SURPRISE IN COURT

Judge Excuses Two Thaw Murder Trial Jurors.

FAIRE IS EVIDENTLY DISMISSED.
Juror Had Not Applied For Release and Is Ignorant of Cause-Defense, a Southerner, Chosen-Plaintiff the Young Prisoner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-The first big surprise of the trial of Harry K. Thaw came when Justice Fitzgerald, on motion of District Attorney Jerome and with the consent of the attorneys for the man accused of the murder of Stanford White, announced that two of the jurors selected in the early days of the proceedings would be excused from further service.

"Without any reflection on the jurors whatsoever," said the presiding judge, "jurors Nos. 4 and 6 will be excused."

The men in question were Arthur S. Campbell, a superintendent of telephone construction, and Harold R. Faire, printer and publisher of a pamphlet circulated in Wall street.

"By agreement," said District Attorney Jerome, "the reasons for this action will not be made public, but they are of a business nature."

When the excused jurymen left the courtroom they were besieged by questioners. Mr. Faire created a mild sensation in the corridors when he asserted with positiveness that he was utterly ignorant of any reason why he should be asked to step down. He said:

"The announcement in court was the first knowledge I had of the intended action. In passing through the court-house corridors I heard a man remark that two of the Thaw jurors were to be excused. I had no idea that the remark could include me. About three years ago, when I was connected with a brokerage concern, two detectives from the district attorney's office who said they visited the places which sell unlisted securities dropped in on me, asked some impertinent questions and wanted to know if I would be willing to go up to the district attorney's office any time I might be wanted. I said 'Yes,' but that was the last I ever heard of the matter."

Mr. Campbell, the second of the excused jurors, declared he "had too much respect for the court to give an interview." It was generally reported that Mr. Campbell had asked to be relieved. He begged to be excused when first placed on the jury.

One new juror had been added to the trial panel when the excuse of Faire and Campbell was announced, and a second one was subsequently secured, thus offsetting the loss of the two previously sworn jurors. There are nine men in the jury box and three vacant chairs as the result of the examination of 218 talemens.

The two new jurors sworn in were: No. 10, John S. Deane, traveling freight agent, thirty-eight years of age and unmarried. Mr. Deane is a native of New Orleans.

No. 4, David S. Walker, real estate broker, thirty-four years of age and unmarried. Mr. Walker is a son of John Brisbane Walker.

Thaw seemed to be particularly well pleased with the selection of both Deane and Walker and smiled when the prosecution withdrew all pending challenges against the talemens. As soon as Mr. Deane said he was a Louisiana Thaw was seen in earnest consultation with his lawyers. Mr. Walker was accepted by the defense in spite of the fact that he said he knew Stanford White and many of the dead architect's friends. He also had formed an opinion in the case and expressed it many times. These facts, Mr. Walker declared, however, would not prevent his rendering an entirely fair and impartial verdict. He had not seen White for a year before his death.

The defense now has thirteen of its peremptory challenges left and the state seventeen.

The members of the Thaw family were all in court and for once disarmed those who had circled reports of a serious break in the family relations. Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the prisoner, conversed and chatted with Mrs. Harry Thaw constantly. The Countess of Yarnouth also talked freely with young Mrs. Thaw at intervals during the day. Miss May MacKenzie was a participant in several of the family chats, notably during the luncheon recess, when the party sat for a time in a circular group and carried on a general conversation. The prisoner seemed to be in high spirits, and the fact that the actual hearing of the case had been put back a full day or more by the court's action in excusing two of the sworn jurors did not seem to have the least effect upon him. It is now believed that the taking of testimony cannot be reached before tomorrow afternoon.

BALDWIN WORKS ABLAZE.

Explosion and Fire Destroy Entire Section of Plant; Loss, $1,000,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.-Fire which started with an explosion in the paint shop destroyed one entire section of the big Baldwin locomotive works last night, entailing a loss of $1,000,000. The destroyed building faces on Spring Garden street and immediately adjoining the main office at the corner of Broad and Spring Garden streets and the erecting shops, smith shops and foundries on the south. These buildings were threatened with destruction as were other departments in the rear of the destroyed building along Spring Garden street and on Fifteenth street, and the entire fire department was called out to fight the flames.

About 1,000 men were employed in the burned building, which was five stories high. The pipe bending department was on the first floor, the "jacketing" or sheet iron department on the second, a metal pattern store room and brass fitting room on the third, the paint shop and cab finishing department on the fourth and the drafting and designing rooms on the fifth floor.

The fire was discovered in the east end of the building, adjoining the main office building, a few minutes before 6 o'clock, when the workmen were preparing to leave, and though the flames spread quickly all were able to get out of the building safely.

