THAW HAS PARANOIA

Dr. MacDonald Calls White's Slayer Incurably Insane.

JEROME'S PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Expert Swears That Accused Mad Taint of Insanity and Epilepsy in His Blood and is Now a Crazy Man.

NEW YORK, March 22.—District Attorney Jerome when court opened presented to Justice Fitzgerald eight affidavits in support of the suggestion he had made in the case of Harry K. Thaw that the defendant is now in such a state of lunacy or insanity as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings against him or making his defense.

Mr. Jerome in presenting many affidavits called particular attention to one signed by Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, who after reciting what he has witnessed in court, his observations of Thaw immediately after the tragedy and what he has learned as to epilepsy and insanity in various branches of the Thaw family declares that he is firmly convinced that Thaw is suffering from paranoia and that, while he knew enough to realize the nature and quality of his act when he shot and killed Stanford White, he is now and for some time past has been incapable of understanding the proceedings against him.

The court was in session for less than an hour, Delphin Delmas, for the defense, stating that their answer to the district attorney's proposition was not ready. Justice Fitzgerald allowed both sides until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to file such affidavits as they desire with the clerk of the court. There will be no further hearing in the matter of the appointment of a lunacy commission unless Justice Fitzgerald so directs after considering such affidavits and exhibits as are to be offered. Neither the jury nor Thaw was in court, the jury having been excused. On Monday Justice Fitzgerald is expected to be ready to announce his decision as to a lunacy commission for Thaw.

SIEGEL HOME LOOTED.

Thieves With Motor Boat Carry Away Silver and Paintings.

MAMARONECK, N. Y., March 22.—The robbery of the summer home of Henry Siegel, a prominent New York merchant, some time during the night has provided a mystery which the police were unable to solve.

Seven paintings valued at thousands of dollars, bric-a-brac collected at much cost in Europe and considerable silver were stolen. The value of the articles taken was not estimated by members of the family, but in some quarters it was said that it would reach well over $50,000.

Entrance was gained through a front window. The house was literally ransacked, drawers being searched, cupboards opened, rings taken, solid silver parolined, while plated matter was bent and thrown aside and paintings cut from their frames.

A curious feature of the case is that the thieves went to a bathroom and secured a key to the dining room, where the house keys were kept.

The Siegel home is on Long Island sound, and it is believed the robbers used a motor boat to approach the premises and carry away the loot.

Henry Siegel at Boston said: "I was notified that Driftwood had been broken into by burglars. Several paintings which I purchased from the collections of the late Cyrus W. Field and the late Chief Justice Chase were taken, and a quantity of bric-a-brac purchased in all parts of the world is missing. To me they were invaluable. The bric-a-brac cannot be duplicated. The only persons at Driftwood at this season are my gardener and his assistant."

The most valuable of the paintings stolen was "Dancing Cupids" by a famous artist, which is valued at $6,000. Four other paintings are said to have been valued at $5,000 each.

Thieves Got $18,000 in Jewels. ORANGE, N. J., March 22.—Eighteen thousand dollars' worth of jewelry was stolen from the home of Charles Morgan, son of the founder of the Morgan steamship lines, at his home here. Mrs. Morgan found a drawer in her dressing table disturbed, and investigation showed that her jewel bag was missing. It contained a diamond bracelet valued at $4,000, a necklace at $2,000 and many pieces of jewelry of lesser worth.

REJECT THE MONUMENT. HOOVER FALLS Cemetery Authorities Decline to Admit Memorial.

BARRE, Vt., March 22.—The proposal to erect a monument in the cemetery at Hoover Falls, N. Y., over the grave of Mary Rogers, who was executed for the murder of her husband near Bennington, received a setback here when the firm which has the order for erecting the monument received a letter from Rev. E. A. McCrator, the head of the Augustinian order at Hoover Falls, which has charge of the cemetery.

The monument, which was contracted for some time ago by persons whose names have not been disclosed, was to have cost $800.

The letter from Father McCrator declared explicitly that the monument will not be received at the cemetery and added, "You may notify any one interested that no stone of any kind will mark the grave of Mary Rogers while her body is in our cemetery."

Eugene Sullivan, head of the firm which is building the monument, declined to say from what source the order was received.

Senator Burton Freed From Jail. ST. LOUIS, March 22.—Former United States Senator Joseph R. Burton of Kansas, who has been serving six months imprisonment at Ironton, Mo., was released this morning. He was convicted of having appeared before the postoffice department in behalf of the Riato Grain and Securities company of St. Louis while a member of the United States senate and of having received compensation for so doing. He stated over the long distance telephone that he expects to come to St. Louis today, stop a few hours and then proceed to Abilene, Kan., where he will make a public statement tomorrow night. He promises exposures.

