General Deficiency Hill Agreed To Loob's Salary Fixed.

WASHINGTON, March 4. - During he recess of the senate and house last night the conferees on the general deficiency appropriation bill agreed upon a final report upon that measure, and when the senate reconvened the report was presented there and agreed to without debate. The same action was taken an hour later by the house. This action by the two houses concluded the work of congress on all the appropriation billis, with the one exception of the sundry civil bill. The conferees on the general deficiency bill fixed the salary of Scoretary Loeb at Silour and allowed the appropriation of $15,003

Mandak, another watchman, was hurled a distance of a hundred feet. The Maberti family occupied a small frame house about 350 feet from the magazine. Their home fell in upon them, and four of the family were se riously injured.

The power house and adjoining small buildings were destroyed and the win dows of practically all the houses in Homestead and Union Hill blown in.

Just how much dynamite was stored in the magazine may be determined in the official investigation. Superintendent James McMahon of the contracting firm was arrested charged with having in storage a greater quantity of explosives than can legally be kept of the hurry-up in one place. It was reported that the building held four tons of dynamite. There were two or more explosions and they tore a hole eight feet deep and twenty-four feet across in the rock.
