WRECK NEAR ALBANY. Five Italians Killed and Over Forty Hurt in Central Collision. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Five men were killed and at least fifteen injured on the New York Central Mohawk division about half a mile west of this city by the collision of a light engine with a caboose filled with railroad laborers.

Senator Tillman Re-elected. COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 23.—Ballots were taken in the senate and house of representatives for the re-election of B. K. Tillman as United States senator. The senate voted solidly for Senator Tillman's re-election, while in the house one member, Rev. Coke D. Mann of Oconee county, declined to vote.

Strike of Music Hall Artists. LONDON, Jan. 23.—The strike of the music hall artists, which affected some of the suburban halls last night, resulted in compelling some of the leading houses, including the Tivoli, in the Strand, to close their doors and dismiss their audiences and several other houses to give scratch performances.

Hartie Objects to Bill of Costs. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Augustus Hartie, the millionaire paper manufacturer, whose famous petition for divorce from his wife, Mary Scott Hartie, was recently refused, has filed exceptions to the statements of the expenses of his wife. He reiterates the charge that much of the expense incurred during the trial was unlawful.

Oldest Resident of Middletown Dead. MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Jan. 23.—Charles A. Boardman, the oldest resident of this city, died here last night. Had he lived until Friday of this week he would have been ninety-five years old. At the time of his death he was vice president of the Middletown Savings bank.

Cuban Steamer, a Total Wreck. HAVANA, Jan. 23.—The collector of customs in receipt of a telegram saying that the Cuban steamer Atlantico has run aground on the Gulcho reef, near Porto Padre, and is a total wreck. All the members of the crew were saved.

Pulsations of a Watch. The lifetime of a watch is 50 years, says Amateur Work. In its daily duty the balance vibrates 18,000 times every hour, 432,000 times a day, or 157,000,000 times a year. The hair-spring makes a similar number of vibrations and an equal number of ticks from the escapement.

Japanese Incense Parties. "Incense parties" were a common feature of old Japan. Each of the guests had a little furnace, a small wooden box, packed with sand. On the top of this was a small charcoal fire. Each woman in turn burned some incense and the others had to guess what it was.

Coal Burned by Steamships. There are many ships which burn from 100 to 300 tons of coal per day, the vessel is going at a moderate rate. War vessels do not consume so much in proportion as swift passenger steamers which ply between Europe and America, for, unless in an emergency, they are not driven at the highest attainable speed.

Makes a Vivid Comparison. Heavy snows are so rare in Kansas that sleighs lead almost as secluded an existence as a married man's dress suit.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

ATHENS. Constable McGovern was in Ulster today on business. O. L. Haverly returned from Philadelphia this morning.

Fred Beers was held by the grand jury yesterday to answer to the charge of burglary and larceny. George W. Sexton has been visiting friends in the vicinity and returned to West Franklin this morning.

William Mitchell of Ithaca, has been visiting his brother, James Watson and returned home yesterday. Mrs. Caroline Haverly has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Haverly and returned to Dushore last evening.

Mrs. Bert Rowe, who has been sick at her home, 418 North Main street for the past eight days with typhoid fever was admitted to the hospital yesterday. W. O. Newman and wife and Miss Marguerite Newman went to Canton today to attend the wedding of Miss Anna Williams and Mr. Henry Gates of Chicago, formerly of Canton.

Mrs. E. H. Towner of Rochester, has been called to Rome on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. John Clark. She stopped over night with Mrs. Geo. Fice and resumed her journey this morning.

Sheriff Griffin levied on all of the dogs and puppies over at the Dog farm yesterday. He has a fine collection but thinks that the care of them until they can be disposed of will tax his patience very much.

A birthday party was given Mrs. Henry Sharlock at their home on Maple street Saturday evening. There were about a dozen present and they had a most enjoyable time. After spending the evening in pleasant converse and games a bountiful supper was served that all enjoyed. At the close of the gathering Mr. James Watson presented Mrs. Sharlock with a china set as a token of the esteem of her friends. It will be a pleasant reminder of all who were there.