Shortly after the fire started the upper portion of the wall on Spring Garden street fell into the street, and one fireman and three workmen were caught by the falling bricks, but fortunately received only slight injuries. The firemen, with the assistance of the fire patrol from the plant, succeeded in getting the flames under control within an hour after the fire was discovered.

The Baldwin Locomotive works is the largest industrial plant in the United States and employs 18,000 men in this city and nearly 10,000 in departments at Lewistown and other places. John H. Converse, president of Burnham, Williams & Co., which operates the Baldwin plant, said that the loss would reach probably $1,000,000, fully covered by insurance. The 1,000 men employed in the burned building, he said, would be immediately put to work in other departments.

WRECK ON BOSTON AND MAINE.

Five Killed When Express Hit Freight Near South River.

DEERFIELD, Mass., Jan. 30.-Five persons were killed and several injured in a collision between an express train and a special freight on the Fitchburg division of the Boston and Maine railroad near South river. The killed were all employees of the railroad. The injured include railroad employees and several passengers.

South River is a station near Deerfield. As the express was running at the usual speed the signal whistle was blown for some reason that does not yet appear, and the express came to a sudden stop. While a brakeman was endeavoring to place signals behind the train the freight came along and crashed into the rear of the express. The rear car was a "deadhead" coach, in which were several employees of the railroad, and these were the ones killed or injured.

George B. Busseno of the express train, living at Troy, N. Y.; forty-seven years old; married.

Baggage-master G. W. Harrington of the express, living at Troy, N. Y.

M. A. Fitzpatrick, engineer, Rotterdam Junction, N. Y.

Chauncey Cota, engineer, Mechanicsville, N. Y.

R. N. Dennison, fireman, Mechanicsville, N. Y.

Injured: John Clapp, residence unknown; taken to Greenville hospital.

None of the other injured needed hospital treatment. The bodies of the five trainmen were all badly burned by fire which followed the collision.

Police Get Suspect's Letters.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-The district attorney has received two letters believed to have been written by John Bell, the suspected man in the Townsend murder case, to his brother and sister in Brooklyn and mailed on Thursday, the day before the murder. In one of them Bell wrote that he intended to commit suicide, declared that Dr. Townsend had caused his wife's death by neglect and that he intended to have revenge. The funeral of Dr. Townsend was held yesterday afternoon at his home in Westview avenue, New Brighton.

Dynamiters at Oyster Bay.
OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 30.-A grocery store owned by an Italian named Frank Carome was demolished by an explosion of dynamite. Russia to Buy Our Wheat.
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.-On account of the failure of the local wheat crop Russia this year will be a purchaser of American wheat, and the first shipment will arrive shortly at Riga on its way to Rybinsk. The price on the Russian market probably will be $1.15 a bushel, which is 7 cents under the local price. Other cargoes of wheat have been ordered.

Wreck Victim Dead at Toledo.
TOLEDO, O., Jan. 30.-Willard Robb of Adrian, the Lake Shore fireman who was injured in the wreck at Ridge, Mich., Jan. 18, died at St. Vincent's hospital. Robb was supposed to be improving.

HAVE DUEL OF WORDS

President Defies Trusts at Gridiron Banquet.

"ALL COONS LOOK ALIKE TO ME" A JOKE

WASHINGTON Correspondents' Club Allows No Reports of Speeches to Go Out-Trusts and Foraker Have Heated Debate.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-The Gridiron club of Washington has issued a statement which corrects on a minor point the published story of the personal clash between President Roosevelt and Senator Foraker at the club dinner on Saturday night, but which does not deny that there was such a clash nor that the president defied Foraker, J. Pierpont Morgan and H. H. Rogers by their seats. In fact, the statement seems indirectly to confirm the essential features of the controversy. The club's statement follows:

"The executive committee of the Gridiron club desires to say that the published article concerning a discussion between President Roosevelt and Senator Foraker at the dinner is false and misleading."

"This article carries the assertion that President Roosevelt in a running comment on the features of the dinner said, 'All coons look alike to me,' and that Senator Foraker quoted the line also and added, 'And all other persons look alike to me.'"

"What happened was that President Roosevelt read from the club's joke book the line, 'All coons look alike to me,' which appeared under a cartoon of Senator Foraker, quoted it and then added, 'And all white persons look alike to me also,' and went on with his speech."

"It is the invariable rule of the club that no reports of the speeches of its guests shall be printed, and it places its guests on honor in that regard. The story that was printed in any newspaper that was represented at the dinner either by a member of the club or by a guest."