Mrs. F. M. Lamson Shot Here. BOSTON, March 22.—Mrs. Fred M. Lamson, the wife of the assistant cashier of the Temple Place branch of the Old Colony Trust company of this city, committed suicide here by shooting in the women's lavatory in Young's hotel. Mrs. Lamson left a private sanitarium on Wednesday, where she has been under treatment for a nervous disease for the past four years. Her body was found by a maid. Mrs. Lamson was thirty five years old.

Kaplanes Was Tired of Living. WORCESTER, Mass., March 22.—John Kaplanes, twenty seven years old, committed suicide by shooting here because he was tired of living and imagined some trouble with his heart was incurable. He came here from Salt Lake City six weeks ago. A note that he left said: "Don't let the doctors operate on me. I killed myself with the pistol."

Odell Calls on Hughes. ALBANY, N. Y., March 22.—Ex-Governor B. B. Odell, Jr., who was present at the dinner of the Legislative Correspondents' association last night, called on Governor Hughes. Later Governor Hughes said the call was of a personal nature.

Vincennes Novelty Plant Aband. VINCENNES, Ind., March 22.—The Vincennes Novelty Manufacturing company's plant was damaged $75,000 by fire.

POKE FUN AT GOVERNOR'S WHISKERS

Fake Letter From Roosevelt Nominates Him For Vice President. Big Lemon Sent by William H. Hearst.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 22.—Newspaper men, politicians and other well known men from all over the state were present last night at the annual banquet of the Legislative Correspondents' association, which was held at the Ten Eyck. Louis J. Lang, president of the association, acted as toastmaster.

Governor Hughes was the guest of honor and made a speech, as did a number of other state officers and well known men. In accordance with the time honored custom of the association the speeches were not reported. Clever "stunts," good humored hits upon prominent politicians and timely parodies on popular songs comprised the programme, which began with the serving of the first course.

The first trouble to arise was a disturbance made by the chief clerk of the hotel, who alleged that the gathering was a week ahead of the scheduled date, the evening being engaged by the Women's Christian Temperance union. He was finally induced to adjust the matter upon receipt of 13,000,000,000 "stolen trading stamps" found in a waste basket in the office of State Comptroller Glynn.

The main feature of the evening was a skit entitled "The Revolt of the Senate," in which six members of the association, representing well known senators, conspired to "go downstairs and tell the governor who is running the state." Upon hearing the door of the "executive chamber" they reflected upon various legislation and patronage which they had in the governor's hands and finally decided to go in and tell him "what a good fellow he is and assure him of our undying loyalty."

A letter was read purporting to come from President Roosevelt to Governor Hughes, in the course of which the distinguished writer after assuring the governor "how foreign to my nature it is to interfere in what does not concern me" is supposed to take him to task for attracting so much attention outside of his own state. "Fairbanks says," the letter proceeds, "that the radio-activity from your whiskers is spoiling the ice crop on the banks of the Wabash." The concluding paragraph of the letter says: "Charlie, if this thing keeps up I see how it will all end. If you are not more careful they will nominate you—yes, Charlie, they will nominate you—for vice president."

State Engineer Skene was alleged to report that the delay in finishing the large canal was due to his predecessor having "hidden the shovel" and of the conspiracy of the hardware trust to prevent his getting another.

A feature of the evening was the presentation to Governor Hughes of an immense lemon alleged to have been sent by W. R. Hearst, with the information that he himself had received it "from Charles Murphy and others on election day." The messenger said Mr. Hearst had on hand more lemons than he needed.

Penrose Testified in Own Defense. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 22.—Major C. W. Penrose, the accused in the court martial at Fort Sam Houston, went on the stand and told his story of the Brownsville trouble. He testified to the lack of ill will between the soldiers and citizens. The feeling on both sides was good up to the time of the trouble. The witness told of the happenings on the night of the shooting and of the steps taken by himself to prevent the clash. He said he thought the firing was undoubtedly done with high power rifles. His story made a strong impression. Major C. J. Clark testified to the general good behavior of the negro battalion just before the discharge.

Governor Crawford Denies Land Grant. HURON, S. D., March 22.—Governor C. E. Crawford of South Dakota has issued a statement in regard to the charges made by Secretary of the Interior Garfield alleging fraud on his part in proving up on public lands in South Dakota. He says in part: "I made a homestead filing upon a quarter section of land five or six years ago in good faith and without fraudulent intent. I afterward abandoned the filing because I concluded the land was not valuable."

Kelsey Hearing Opens. ALBANY, N. Y., March 22.—Superintendent Kelsey of the state insurance department was examined by his counsel, former Judge Hatch, before the senate judiciary committee, which has had under consideration the message and recommendation of Governor Hughes for the removal of Mr. Kelsey. The examination was of a preliminary character.

