PITTSBURG FLOODED

Worst Inundation Ever Recorded in Pennsylvania.

TWO ICE GORGES BREAK ABOVE CITY

Whole Lower District Under Water. Skiffs in Use on Streets—Fourteen Reported Victims of the Rising Waters.

PITTSBURG, March 15.—The greatest flood in the history of western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and eastern Ohio is being experienced, the water here reaching a stage of 34.0 feet at Herrs Island and 34.2 feet at Market street. It continues to rise steadily about two-tenths of an inch an hour. At the headwaters the rivers are now stationary. The present stage is twelve feet above the danger mark.

On the river the thirty mile ice gorge at Parker, Pa., broke and is moving toward the city. The immense gorge in the Clarion river has also started downstream. Both gorges, however, are old, and the ice is soft. On account of the arrival here is not expected to cause much damage.

Conditions in this city are the worst ever recorded. The whole lower downtown district is under water, and people are moving about in wagons and skiffs. Duquesne way, Penn avenue and Liberty street, running parallel with the Allegheny river, are submerged to a depth of several feet. Hundreds of business houses located in this district are flooded. In a number of instances the water is almost up to the second floor.

The trolley, Belasco, Alvin and Bijou theaters are surrounded by water and will be unable to open for several days. Water has destroyed or greatly damaged the power plants of all the four theaters.

The guests in the Colonial, Lincoln, Annex and Anderson hotels are either marooned or compelled to use skiffs to and from the buildings. Trolley service between Pittsburgh and Allegheny was suspended early in the day, and the scene at the Union depot of the Pennsylvania railroad are almost beyond description. Great placards announcing the inauguration of a special train service to Allegheny are displayed all through the town.

At the depot are thousands of people, a chaotic mass of humanity shouting and pushing in their efforts to board these trains for Allegheny or the many suburbs adjacent to the city. Patrolmen in large numbers are endeavoring to bring some kind of order out of the situation, but without avail. The trains are being run regardless of schedules and are packed to the platform steps.

Within the last thirty-six hours fourteen fatalities directly due to the flood have occurred. Hundreds of people are marooned in Pittsburgh. Restaurants have been closed by persons unable to reach their homes. Every room in the hotels and boarding houses has been engaged, and there are not sufficient accommodations to take care of the people compelled to remain here. Several engine houses in Pittsburgh and Allegheny are out of commission, and quarters have been engaged at hotels for the firemen.

At several of the engine houses a squad of two firemen in skiffs is looking after the property. The greatest excitement prevails throughout Allegheny county, as thousands of buildings are not only now surrounded by water in the flooded districts, but the indications are that thousands of persons will be forced from their homes.

DISCREDIT'S HUMMEL

Delmas May Call Jerome In Thaw's Defense.

WITNESS REBUKED BY WESTERNER

New York Lawyer on Stand Gets in Statement Regarding Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's Story Before Counsel Could Object.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Abram Hummel on the witness stand at the trial of Harry K. Thaw declared that Evelyn Nesbit told him in 1903 that she had told Thaw in Paris that it was not true Stanford White had drugged and betrayed her.

The court had ruled out a somewhat similar question regarding Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's alleged affidavit, and Mr. Delmas, leading counsel for the defense, was on his feet with an objection to the second interrogation when Hummel quickly interposed his answer in a loud voice.

"At the interview in your office," asked Mr. Jerome, "did Evelyn Nesbit prior to your dictating anything tell you that she had told Thaw that it was not true that Stanford White had drugged and ravished her?"

Mr. Delmas was on his feet to object, but before he could do so and immediately after the district attorney had ceased to speak Hummel said in a loud voice, "She certainly did."

Mr. Delmas looked at the witness and, with a scowl on his face, said: "And you call yourself a lawyer."

Mr. Jerome asked Mr. Delmas to address his remarks to the court. He further said he understood Mr. Delmas to have said he would not object to an answer to such a question as was asked the witness. His assistant, Mr. Garvan, had told him Mr. Delmas had made such a statement while he (Jerome) was out of the room.

"I made no such statement," declared Mr. Delmas. "I specifically reserved the right to object to any question put to this witness."

Mr. Delmas turned to Hummel and said: "You heard me reserve that right, didn't you?"

DOGS OF HELL

Dowie, Founder of Zion, Said He Would Rise Against Enemies.

CHICAGO, March 15—Six weeks before he died John Alexander Dowie, founder of Zion City and first apostle of the Christian Catholic church, prepared his own funeral sermon, but when he was buried at Mount Hope cemetery, Zion City, his last message was not read to his followers.

Leaders of the religious community founded by Dowie decided that the sermon would still further estrange the factions into which the believers in Dowieism are divided. The watchword of the faith is "Peace be with thee," and Dowie's message from the grave was not of a character to make his salvation general. In place of the posthumous sermon Judge Barnes, a lifelong friend of Dowie and an over-seer of the church, preached a simple sermon in which he extolled the dead man.

Although the sermon prepared by Dowie was not used in the funeral rites, it was given out for publication. The document makes it plain that Dowie did not forgive his enemies before he died, as he lashes those who ousted him from control as "dogs of hell," saying:

"I shall return, and with ruthless hand shall I exterminate the vipers and the dogs of hell that now hold the high places in the city of Zion. They dreamed, and in the grossness of their dreams they thought they had prevailed over the first apostle. And now, priests and elders of Zion, I shall return to strike ye down. I shall return in another form, brighter and more beautiful and ten thousand times more terrible, to cut ye off in the midst of your sin, and to win back Zion for the truth and for them that held to the word and did no evil."

There was a small sized panic during the funeral ceremonies because of the announcement that another of Dowie's followers was dying. In the past week three of his lieutenants who held similar positions under Dowie have died suddenly, and when it was said that a fourth was likely to die before morning several of the mourners ran from the tabernacle shouting that Zion was accused by God.

Greene Favored Bingham's Bill.
NEW YORK, March 15.—Police Commissioner Bingham gave out correspondence with former Commissioner Francis V. Greene in connection with the so-called Bingham inspectors' bill in the state legislature. In a letter to General Bingham former Commissioner Greene says, "I am satisfied that such a measure as you propose is essential to the maintenance of proper discipline and responsibility in the police department."

Canal Not to Pass Through Rome.
ALBANY, N. Y., March 15.—The plan to have the barge canal pass through the city of Rome was set aside, and State Engineer Skene's plan to construct the waterway south of the city was adopted at a meeting of the canal board. It is estimated that this change will save the state $88,000 in the cost of the work and probably $1,700,000 in claims for damages.

Princeton Gets $75,000 in Gifts.
PRINCETON, N. J., March 15.—At the semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Princeton university held here gifts amounting to over $75,000 were announced. Among the donations was $10,000 from Morris K. Jesup of New York to increase the endowment of the Morris K. Jesup fund.

Aged Man Took Strachan.
CHERSTER, Pa., March 15.—Richard F. Fleckner, aged seventy-two years, committed suicide at his home in this city by taking strychnine. He was formerly a member of the city council.
