Reception a Success.

Waverly—The reception and dance by the Sons of Veterans at their hall last evening was a success in every particular. There were about 60 couples in attendance, and Lawhead's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. An excellent supper was served, and the hour was late when the party broke up.

VILLAGE SUED FOR BIG DAMAGES

Mrs. Martha Hungerford Wants $5,000 for Injuries Sustained in Falling on Defective Sidewalk.

Waverly—An action has been begun by Mrs. Martha Hungerford against the village of Waverly, President Lawrence, each of the trustees, and Jefferson Bingham, street commissioner of the village, for damages to the extent of $5,000 for injuries sustained last June by stepping into a hole in a side walk on Waverly street.

The attorney for Mrs. Hungerford is Charles Annabel, and he claims, that, not only is the village liable, but all the officials as well whose duty it is to keep the walks in a safe condition. It seems that Mrs. Hungerford was going up Waverly street on the day that the accident happened, and stepped into the hole in the sidewalk with the result that her ankle was broken in such a manner as to make her a permanent cripple.

It seems that there was some delay on the part of the plaintiff in filing a verified statement of her damages with the village, and so as an alternative this action is begun against the village officials, who the plaintiff's attorney claims are individually liable for the damage suffered by his client.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS THIS EVENING

Humor Says That There Will Be Some Surprises Sprung at That Time—Just What They Are is Uncertain.

Waverly—This evening the Republican caucus will be held in Stone's hall at which time the candidates of that party for the village offices will be chosen. While it seems that Mr. Lawrence will be the choice for president, there is a rumor on the street this morning to the effect that there will be a surprise sprung this evening, and that another name will be proposed for that office, and an attempt will be made to put it through.

Just who this "dark horse" is no one seems to know, or at least were not willing to tell, and the matter will therefore probably remain in the dark until those having the matter in charge see fit to show their hand. Considering the many and varied vital interests that are at stake; the caucus will no doubt, be a large one, and all should make a special effort to get out and express his opinion in the most effective way that is given him.

STATE OFFICERS ATTENDED MEETING.

Ballenstedt was the caterer, and he had everything that anyone could wish put up in the excellent style that is characteristic of him.

A number of speeches were made by different local and out of town members. Edward Ryan of Syracuse and state organizer C. H. Crowley of Rochester gave very interesting talks concerning the work of the order. Robert Lyons of Susquehanna had a word to say for everyone, and Patrick Flanagan and Patrick O'Shea of the Oswego lodge each spoke. J. E. Clohessey, president of the Waverly lodge, T. F. Carmody and other local members also gave short talks.

LEGISLATURE REPEALS "PRESS MUZZLER"

Another Attempt to be Made to Permit Selling of Pools at Horse Races in State.

Harrisburg—The day of the "press muzzler" has passed in Pennsylvania. This fact was made quite evident at the House of Representatives yesterday morning, when the Haggood bill, repealing the Salus-Grady so-called "press muzzler" act went through on final passage without a dissenting vote.

When the repealer was called up Mr. O'Shell, of Allegheny, wanted to have it postponed for the present, but the House was set upon having this issue disposed of finally and at once. Half a dozen votes were cast in the negative as the roll was called, but when these unsophisticated members realized "where they were at" they quickly ran to cover and asked that the records be amended so that they could change their votes from "no" to "aye." Speaker Frank R. McClain announced the record as ultimately tabulated as 162 votes for the repealer and not one against it.

It is believed no serious opposition will be encountered in the Senate, and that Governor Stuart will promptly sign the repealer. With the passage of the repealer the McClain libel law of 1901 will again become operative.

WANTS PET DOG BURIED WITH HER.

Northumberland County Woman's Will Provides for "Charlie," Her "Dearest Friend."

Selins Grov, Pa.—An aged maiden woman of Northumberland county, whose name is withheld, died recently leaving a large estate, and after making several ordinary bequests, according to the will probated in Sunbury, leaves a portion to be devoted to the care of her pet dog. The provision is as follows: "My closest companion and dearest friend is a small pug dog, known very generally as 'Charlie.' Should he survive me I expressly order that he be placed in the hands of some person, who, for a cash consideration out of the funds of my estate, will give him kind treatment and a comfortable home for the balance of his life, and, at his death, if not contrary to the rules and regulations of the cemetery company, that he be placed in a neat burial casket and laid beside me in my lot." The testatrix also desired that the balance of her estate be given to an orphan asylum.

CAR SMASHES STORE AFTER WILD RUNAWAY.

Pittsburg Motorman, and Person in Building Struck, Hurt—Boy Missing.

Pittsburg—A street car on the Wylie and Bedford avenue division of the Pittsburg Railways Company ran away at 7:40 Thursday night down a steep grade on Thirty-third, street Herron Hill. The car, after running wild for two squares, left the rails, and plunged into a confectionery store, wrecking the building.

There were no passengers aboard the car, which belonged to the Erin street division, and was being taken to the Herron Hill car barns. A large number of persons were in the confectionery store, and when the building crashed they were buried under the debris. A boy, 15 years old, is said to be missing. John Mead, the motorman, and Harry Houseburg, who was in the store, are seriously injured, and a number were slightly hurt.

MARRIAGE IN SICK ROOM.

Typhoid Falls to Postpone Date of Bloomsburg Man's Wedding.