We have been so often asked the question "what kind of cello solo was that played at the Lulu Tyler Gates concert that we feel obliged to reply. The cello player, Edith Adams did not appear in Athens for some reason not yet explained and Mrs. Ruth Anderson Roehr, a violinist of considerable celebrity filled her part of the program with violin selections. An explanation should have been made and Superintendent Rogers was very much mortified that such an explanation was not given. The violin artist resides in New York and has gained a high place amongst the professional artists under the name of Ruth Anderson.

Received Checks. Athens—We publish the accompanying letter by request of the writer, Mrs. Ida M. Grimley whose husband died a few days ago. Athens, Pa., Jan. 21, 1907. National Mutual Relief Association: Troy, Pa.

Gentlemen:— I have just received check for one hundred (100) dollars in payment in full of Policy No. D 560 taken out by my deceased husband George H. Grimley on the 9th day of November, 1905, who died January 18, 1907. The same has been paid to me by Mr. C. E. Perry your authorized District Organizer. I greatly appreciate your very prompt and generous treatment as my husband had only paid your association $4.50. I consider this one of the best investments he ever made and I shall whenever opportunity presents itself advise my friends to join the National Protective Association in preference to any like association as I consider it the best.

MRS. IDA M. GRIMLEY. Ladies' Library Club.

Athens—The meeting of the Ladies' Library Club yesterday afternoon was well attended and an interesting one. Considerable time was taken in considering the subjects for next year's program. The topics so far have been such as to bring out the scholarly themes of progressive study and they have been very beneficial. Mrs. J. S. Thurston read a paper on Education and the province of the Public School System. Mrs. I. K. Park read an extract giving the course and origin of the Scranton Correspondence schools. Mrs. L. M. Rice of Sayre, sang a solo, "Dreaming." Mrs. Park read a clipping from the University extension course. Mrs. Rice "My Little Baby." The Misses Katherine Graham and Louie Murray gave a piano duet. Mrs. G. E. Rogers gave a talk on Higher Education in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Murrelle closed the program with an article on "The Rest Corner."

Frigid Folks. "Did you go to Nordy's house warming?" "Yep." "How was it?" "As a house warming it was a failure. Too many Boston people there."—Chicago Sun.

Conscientious. Young Wife—What's the trouble? Why do you sit on the edge of the chair? Husband—Well, dear, you know we are buying it on the installment plan, and that's all I feel entitled to.—Life.

The Cheapest Contributions. "I have nothing but praise for our new minister." "So I noticed when the plate came round."—Tit-Bits.

Reversed. A—So you married in haste and repented at leisure? B—No; I married at leisure and repented in haste.—Cassell's.

Public Opinion. She—People say you are marrying me for my money. He (holly)—The miserable slanderer! I'll see them in a court of law! I won't stand it! I'll horsewhip 'em! I'll— She—But, my dear, all that will make talk, and it will get into the newspapers besides. He—I don't care; I won't be lied about that way. She—You needn't be, my darling. I'll make over my share to my brothers and sisters, and let everybody know it. He—Um—er—never mind. Who cares what people say? I don't.—N. Y. Weekly.

Need of Haste. On my way to the village the other evening I met a married friend running homewards at top speed with a curious looking parcel, which he carried very gingerly. "Halloo, Jim!" I said, "why this hurry?" He did not stop, but shouted as he ran: "New hat for the wife. Will. Running home before it's out of fashion."—Tit-Bits.

Art, with a Big "A." Overheard Outside the Picture Show. She—We must get a catalogue, dear. He (thinking of the shilling)—What's the use of that? She—Why, we shan't know what pictures to admire unless we see who they're by.

Of Course. Reginald—Charming widow, isn't she? They say she is going to marry again. Charles—I shouldn't like to be a widow's second husband. "Well, I'd rather be a widow's second husband than her first, you know."—Cassell's.

Inspired Him. He—The minister gave a stirring address on the extravagance of some women. She—Yes; and there sat his wife, right in the front pew, with a new three-guinea hat on.—Cassell's.
