Isaiah Potter has sold his shoe shop and will devote the remainder of his days to farming the little plot of ground he has in town. We expect to see some big potatoes raised now.

There have been many complaints made about the boisterous boys who created so much noise in the back part of the hall last evening while the concert was in progress. This must be stopped, as people will not stand for it.

That lecture on the life of Moses illustrated with moving pictures will take place at the Baptist church Sunday evening, and the regular moving picture exhibition will be at the same place Monday evening. There is no mistake about it this time.

GETTING EVIDENCE AGAINST NEGLIGENT EMPLOYEES.

Susp Shots Taken of Lehigh Men Who Drink While on Duty.

According to the Hazleton Standard for the past few weeks Lehigh Valley detectives have been doing sleuth work among the employees of the company in that city, and it is said that at least one employe has been trapped by the operations of the plain clothes officials. It appears that detectives have been sent out over the entire system to get evidence against negligent employes and particularly those who visit saloons while on duty and guzzle beer and similar beverages. If the detectives discover any employe in the act of violating the rules of the company a snap shot of the offender is secured and this is turned over to the officials higher up. An employe of the road was dismissed recently and when he demanded an explanation he was shown a picture of himself standing with his legs crossed at a public bar and in the act of blowing the foam from a "bucket of suds." It is said that a number of the company's employes have been discharged as a result of the work of the detectives.

EXCELLENT CONCERT HIGHLY APPRECIATED

Local Talent Pleased a Big Audience at the High School Hall in Athens Last Evening.

Athens—It is the universal verdict of all who attended the concert at High School hall last evening that it was the best entertainment they ever listened to in Athens. It is very gratifying to note that the musical culture of this vicinity is taking such high rank and that there is a corresponding elevation in the tastes and appreciation of the people. Some of our musicians have had advantages of study with the foremost educators of the world and they have brought with them a greater proficiency of the art and a higher refinement of taste that has produced astonishing results in all classes of society. Our yearly courses of entertainments have been of a more advanced standard and the people have come to that stage of enlightenment that demands artistic proficiency in every department of knowledge. We were surprised and delighted last evening as we listened to the performance of our own musicians and only regret that we are not able to give a more extended report of individuals that took part in the program. Another fact gives us great satisfaction, and that is that we have been able to procure an instrument for the concert hall that is capable of producing the best musical results and that this has been secured by the patronage of those who place such a high estimate on artistic excellence.

There was a good attendance last evening and the fact that nearly every number on the program was encored showed that the entertainment was highly appreciated. The program opened with a piano duet, "Overture from William Tell" by the Misses Graham and Murray. This is one of Rossini's masterpieces and the young ladies gave a fine rendering of it. Next Miss Marion Greener gave a violin solo, "Adant from Concert" by Sitt. Her playing was superb in technique and shading. Then Miss Grace Stimson sang in faultless manner a vocal solo and was obliged to respond with an encore. Mr. E. F. Loomis our talented mandolin player and composer next gave a "Fantasia" by Abt, one of the most difficult compositions written for that instrument. Mr. Loomis is truly master of his instrument and always gives such a happy blending of harmonic and tone shading to his pieces as to captivate his listeners. Then Mrs. Charles Marshall Smith gave a recitation, "George Washington's Birthday." She put so much mirth and humor in this piece that she carried the audience by storm. In the second part of the "Song Story" with piano accompaniment and in this she showed her wonderful power of oratory to perfection. Mrs. Hall played the difficult classical composition "Adagio from Suite III" by Ries with her usual proficiency in technique, tone shading, and difficult bowings. For an encore she played the "Hungarian Rerive" by Haesche. In the second part she gave Sarasate's famous "Spanish Dance." The last number for the first part was a duet by Mrs. Haverly and Mr. Cook with a violin obligato, which was encored with an echo.

Mrs. E. M. Dunham opened the second part with a piano solo "Spinning Song" by Eass. Then Miss Nellie Peckens of Sayre, sang the contralto solo "Sunset" by Dudley Buck. Miss Peckens has appeared before Athens audiences before and she has become a favorite. Next came two mandolin solos by Mr. Loomis with his own composition "Cradle Song" and "Masquerade" they are delightful in melodious effects.

The concert closed with a ladies' quartette sang by the Misses Corbin, Stevens, and Mrs. O. L. Haverly and Mrs. Dunham. We feel that particular mention should be made of the accompanists, Miss Ida Corbin, Miss Elsie Jordan and Mrs. Hampton Huff. They all did their parts finely and Miss Corbin who played in so many selections deserves special mention. It was a delightful concert and will place a large sum in the piano fund.

Editor Borrowed a Gun.

The editor of a Kansas country paper has found a way of persuading the delinquent subscriber says the New York Tribune. It was quite accidental. He had borrowed a rifle recently and he started up the main street of the town to return the weapon to its owner. The delinquent subscribers got it into their heads that he was on the warpath, and every one he met insisted on paying what he owed him. One man wiped out a debt of ten years' standing. On his return to his office he found a load of hay, fifteen bushels of corn, ten bushels of potatoes, a load of wood and a barrel of turpkins that had been brought in. All the country editors are now trying to borrow Winchester's.

WIFE-KIDNAP IN COUNTY.

Patrick C. Ryan Showed, "I Am the Man That Killed Tyler."

WALLACE, Ida, Feb. 21.—A man thought to be insane caused a commotion at the trial of Steve Adams for the murder of Fred Tyler by springing up near the defendant and shouting: "It is the heart that moved the hand. I am the man that killed Fred Tyler. Turn all these other fellows loose, for I am the man that done the deed." The words and appearance of the strange man, whose hair was long and black and whose stubby beard and wild eyes gave him a strange aspect, caused the defendant to turn pale and Mrs. Adams to burst into tears.

