per contained. "We want to show that the girl who told this remarkable story here on the witness stand swore at another time naked-stripped absolutely naked-she had endured the lashings and beatings of this defendant rather than swear to his false statements that Stanford White had drugged and ruined her."

"These things were put in the foru of an affidavit," declared Mr. Jeronje

Mr. Jerome argued that the material of the case to whather or no Evelyn Nesbit told Thaw the story of her alleged ruin by Stanford White Without that story in evidence he declared the reason for the defendant's alleged insanity disappears. The prosecutor plainly admitted the importance of young Mrs. Thaw's testimony, and he declared he wished by Hummel's testimony to show her own repudfation of the charges which on the witness stand she renewed against White

"Thus," he concluded, "the jury may infer from her own statements after her return from Europe in 1903 whethof that time told this defendant the things she said she did."

Mr. Delmas objected to Hummel as a witness on the ground that his testimony had to do with the truth or faisity of Mrs. Thaw's parration and was not permissible under the rules of evidence which have governed the trial. Mr. Jerome's contention was that while he may not attack the truth or falsity of Mrs Thaw's statement that she was betrayed by White he can attack the truth of her assertion that she told the story to Thaw at the time she says she did.

Mr. Delmas first sought to interrupt Hummel's testimony by showing that he was acting as Evelyn Nesbit's le gal adviser and counsel when she made certain statements to him. Humbe was acting solely as White's counsel and no legal action had been con templated in behalf of Miss Nesbit He said he was paid a yearly retainer by Stanford White and could not say exactly what he charged the architect for drawing up the affidavit. Asked if it was $1,000, he burst into laughter finally placed the charge at "$100-

Young Mrs. Thaw's testimony re

that Stanford White had taken her to Hummel's office after telling her "lots him in the royal stables and that the of horrid things about Harry" and that proposal to increase his allowance be she had told Hummel about her trip through Europe with Thaw. She said. "Mr. Hummel then dictated a lot of things to a man and put in lots about Harry Thaw which wasn't true at all." She denied signing any paper in Hummel's office, but admitted having signed some papers later in White's studio. She claimed she did not know what the papers were. Some time aft-erward, she says, she demanded that the washing out of embankments. White show her the papers. She was taken to Hummel's office, and there a
