THE CAYUTA LAND CO. OF SAYRE.
 Desires to announce that they have some very desirable building lots for sale on cheap and easy terms, and that they have placed the agency for selling them in the hands of ANDREW EVARTS of this place. All those wishing to provide themselves with homes or to invest in lots for speculative purposes will do well to consult with Mr. Everts before purchasing elsewhere. This plot of land is nearly surrounded by industrial plants with beautiful scenery and all the advantages of a modern town. Terms to suit purchasers. Steps are already being taken to supply all the land comprising this plot with a full supply of the best water the valley affords. When you come to look over the plot of ground take trolley to Springs Corners, cross bridge that crosses over L. V. R. R. when across bridge turn to the left and you are on the ground. There will be a man at the office Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons of each week to show you over the ground, or any other day by calling Valley Phone No. 244c. Andrew Everts, 109 Hospital Place, Sayre, Pa.

What "Amen" Meant.
 A boy asked his sister what "Amen" meant. She replied: "Don't touch it." One day the mother asked the girl what "Amen" meant, and again she answered, "Don't touch it." "Where did you learn that?" "Why, you told me so yourself!" "Oh, no," said the mother; "I told you, 'So let it be.'"

Franklin's First Almanac.
 Benjamin Franklin's first almanac was issued in 1733. This not only presented a wide range of information, but it was filled with maxims that made Franklin famous, even more than his valuable services to the American cause in Paris or to science in the discovery of electricity.

LIBRARY CLUB HELD YESTERDAY.
 Exercises Peculiarly Interesting and Well Attended.

Athens—The exercises at the Ladies' Library club meeting yesterday were peculiarly interesting as they had reference to the important event in the history of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Heister Pieltel presided and Mrs. Canvass White had charge of the program. Mrs. A. H. Sawtelle read a paper on the anti-slavery spirit of Pennsylvania. Going back to the early agitation in 1856 she described the leading incidents of this agitation and the advancing ideas that culminated in the great awakening that produced its overthrow as a national institution. Mrs. Louisa Snow gave an address on the Call to Arms when the loggia of freedom made the grand rally to put down the power of treason. She closed with reciting the patriotic poem, "Pictures of the Past" in which Pennsylvania is credited with being the first state to respond to the patriotic call and that finally she sent an army of 362,334 men into the field to battle for their country's honor. Mrs. Canvass White gave a piano solo and the meeting closed with a paper read by Mrs. P. E. Decker on "The Purposes of Gen. Lee in Pennsylvania." The subject was very intelligently handled and gave an insight into the designs of Gen. Lee not only to control the Shenandoah valley, but to get possession of the coal fields of Pennsylvania. The meeting throughout was exceedingly interesting and instructive.

TO FOR KAESER WILHELM.
 Queen of Holland May Abdicate Throne For Political Reasons.
THE HAGUE, Feb. 7.—The report of the state commission appointed to revise the constitution of Holland, which has just been made public, contains several radical recommendations which throw a significant light on Holland's fear of absorption at the hands of Germany.

The most remarkable provision is that which would exclude from succession to the throne children born after the abdication of the sovereign. This section of the report is bound to create a great sensation throughout Europe, for it is believed here that it has been drawn up to provide for a possible if not probable contingency in the near future.

Should the queen die childless the crown, according to the present constitution, would descend to the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar and should be refused it, to Princess Marie de Reuss, widow of the former German ambassador at Vienna.

Both of these heirs are objectionable to Hollanders because they are Germans, and should dispute arise over them Holland fears the Kaiser would seize the opportunity to step in and take their land.

VOLUNTEERS KILLED.
 Fire in Mead Building, White Plains, Fatal to Three.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Three volunteer firemen were killed and four injured, one of them probably fatally, while working on the ruins of the Mead building, which was destroyed by fire Sunday.

The dead are: John Chester Cromwell, thirty years old, assistant cashier of the First National bank, of which institution his father is president; Charles E. Cooley, thirty years old, a real estate agent; Caleb Underhill, thirty-two years old, a liverman.

The injured are: Emil Burgess, thirty-four years old, a candy manufacturer, probably fatally; Charles Sutton, both legs broken; Stephen D. Lyon, burned about the body.

All the men killed and injured were struck by a falling cornice and part of the brick wall which supported it. The cornice had become loosened, and, fearing it would fall into the crowd around the building, the firemen were trying to pull it down.

Body Found in Fire Ruins.
 MAYFIELD, KY., Feb. 7.—In the ruins of the Parker boarding house, which burned during the night, the crisp body of an unknown man was found with indications of murder. He arrived in town from Indiana late in the evening, gave his name as Doyle and said he was going to the country to visit a sister, who cannot be located. A bullet hole was discovered in the man's head, and there was a stab in his breast. Only two men were in the house. The other one, Albert Brown, jumped from the second story and broke his skull, but is still alive.

Bacon Corrects Senator Beveridge.
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Mr. Bacon made a brief statement intended to show that Senator Beveridge had been in error regarding the operation of the child labor law in Georgia. Mr. Beveridge had said that there had been 3,000 applications for child labor in Fulton county, Ga., under the new state law and that all of them had been granted. Mr. Bacon said he had ascertained that but ten applications had been granted.
