HORSE RAN AWAY MUCH MILK SPILLED.

Street Car Woke Him Up With the Result That the Cargo in the Wagon Was Scattered Broadcast.

Waverly—This morning a milk wagon, driven by Harry Hoagland was standing in front of a house in South Waverly while the driver was going to a house to deliver a dish milk.

The street car came along and scared the horse so that he turned across the road and took a short run over a lot that was full of furrows made by plowing. The wagon jounced a great deal with the result that the milk was spilled all over the ground. After doing the damage the horse came back into the road and stopped.

STRUCK BY CAR THREE RIBS BROKEN

Horses Thrown down and One So Badly Injured That it Was Shot Drove Directly in Front of Car.

Waverly—The condition of Charles Peterson, who was injured in a collision with a street car yesterday afternoon is very serious. Three ribs were fractured, and it is feared that he has sustained serious internal injuries.

The accident occurred on the highway between the two bridges that are used by the street cars to cross the Erie and D. L. & W. tracks on Chemung street. The bridges are only a few feet apart. Mr. Peterson had a team hitched to a lumber wagon and was standing on the road between the two bridges. A D. L. & W. train was passing, and as his horses were afraid of the cars, he had stopped at that point and was waiting until the train passed. Just as the caboose of the train went by the street car came over one of the bridges. The motorman saw the team standing there, and thought that the driver was waiting for the car to pass. He accordingly continued down the bridge. Mr. Peterson had not seen the car, however, and turned across the track directly in front of it.

The horses were knocked down, and one of them was under the fender when the car stopped, while the other was lying on the fender. Mr. Peterson was still in the wagon which was badly broken. Eugene Thompson and his young son were also in the wagon at the time. Both were thrown out. The boy was not hurt, but Mr. Thompson was bruised to some extent. The team was brought to O. F. Benson's livery stable where it was found that one horse had broken its leg, and was shot. The other was badly bruised, but had recovered sufficiently this morning so that it was taken home.

Mr. Peterson lives between Waverly and Chemung at a point near Holbert's crossing. He passed a sleepless night, and did not appear to be any better this morning.