The Gridiron club, which is composed of the Washington correspondents of all the great American and foreign newspapers, entertains at its annual dinners many eminent men, and, as the proceedings are supposed to be open to all, these eminent men sometimes unobtrusively on the gridiron as they would hardly dare to do elsewhere. Naturally, therefore, the club wishes to disavow responsibility for the publication of so startling a secret as that of Saturday night's verbal duel between the president of the United States and his chief senatorial opponent.

It is certain that the president was very much impressed in his remarks, that he spoke for nearly a half hour and that the incident, combined, as it was, with a heated controversy with Senator Foraker about government attacks upon railroads and other corporations, and a review on both sides of the Brownville affair, resulted in breaking up the programme of the dinner and ending that affair long before its expected termination.

In his earnestness the Ohio senator walked toward the president and, shaking his finger at him, emphasized his declaration. Going in between the tables, which were arranged in the form of a gridiron, he stood directly in front of Mr. Roosevelt and told the president some things about usurpation of power by the executive that no one before has ever dared to tell him to his face.

In reply it is said that President Roosevelt stood up and, shaking his fist in the direction of Senator Foraker and of Mr. Morgan and Mr. Rogers, said:

"If you gentlemen are not willing to accept the action of the conservative class, which is ready to afford protection alike to the rich and the poor, I will say to you now that when you have disposed of us by your machinations you will find yourselves face to face with a people which believes it has been deprived of its rights and a mob which does not have the least respect for riches. You can take your choice."

Declan Against McClellan.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-The appellate division of the supreme court has handed down a decision denying the motion made in behalf of Mayer McClellan for permission to appeal to the court of appeals from the decision of the appellate division affirming the decision of the lower court preventing the destruction of the ballots in the New York majority contest of 1905.

RACING AT PALM BEACH.

Third Annual Regatta of Motor Boat Association Open.

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 30.-The third annual regatta of the Palm Beach Motor Boat association has opened here under ideal weather conditions. In the main event, a ten mile race for boats rating over eighty, the Dixie, owned by E. J. Schroeder, scratch boat, after completing the first round of five miles at the rate of 28.3 miles an hour quit with a broken gear. The Katherine, owned by J. Middleby, Jr., Boston, with 4 minutes 18 seconds handicap, won in 28 minutes 26 seconds actual time.

H. E. Willoughby, Jr.'s Gray Wolf of Newport, R. I., handicap 5 minutes 48 seconds, was second in 30 minutes 41 seconds, and J. P. Clarke's Bruiser of Ardmore, Pa., handicap 2 minutes 52 seconds, was third in 31 minutes 27 seconds.

The five mile race for boats under eighty rating had eight starters, and all finished. Smith & Mabley's Simplex, driven by H. Broesel, handicap 1 minute 6 seconds, won in 17 minutes 44 seconds actual time. Hot Stuff, owned by D. K. Southall of Miami, handicap 1 minute 1 second, was second in 19 minutes 12 seconds, and Possum, owned by Lieutenant H. E. Willoughby of Newport, scratch, was third in 18 minutes 48 seconds.

The most notable aspirant for the Devar cup for the mile championship is the Dixie. She will also try for the world's mile record during the week.

The success of the flag to flag race from Miami to Nassau seems assured, over ten entries for the voyage across the gulf stream having been made.

Mad Saved Jockey Martin.
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 30.-There was great excitement at the Fair grounds race track when Ziek Abrams fell at the half mile post and apparently rolled on Jockey Martin. The winners were Lavless, Bertuont, Rickey, Resterling, Grace George, Grace Larsen and Tinker.

Easy Victory For Tony Faust.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.-At Oakland the feature was Miller's wonderful finish on William's Hierfano over the Futurity course. Davis on Avoca got away first and seemed a sure winner. After being almost lost at the post Miller rode Hierfano through the bunch and finished well, with Avoca stopping. The Genevieve handicap proved an easy victory for Tony Faust.

Lasker Leads at Chess.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-The second game of the match for the chess championship of the world between Champion Dr. Emanuel Lasker and Frank J. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 30.-Rain fell at Ascot and made the track a bit slow. The feature was the mile handicap for three-year-olds. Wrenne, at 8 to 1, was off second and held the position well and won out by a head over A. Muskoday and You Tromp, the latter being favorite.

Color Line Dispute in New State.
GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 30.-In the constitutional convention the "Jim Crow" problem stole into the debate on the committee report forbidding marriage between whites and blacks and Indians and negroes. The question of inserting in the constitution a plank providing for separate cars and waiting rooms in Oklahoma is the most delicate that confronts the delegates.