Two officers removed the stranger from the courtroom to the sheriff's office. There he said his name was Patrick C. Ryan of Bates, that he had just finished a term in Deer Lodge penitentiary for stealing mutton, and after being released he had gone to Burke, where Roosevelt's daughter had told him to come to Wallace and take charge of this case. He said if Adams was convicted an earthquake would destroy the Coeur d'Aleneas. Ryan will be committed to an asylum.

Adams said he did not know the man. The session of the court was taken up mainly by Coroner Keys, who told of the condition of the body of Tyler and the surroundings where it was found in the woods.

FROM NOME TO CAPITAL.

Alaska Mail Carrier With Dog Team at White House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Ell Smith, the Alaskan mail carrier who has been making a trip from Nome, Alaska, to Washington, arrived here, and with his team of seven Eskimo dogs and his sled on wheels he drove to the White House.

While waiting an opportunity to see Secretary Loebl Smith showed the president's two boys, Archie and Quentin, the outfit he had brought with him and told them the names of his dogs. Afterward he took Quentin on a drive around the grounds. The appearance of Smith and his unique outfit attracted a large number of curiosity seekers. Smith presented to the president a letter from an official at Nome, and in return the president wrote a brief note certifying to Smith's arrival in Washington. The president gave his visitor a cordial greeting, speaking to him for some minutes in his private office at the White House. Later Smith drove his team through the southern part of the White House grounds, where the president, Mrs. Roosevelt and the children were given an opportunity to see some team work by the Eskimo dogs.

Brazilian Ambassador at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Feb. 21.—Joaquin Nabuco, ambassador from Brazil, was the guest of the Liberal club here last night. Mr. Nabuco was formerly the Brazilian minister to England and was president of the third international conference at Rio Janeiro. Taking for his topic "Trade Relations Between North and South America," Mr. Nabuco reviewed the rapid strides toward continental confraternity in the western hemisphere and prophesied even closer relations between the republics of the two Americas.

SONILLA DISTORTED FACTS.

Honduras Only Wants Reason For Honduras Outrages.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Feb. 21.—The Nicaraguan army, under Generala Vasquez and Porras, has defeated the forces of Honduras at several points, capturing important positions. President Bonilla of Honduras has issued a proclamation, in which recent events are distorted and appealing for recognition of the boundary question, which Nicaragua has not taken into consideration since the king of Spain rendered his award in the matter.

From the outset Nicaragua has only demanded ample satisfaction for the violation of her territory, for the attack made on property and the burning of buildings in Nicaraguan territory by regular troops of Honduras and for the killing of the Nicaraguan soldiers who composed the small frontier guard which was attacked by Honduran troops.

The war between Honduras and Nicaragua is now certain to continue.

TOBOGGAN AT NEW ORLEANS.

Feature Event at Fair Grounds Track a Rough Race.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 21.—Before the racing at the Fair-grounds Henry Brulater bought Notsulga, a two-year-old, from A. Brown of Nashville for $5,000. The feature event, the five furlong handicap, was a rough race. Jockey Hennessy on Sir Toddington, the favorite, in attempting to get to the front cut off nearly every horse in the field, making them pull up. Sir Toddington kept the lead until the sixteenth pole, when Toboggan came with a rush and won. Summaries: First Race—Kaiserhoff, first; No Quarter, second; Royal Bond, third. Second Race—Convent, first; Gremse, second; Lute Foster, third. Third Race—Tom Dolan, first; Granada, second; Tinker, third. Fourth Race—Toboggan, first; Sir Toddington, second; Rivouac, third. Fifth Race—Mahogany, first; Dr. Young, second; Marvin Neal, third. Sixth Race—Arabo, first; Pride of Woodstock, second; Redcoat, third. Seventh Race—Lady Ellison, first; Canyon, second; St. Noel, third.

Keene's Colors in Front at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—There was a large attendance at Oakland, and the sport was good. Keene's colors flashed in front in the opening event when his filly Bravoure in an exciting finish won from Bunker Hill. In the race the latter looked an easy winner, but Miller was a bit overconfident and lost the race in the last stride. The Best Sweet handicap was cleverly won by Dusty Miller, though Sir Edward was game to the finish.

Misses Wagner and Moore in Florida.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Two of the women lawn tennis experts, Miss Wagner and Miss Moore, ex-national champion, reached the final and championship round in the national championship indoor tournament here. W. C. Grant, holder of the men's singles title, won his semifinal bracket in the upper half of that event, while on the lower bracket G. L. Wyeth caused his name to be placed by a three set victory.

Grip Causes Rector's Suicide.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Feb. 21.—A dispatch to the Union from Delanson says that Matthew H. Rector, aged thirty-five years, one of the best known business men of that village, was found dead on the floor of his office with a bullet hole in his right temple. Early in the winter he suffered a severe attack of grip and recovered sufficiently to attend to his business, but was still troubled with severe pains in his head. It is supposed that the pain drove him insane and that while so afflicted he killed himself.

visit its small army, you would be surprised to find there some very interesting ancient customs still carefully observed. One of these customs is to have the big regimental drum drawn by a powerful dog. It rests on a two-wheeled cart, behind which the drummer marches and beats the drum with far greater ease than if he were also carrying its full weight from his shoulders. The dog is trained to keep its place even in a long and tedious march.
