HUNTING

for a plumber who will do your work just right. You can stop right here. Send for us and we will respond promptly and do your work quickly.

For a Plumber to slight or loiter over his work we consider decidedly poor policy. So all our work is of the hurry-up order, but without slighting. In fact the only part we are careless about is the bill. We have got into the habit of not charging enough, so other plumbers say.

H. R. TALMADGE,

Both Phones. Elmer Avenue.

THE CAYUTA LAND CO. OF SAYRE.

Desires to announce that they have some very desirable building lots for sale on cheap and easy terms, and that they have placed the agency for selling them in the hands of ANDREW EVARTS of this place. All those wishing to provide themselves with homes or to invest in lots for speculative purposes will do well to consult with Mr. Everts before purchasing elsewhere. This plot of land is nearly surrounded by industrial plants with beautiful scenery and all the advantages of a modern town. Terms to suit purchasers. Steps are already being taken to supply all the land comprising this plot with a full supply of the best water the valley affords. When you come to look over the plot of ground take trolley to Springs Corners, cross bridge that crosses over L. V. R. R. when across bridge turn to the left and you are on the ground. There will be a man at the office Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons of each week to show you over the ground, or any other day by calling Valley Phone No. 244c. Andrew Everts, 108 Hospital Place, Sayre, Pa.

His Preference.

"Always do right, young man," said the parson, "and your friends will stand by you."

"Yes, that's always the way," rejoined the young man, "but what I want is friends who will stand by me when I go wrong."—Chicago Daily News.

And They Have a Bully Time.

"Some of the women of New York take stuffed bears with them whenever they go out anywhere now."

"I suppose they are in most cases the wives of men who make a specialty of lambs."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Lucky Canine.

Gyer—Since Jobson's marriage he has been leading a regular dog's life.

Myer—You don't say!

Gyer—Fact! His wife pets him from morning till night.—Chicago Daily News.

No Way to Balk Them.

We may patch, we may broaden
Our laws as we will,
But the lawyers will find
Technicalities still.
—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE WET SEASON.

"Mamma, is it true that rain is the tears of angels?"

"So they say, Bobbie. Why?"

"O, I was just thinking how sad they must be to make it rain for a week."—Philadelphia Press.

Literary Strength.

"Scribberly's stories seem somehow to lack force."

"I'm surprised to hear you say that. His characters use almost as many cuss words as Kipling's."—Chicago Record-Herald.

His a Thinking Part.

Homer—I heard Nextdoor and his wife quarreling this morning.

Mrs. Homer—What did he say to her?

Homer—Nothing. He was doing all the listening.—Chicago Daily News.

McVaugh Not Dead.

Athens—H. F. Johnson, Esq., received a letter from the missing man Archie McVaugh today in which he says that he is not dead and does not contemplate any desperate act just at present. He has been working at Cleveland all winter and expects to keep on working there some time. He gives no explanation about the clothes and papers found in them and we are still in the dark about everything except that he is not dead. That is some satisfaction for it clears up the mystery.

Miss Hattie Howell, a teacher of the High School has been sick at her home in Weisburg two weeks and returned to Athens this morning to resume her duties at the school.

Supreme Secretary Geo. Stanton is in the west organizing lodges of the Keystone Guard. He will visit Iowa, Montana, Nebraska and several western states before he returns.

Mrs. May Sherwood, wife of John Sherwood died at East Smithfield yesterday aged 26 years. Her husband is a barber and formerly lived in Athens. Her remains will be taken to Port Allegany tomorrow for burial.

The moving pictures will be exhibited at the Baptist church next Sunday evening in connection with a lecture on the life of Moses. There will be a miscellaneous entertainment by the same artist the succeeding Monday evening.

WILL OPPOSE THE CONSOLIDATION ACT.

Perkin's Post Does Not Take Kindly to New Pension Bill.

Athens—Perkin's Post passed a resolution instructing the Commander and Adjutant to ask our Senators Philander C. Knox and Boies Penrose to oppose the passage of the bill consolidating the seventeen agencies and making all of the pensions payable at the Washington agency. We have received a reply from Hon. Philander C. Knox acknowledging receipt of our request and stating that he will oppose the bill for the reason that he does not consider that it will make any reduction in the expense of the execution of the laws and that it will add greatly to inconvenience of the soldiers. He strikes the right spot and all old soldiers should remember him for his efforts to help them.

You ought to know what you are giving your baby. Use Cascasweet, and look at the wrapper. Every ingredient is there in plain English. Cascasweet is best corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Sold by C. M. Driggs, Druggist.

Uncanny Charm.

Lady Violet Greville has a story of a woman who had a little Japanese charm given her. Every time she wore it some mischance happened, and she generally fell ill. Her son at last took the jewel to the keeper of the Japanese curios in the Paris museum and requested to be informed what the charm represented. "This," said the expert at once, "is the emblem of sickness." The woman never wore it again.

Flower Weather Prophet.

The marigold is a very reliable weather prophet. If the day is going to be fine the flower opens about five or six o'clock in the morning; but when wet weather is in prospect the marigold does not open at all.

Old Lady's Pious Hope.

"There are some people who believe that the whole human race will be saved," said an old lady, "but for my part, I hope for better things."—Success Magazine.

Singular Indeed.

"Your Uncle Thomas is a singular man, isn't he?"

"Yes. He never patented anything that he expected to make a fortune out of."—Chicago Record-Herald.

MADAME DEAN'S FRENCH FEMALE PILLS.

ACTED TO THE LIFE.

"Now Henry," said the bride, "I want you to understand distinctly that I do not wish to be taken for a bride. I am going to act exactly as if I were an old married woman. So, dearest, do not think me cold and unloving if I treat you very practically when there is anybody around."

"I don't believe I can pass for an old married man," said Harry. "I am so fond of you that I am bound to show it. I am sure to betray myself."

"No, you mustn't. It's easy enough. And I insist that you behave just like all old married men do. Do you hear?"

"Well, darling, I'll try, but I know I shall not succeed."

On the first evening of their arrival at their hotel the bride retired and the groom fell in with a whist party, with whom he sat playing cards until four o'clock in the morning. His wife spent the weary hours in weeping. At last he turned up, and met his grief-stricken bride with the hilarious question: "Well, ain't I doing the old married man like a daisy?"

She never referred to the subject again, and everybody in future knew that they had just been married.

Poor Richard.

Ben Franklin was experimenting with his kite and key.

"Wonderful!" exclaimed the curious throng, when they saw the electric spark on the key. "But could you perform the same experiment at night?"

"Oh, yes," replied Franklin, "but I suppose I would have to use a night key."

For even in those days poor Richard was known as the man who wrote jokes for his almanac.—Chicago Daily News.

A Way to Do It.

"He made money by that garbage contract."

"Yes; he struck pay dirt."—Baltimore American.

His Own Medicine.

"What cured Smarly of practical jokes?"

"One of them."—Detroit Free Press.