The self styled "conservatives," headed by Murray, Haskell and Hayes, are opposed to the proposed measure on the grounds that there is danger of the president vetoing the constitution.

Blue and Gray at Jamestown.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-It is probable that the veterans of the blue and gray of the civil war and the Sons of Veterans will be represented and take an active part in the Jamestown exposition. To this end the question of erecting a building at Jamestown to be known as "the building of the blue and gray veterans and their sons" is being agitated. If the movement should prove a success the veterans will have many war relics on exhibition, the most interesting of which will be the uniforms and swords of Generals U. S. Grant and Robert E. Lee.

Tolstol Not Dangerously Ill.
MOSCOW, Jan. 30.-A son of Count Leo Tolstol was interviewed here regarding the rumored dangerous illness of his father, the famous Russian author. Cancel Late Shah's Land Grants.
TEHERAN, Jan. 30.-The Persian parliament has determined to cancel all the gifts of land made by the late shah after the proclamation of the constitution and to investigate the circumstances under which they occurred. This measure is in accord with the wishes of the present shah. It will affect several princes and many of the members of the entourage of the late shah who took advantage of the dying monarch's illness to induce him to make enormous grants of crown lands.

Seventy-two Bodies Still in Mine.
FRANKFORD-ON-THE-MAINE, Jan. 30.-A dispatch from Saarbruecken says there are still seventy-two bodies underground in the Roden mine. Of the bodies brought out only twenty-four have been recognized, and the others are so buried that their identity cannot be established. One woman became demented when she was confronted by her husband alive, she having believed him to be among the dead. The cause of the explosion still remains a mystery.

Tiflis Terrorized by Black Hundreds.
TIFLIS, Jan. 30.-This city is being terrorized by members of the Black Hundreds, who are levying tribute up on all persons of property. ## SENATE IS DEFIANT

California Will Fight For State Rights.

WON'T HAVE JAPS IN THEIR SCHOOLS

Call It "Unwarranted Interference With Constitutional Rights" of El Dorado State-Protest From "Whole People."
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 30.-The senate has adopted the majority resolution on the Japanese school question without debate. It "strenuously protests against the unwarranted interference with the constitutional rights of the state" and "requests the governor and attorney general to do all things necessary to protect and save the rights of the state of California."

The minority report, which was voted down, read:

"Whereas, The president of the United States is attempting to interfere with the resolution adopted substitutes 'federal government' for the president."

There was a debate for an hour on the minority resolution, in that it instructed the attorney general to intervene in the suit now in the federal court and to assert the sovereign rights of the state of California as reserved to it by the constitution of the United States.

The resolution adopted follows:

"Whereas, The federal government is attempting to interfere with the management and control of the public schools of the state of California by demanding the admission of Japanese children in the schools attended by white children in violation of an order of the board of education of the city and county of San Francisco, made in pursuance of the laws of the state of California, notwithstanding that equal opportunities for education enjoyed by other children are open to the children of Japanese residents in this state at public expense;

"Whereas, In our judgment, such interference is without warrant of law and in violation of our constitutional rights as a sovereign state;

"Therefore, be it resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring. That we, on behalf of the whole people of the state of California, do most strenuously protest against this unwarranted interference with our constitutional rights, and we respectfully request the governor and attorney general to do all things necessary to protect and save the rights of the state of California in this most important matter, and we specially commend the prompt action already taken by the governor and the attorney general to that end."

General Booth's Busy Life.
LONDON, Jan. 30.-General William Booth, the aged founder and head of the Salvation Army, has mapped out travel tours for this year, including visits to the United States, that might well tax the strength of a much younger man. The general has left here for Denmark, Norway and Sweden, where for two weeks he will address two or three meetings a day. On Feb. 23 he will leave London for New York, where he will spend two weeks before proceeding by way of Canada to Japan. He will then go on to Peking and will be back in London by July to commence another automobile campaign through the British Isles. In the month of October he will again cross the Atlantic for a two months' tour of the United States.

Treasure Found in Old Trunk.
MANHASSET, N. Y., Jan. 30.-Diamonds and other jewels valued at $35,000 were found hidden in an old trunk in the home of the late Charles Tripler of Manhasset, discoverer of liquid air.

The find was made by Mr. Tripler's son, L. B. Tripler, who was appointed administrator and is heir to all of the elder Tripler's estate. The son knew nothing of the presence of these valuables until he broke into the trunk in order to make an inventory of the estate of the dead scientist. The elder Mr. Tripler also left considerable real estate to his son.

Cancel Late Shah's Land Grants.