Bloomsburg, Pa.—Carl G. Bernhard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bernhard, of Bloomsburg, and Miss Helen Klein, of Catawissa, were married Tuesday by Dr. Israel, rector of St. Luke's Church. Mr. Bernhard was stricken with typhoid fever Christmas Day, and has not fully recovered. The date for the marriage having been announced, it was decided to go on with the ceremony, which was performed in the sick room in Scranton, where Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard will reside.

Strange Man in Boys' Bed.

Chester, Pa.—When two young sons of Alderman John M. Stockman, of the Eighth ward, awakened Thursday morning they discovered a strange man in their bed. They called to their father, who had the man sent to the City Hall, where, at a hearing before Magistrate Elliott, he was committed to jail. He gave the name of Harry Brown, of Rock Springs, Md. The only explanation he offered as to his being in the Alderman's home was that he thought he was in his own home. He could no account for his presence in Chester.

WOMAN COULD NOT IDENTIFY DEAD MAN.

Church Road Murder Remains as Much of a Mystery as Before Long Search.

Ogontz—After thirty persons had positively identified a picture of the man murdered on Church road the night of February 16, one of the thirty being none other than a woman who said the picture was that of her husband, and after Chief Saddington had worked unceasingly on the case for more than a week, all hopes of fully identifying the victim of the Black Hand murder and possibly capturing the assailant vanished Thursday when the woman of the case viewed the body at Jenkintown and said she was mistaken in her identification of the picture, and that the body was not that of her husband. The authorities are now again at the point where they were an hour after the commission of the murder. The remains of the butchered victim will, in all likelihood, go to an unknown grave in Hillside Cemetery.

A chase over an entire State, which branched, before the end, into two other States, and included visits to a dozen towns after the wife—or one of two wives, as it is alleged—of a missing man, was the feature of a hunt participated in by Chief Saddington and Special Officer Bailey, of the Germantown district. In the work the officials had every possible assistance from Captain Doughy and Lieutenant Buchanan.

A marked resemblance of the dead man to Tony Castareta led to the investigation along lines which kept the officials on the chase for a week. Castareta was missing, and the detectives wanted to locate a woman believed to have been his wife. The woman had some money when she met Castareta and her married her, afterwards disappearing. He has been mixed up in several jobs—this much is definitely known by the police, and it was considered possible that he was the victim of the Church road murder. The chase led first to Jersey City, then to Newark, to New York, to Riverside, N. J., to Riverton, to Palmyra, and finally to Vineland, where Thursday night the detectives received definite information that the woman wanted could be found in Philadelphia.

The woman was located in Philadelphia. She quickly identified the picture of the dead man as the husband who was missing, but when she was brought to Jenkintown and saw the body in the vault she said she had been mistaken—that it was not her missing husband, there being a difference in color and the quantity of hair on the murdered man's head. Otherwise, she said, the resemblance was remarkable.

TROLLEY HIT A STORE.

Two Persons Hurt and Many Injured by Runaway Pittsburg Car.

Pittsburg, March 2.—Two persons were seriously injured, several slightly hurt, at a trolley store building and a street car demolished, causing a monetary loss of $7,000, last night when a street car on the Wylie and Bedford avenue line got beyond control of the motorman on a steep grade and after running wild for two squares left the rails, crashing into Reincker's confectionery store in the Herron Hill district.

The confectionery store was filled with persons when the car struck the building. All of the injured except the motorman of the street car were in the store. A defective brake is given as the cause of the accident.

HOW HE STOPPED THE TRAIN.

Fireman Barteman Threw Lighted Torch into Engine Cab Window. PHILADELPHIA, March 2.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has publicly commended Engleman John F. Mattingly and Fireman H. Barteman, both of Bell Alton, Md., for preventing what might have been a serious wreck last Monday in the Baltimore and Potomac tunnel at Baltimore.

Two cars of the passenger train their locomotive was drawing were derailed in the tunnel, blocking both tracks and making it necessary to send the special car in which President Roosevelt was returning from Boston around Baltimore on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks.

At the moment of the derailment Engleman Mattingly blew his whistle to attract the attention of any train which might be coming down in the opposite direction, and Fireman Barteman went forward with an engine torch, and tried to flag a passenger train carrying 112 passengers which came rushing into the tunnel. The engineer of the train did not see the torch, and as the rapidly moving locomotive came alongside of him Barteman threw his torch into the cab window. This unusual action caused the engineer to stop his train three car lengths from the derailed train ahead of him. The action of the fireman and engineer was reported to Second Vice President Pugh, and through him the men have been informed of the company's appreciation of their good judgment.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL PASSES.

Measure—Vote Was 155 to 114. WASHINGTON, March 2.—In the house the passing of the ship subsidy bill developed one of the prettiest fights in years.

On the first vote the Democrats and the insurgent Republicans had votes enough to defeat the measure, but after three hours of fierce contest the bill as perfected in the committee of the whole striking out provisions for steamship mail lines from Pacific coast points to the orient was finally passed by 155 to 114, 11 majority. There were 52 Republicans who voted with the Democrats on the first ballot and 41 on the final ballot.

After the passage of the ship subsidy bill the general deficiency bill was taken up and passed. An amendment by Mr. Grosvenor (O) was adopted giving to all employees of congress one month's extra pay. A bill was passed providing for the creation of an industrial peace committee which is to administer the $40,000 which President Roosevelt received from the Nobel prize fund.