Admiral Tillye Laid to Rest. ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 22.—The remains of Rear Admiral B. H. Tillye, who died at League Island, were interred in the Naval cemetery at the academy here with full military honors. The body bearers were eight sea men from the United States steamer Hartford.

Miram Goff a Suicide at Catskill. CATSKILL, N. Y., March 22.—Hiram Goff, aged fifty-eight, committed suicide in a hotel here last night by drinking poison. Despondency is assigned as the cause. At one time he conducted the Jefferson hotel here.

AMERICA STEPS IN

Bluejackets and Marines Are Landed in Honduras.

TO PROTECT OUR PEOPLE AND TRADE

United States and Mexico May Intervene to Stop Petty War Which Endangers People of Both Countries Now in War Zone.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Blue jackets and marines have been landed from the United States gunboat Marietta at Trujillo and Ceiba and probably at Puerto Cortes, Honduras, in order to protect American interests in those ports.

As yet no word has been received as to whether forces have been landed at Central American ports on the Pacific coast side, but undoubtedly this step will be taken if American interests are considered in danger.

The navy department feels that the action taken by Commander Fullam brings the situation completely in hand so far as the safeguarding of trade interests is concerned. In addition to the protection given to Americans it is felt that the action of this government will relieve foreign governments of the necessity of taking any steps toward making a naval demonstration.

The landing of bluejackets and marines from the Marietta of both shores of the Central American republics with United States gunboats before trading vessels had been molested in any manner or foreign interests jeopardized is regarded here as a diplomatic move that will prevent any international complications growing out of the policy of the United States not to permit European demonstrations in Central American or South American waters.

Commander Fullam landed a force of marines from the Marietta at Trujillo and bluejackets at Ceiba and then continued his course to Puerto Cortes. The Nicaraguan commander in charge of the invading force at the Honduran port, Trujillo, gave Commander Fullam his promise that American interests and all foreign interests there would be protected and that trading vessels would be permitted to enter and leave the port without molestation, the same as before the capture of the port by the Nicaraguan navy.

Joint intervention by Mexico and the United States in the war which threatens to involve all Central America is now regarded as probable.

"Dead as a Herring." Until the day of aquariums it was a somewhat difficult matter to observe a live herring. It is a fish that dies instantly on being taken from its native element. Among fishermen first across the expression, "Dead as a herring,"—The Sunday Magazine.

Various Customs of Races. In ancient Rome men only grew beards as a sign of mourning. In Egypt all went clean shaven; but in Assyria only the slaves and peasants shaved.

Always Look on the Bright Side. PUTNAM, Conn., March 22.—Ezra Hammond is dead at his home in West Woodstock, aged 101 years. He was the second oldest man in the state and claimed his age was due to always looking on the bright side of life.

TRIBUTES TO ALDRICH.

W. Dean Howells Called Him "A Foot the World Cannot Replace."

BOSTON, March 22.—Tributes to the memory of the late Thomas Bailey Aldrich from well known writers which have been received at the Aldrich home in the form of letters and telegrams are made public here.

Talbot B. Aldrich, son of the poet, in giving out these tributes made a statement which shows that the famous author approached death with his mind filled with poetical thoughts. Mr. Aldrich said:

"My father died a poet. Only a little while before the end he said, 'I regard death as nothing but the passing of the shadow on the fower.'"

"His last words as he passed away, holding our hands, were: 'In spite of all I am going to sleep. Put out the lights.'"

William Dean Howells in a letter wrote the following:

"We who knew him have lost a friend such as the whole world cannot replace."

Romanian Peasants Slain by Troops. BUCHAREST, March 22.—A collision occurred at Jassy, near here, between troops and 400 peasants who were trying to invade that town. Major Colari was wounded, two peasants were killed and many were wounded. The peasants succeeded in breaking the military cordon and entered the town, where they looted several residences.

A number of neighboring villages were plundered. Four peasants were killed and two were wounded at Lesport in an attempt to seize the arms at the gendarmes' barracks.

Putnam Woman Burned to Death. PUTNAM, Conn., March 22.—Mrs. Albert L. Arnold was so badly burned at her home here that she died. She was raking up rubbish in her back yard and had kindled two bonfires to burn it. Her garments caught fire and before she could arrive her clothes had been burned from her and she was a mass of blisters and charred flesh from head to foot. She was forty-eight years old and leaves a husband and three daughters.

Russian Court Martial Acquits Him. ST. PETERSBURG, March 22.—The student Yanovitzky has been tried by court martial and acquitted of the charge against him. The court was presided over by Major General Birsbert. All the universities of Russia interceded in behalf of Yanovitzky, and his acquittal is hailed widely as a triumph for public sentiment. He was accused of firing on the police during a raid
