Sinclair Colony May Disband.
ENLEWOOD, N. J., March 19.—Tents will be used as the homes of the members of Upton Sinclair's colony in case the committee which has been chosen to consider rebuilding Helicon hall decides that it is best to rear a new structure on the ruins of the one destroyed by fire. It was proposed at the meeting of the committee that the colony split into separate camps and live outdoors in tents during the rebuilding. If the committee decides not to build again the colony will disband.

Folk Buy Poolrooms and Tickets.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 19.—Governor Folk has signed the bill passed by the last legislature making it a felony to operate a bucket shop in Missouri. The penalty clause also includes any telegraph or telephone company which furnishes information to a bucket shop. The governor also signed a bill amending the pool selling law so as to make telegraph and telephone instruments devices for registering bets on horse races.

Waverly—Waverly Camp No. 88 S. of V. entertained the auxiliary last evening. The entertainment consisted of singing and instrumental music. A number of speeches, including one by Fred Appleget were delivered. William Harris and Mrs. John Morgan gave recitations. At the conclusion of the entertainment a banquet was served. The spread was a most excellent one. In all the evening was a most enjoyable one, and the Sons of Veterans proved themselves royal entertainers.

Election in Progress.

Waverly—There seems to be considerable doubt in the minds of many Waverly citizens today as to just who will carry the municipal election. Despite the inclement weather the voters are getting out in goodly numbers, and at noon today there had been 230 ballots cast. This, when it is known that the polls did not open until 9 o'clock is a very good showing. Most people wait until the afternoon to vote, and it now seems likely that the total will be very large.

Elected Officers.

Waverly—The meeting of Hope Legion No. 45 N. P. L. was well attended last evening, over 100 members being present. The officers for the ensuing year were elected. ### ROSABELE LESLIE

REPertoire COMPANY.

Gave a Most Acceptable Performance at the Loomis Last Night.

The Rosabele Leslie repertoire company opened a week's engagement at the Loomis last night to a crowded house, presenting "When London Sleeps," a four-act melodrama in a most acceptable manner. The company is large and strong, carries a fine line of special scenery for each performance, and it will no doubt draw big houses during the remainder of the engagement. Miss Leslie, who heads the company, has never been seen here before, but she bids fair to become a popular priced favorite. She is talented young woman, and having the support of a capable company, will give to the patrons of the Loomis satisfactory performances. Tonight "The Gambler's Daughter," a high class melodrama in four acts, is the bill. The specialty numbers are new and clever, and add greatly to the entertainment.

Fatally Injured.

A foreigner supposed to be John Hostall, of Edwardsville, was struck by an engine at the Lehigh Valley round house in Wilkes-Barre last evening, and was fatally injured. The man came to the round house and asked permission to dry his clothes, saying that he had come from Nanticoke and was bound for Scranton. Hostall was passing out through the arch of the round house, when he was struck by an engine that was backing into the house. It was necessary to raise the engine with a jack in order to free the man's leg. He remained conscious throughout, the ordeal and made no sign of suffering after the first outcry as the engine struck him. He was taken to the Wilkes-Barre City hospital in a dying condition.

DILLON AND KELLEY

BOTH PLEAD GUILTY.

Two Thieves Sentenced to Pay $10 Fine, Costs of Prosecution and 90 Days in Jail.

William Kelley, who was arrested in Sayre several weeks ago, on a charge of having stolen a traveling bag from A. J. Grant, a drummer for a Binghamton firm, pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Fanning and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of thirty days. Kelley is one of the slickest specimens of the tramp crook that has visited Sayre in a long time. Before he was committed to the jail at Towanda his mug was photographed as it was believed that he is wanted in other places.

Edward Dillon, another smooth gentleman, also pleaded guilty to larceny of brass from the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. He received the same dose as did Kelley. Dillon was arrested on the same day that Kelley was taken in custody. He was caught with a bag full of brass and when D. J. Kendig, the Lehigh Valley station agent approached him, Dillon threw the bag of brass away. He had previously tried to sell the brass to second hand dealer.

Train the Youth.

Many parents think it a deep rooted mystery that despite the good advice given their boys they grow up to be reckless dare devil young men, who possess no fear or sense of harm. If these boys were taught from infancy that home is the proper place after dark instead of prowling around the streets annoying the people much of the mystery would be explained. Young men would grow up to be more moral and intelligent and would be a credit to their parents. The twig is easily bent, but if allowed to develop is hard to get in the desired shape.

Always Have Kind Word.

Always have a kind word if possible, because kind words soften the soul and win friends. Angry words add to the flame of wrath and make it blaze more fiercely. People are frozen by cold words and scorched by hotness. Bitter words increase our bitterness, while wraathful words make us more wraathful. Supplant vain, spiteful, profane and boastful words with kind words which always make a beautiful impression, besides soothing and comforting their hearers. It pays to be kind.

He was a trackhand and it is believed that he was run down by one of the fast night trains. Two brothers, Patrick Boyle of Peckville, and Hugh Boyle of Freeland, survive him.

Commission in Lunacy Appointed.

Judge Fanning has appointed H. F. Johnson, Esq., Dr. S. W. Badger and Lee S. Stacy, a committee to examine and inquire into the sanity of Grace Lee of Litchfield.

Only one of the 1,005 bills which have been introduced in the Pennsylvania legislature since the opening of the present session on Jan. 1 has been passed finally by both bodies and been signed by Governor Stuart. This bill authorizes county commissioners to erect new bridges in place of those deemed unsafe and was introduced in the House at the organization and was approved by the governor last Friday.

This from an exchange: Don't ask the editor to publish a list of wedding gifts. Don't add to the terrors of death by tacking stanzas of mere doggerel to an obituary notice. Don't lug an old second-hand clipping over a column long on some threadbare topic and tell the editor "the readers would like to see it," and that is something to fill up with. Take him a ton of beef or a pretzel, it fills up quicker and is more speed producing.

Nathaniel Wagner, a young man of Reading refused to pay a fare of five cents demanded of him for riding on a passenger train of the Reading railroad from the main depot to the Franklin street station, in that city, and also neglected to show a trip pass that he had, being an employe of the company. The conductor had him arrested for illegal car riding and it cost him $4.39.
