardly rung when it was repeated. This called out the entire department and every fireman in town climbed out of bed running to the town hall proceeded to drag the apparatus over to that part of town. The roads were rough and it was a hard haul to get over to the place where the conflagration was supposed to be.

Having arrived there it was found that the blaze was caused by three box cars that stood on the Lehigh Valley tracks in that vicinity, and which had been used as a residence by a number of Italians. No water was turned on the blaze, and the fire was allowed to burn itself out. How the cars came to catch fire is not known, and aside from the fact that the Italians were deprived of a residence temporarily no damage was done.

The firemen belonging to the companies in the center of the village were disgusted that they should have been called out as it was entirely useless, and some one must have turned in the alarm just to give them a hard run.

One report was spread around over the telephone just after the alarm sounded to the fact that there had been a passenger wreck at East Waverly and that the passenger coaches were burning. Those hearing it were considerably excited for a time until it was found that such was not the case.

"Lost River" Tonight.

Tonight the Chicago Stock company will present the beautiful pastoral drama, "Lost River" at the Loomis. It is from the pen of one of the most successful of American dramatists, and "Lost River" is freely acknowledged his masterpiece. The play is founded around the plain, honest folks of Southern Indiana, near West Baden, where the "city folks" gather to enjoy the luxuries of the famous springs at this place. The second act is at the ball at Tom Taggart's big hotel and is filled with little heart throbs that never fail to flavor the intensity of the scene with a sprinkling of smiles and tears. Act three shows a little Indiana homestead, where Grandma Gates, with her quaint but honest ways, lives with her little granddaughter and the simplicity and true comfort of the people make a wonderful contrast to the fashionable whirl of our so-called society. The scene at the toll gate, where Ora makes a ride on horseback to save the aqueduct, and the scene in the storm where she overtakes her sweetheart on a bicycle as her country lover is about to stab him furnish some of the most exciting situations, but there isn't a dull moment in the entire evening.

Met at the Central Hotel and Were Entertained in a Most Pleasant Manner.

Waverly—The Sunshine club met last evening at the Central Hotel in East Waverly and were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Hays. Excellent refreshments were served after the business part of the meeting had been completed, and an entertainment was also given. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Frank Lounsberry on Johnson street.

SUNSHINE CLUB HELD VERY PLEASANT MEETING.

It is no wonder that some of our home merchants do not believe in advertising. If the mail order houses didn't advertise how would the people all over the country hear of them? And if they never heard of them, they couldn't send to them for things that they ought to buy at home. Therefore advertising does not pay, and that kind of a village merchant will continue to advertise by hanging a cod fish on the door post and putting a piece of sticky fly paper and a bolt of calico in front of the window. Then if folks don't rush in there to trade, the whole country is going to the dogs.

The Groom's Smack. "Oh, yes, George always comes home at the lunch hour," said the young bride to some of her girl friends.

"Doesn't have time to eat much, I suppose?" said one of the girls.

"Oh, no, he only takes a smack and runs," said the innocent bride.

And then they all laughed.—Yonkers Statesman.

DEATH OF "JOHANN FLVINT."

A. F. Willard, Trump, Author and Sociologist, Dies of Pneumonia. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Josiah Flvint Willard, whose experiences as a trump, author and sociologist under the name of "Josiah Flvint" have given him a wide reputation, is dead at a hotel here.

Mr. Willard had been afflicted with pneumonia for several days, but it was not until he became utterly helpless that he permitted nurse or doctor to enter his room.

Mr. Willard had tramped in every civilized country, wearing the costume of the working class of each particular nation he wandered through. He was a friend of Ibsen and of Tolstol.

He was born in Appleton, Wis., on Jan. 23, 1869. Francis E. Willard was his aunt. Willard was a graduate of the University of Berlin, which he attended from 1890 to 1893.

Was Partner of Cecil Rhodes. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—William C. Ashwell, a prominent broker, was knocked down by a trolley car on Columbus avenue and died at Roosevelt hospital from a fracture of the skull. He never regained consciousness. He and his brother, Thomas, went to South Africa on a hunting expedition just when the great diamond finds occurred. The hunting trip at once changed into a diamond quest, and Mr. Ashwell was one of the pioneers in the discovery of the Kimberley mines. He met Cecil Rhodes and was associated with him in the first workings of the diamond fields. After several years Mr. Ashwell sold out his mining interests to Mr. Rhodes.

Would Not Guarantee Vladimir Safe. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 22.—Today is the anniversary of "Red Sunday," when Father Gapon led a demonstration of the people before the Winter palace and many were killed by the troops. The prefect of police has ordered the police reserves under arms the whole day, and strong patrols of Cossacks and dragoons will be stationed in all sections of the city to prevent demonstrations. The Grand Duke Vladimir, who is generally although mistakenly regarded as responsible for the slaughter, has returned to Tsarskoe-Selo palace at the request of the police, who notified him that they would not guarantee his safety.

Reds Failed to Kill Police Chief. MOHILEV, Russia, Jan. 22.—Chief of Police Rodionoff was attacked while driving in the street by two assassants and had a miraculous escape from death. One of the men emptied an automatic revolver at Rodionoff, missed him, but mortally wounded his coachman, while the second threw a bomb, and, although this instrument exploded with tremendous force, the chief of police was not hurt. The assassants were pursued by the police. One committed suicide and the other was captured.

Grief For Higgins at Albany. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Party lines were forgotten and only sincere respect and affection for the man probably up to his deathbed were displayed in the interest of scores of members of both houses of the legislature last night in the condition of former Governor Frank W. Higgins. Chaplains in both houses referred in their prayers to the desperate condition of the distinguished patient.

NEWSPAPERS TO CONSOLIDATE.

Waverly Free Press and Tioga County Record Will Be Made One.

PREMIUMS FOR NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

In Sayre and Athens.

Beginning with next Friday's issue the weekly Tioga County Record and The Waverly Free Press will be consolidated into one weekly newspaper. The Tioga County Record has been published at Owego continuously for thirty-five years and the Free Press founded in 1876 as a successor to the Enterprise, founded in 1858, is the only paper of Waverly, with the largest circulation of any paper in Tioga county. In their consolidated form, the Free Press-Record will continue to give all the news of the county seat formerly found in the Record, while the news of Waverly will receive as generous attention as before. In addition to this, special attention will be given to general county news and, with regular correspondents in every town and village, the new paper will easily become the representative publication of the county. In order to give space for all the news this plan calls for, the size of the combined papers will be increased to twelve pages instead of the eight-page form in which each now appears. The consolidated papers will be under the editorial charge of the present editor of the Free Press and it is hoped to steadily add to the improvements which it is believed have already added to the popularity of both papers.

INDUCEMENTS TO SUBSCRIBERS. The subscription price for the Record is one dollar per year if paid in advance and one dollar and a half if not so paid; that of the Free Press is seventy-five cents if paid in advance. Notice is hereby given that all persons paying up their arrears for subscriptions before March 1, 1907, will receive the consolidated Tioga County Record and Waverly Free Press for seventy-five cents, payable in advance. After that date the price will be one dollar per year.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN CASH PREMIUMS. To Solicitors in Sayre and Athens. We will also give one hundred dollars in cash premiums as follows: Twenty-five dollars to the person who first sends in one hundred new subscribers, twenty dollars to the person who sends in the second one hundred new subscribers, fifteen dollars to the person who sends in the third one hundred new subscribers, ten dollars to the person who sends in the fourth one hundred new subscribers, five dollars each to the six persons who send in the next highest number of new subscribers.

IN SAYRE AND ATHENS. The subscriptions under these terms must be paid in advance and reported each week as received. Subscriptions to the Waverly Free Press should be reported to the Free Press at Waverly. Of course a subscription to either paper will secure for the subscriber the consolidated Free Press-Record. No subscription will be counted to the credit of a canvasser until the money has been turned into the office. As stated before, all subscriptions to either paper will be received for seventy-five cents per year and the subscriber will receive both papers in their consolidated form. Further information in regard to the terms of the premium contest will be furnished on application. 214-3
