FRIDAY, JULY 12th 1889. ENTURED AT POST-OFFICE. LAPORTH PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. RETTENBURY, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, DUSHORE, PA.

The action of the Ohio Republi' can Convention on the subject of pensions arouses considerable criticism among Democrats. It declared in favor of the passage by the next Congress of a general pension bill for honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Union during the late war. Such a law is certain to come. It is only a question of time. The survivors of every war in which the United States took part the Associated Press, which made and wells were concerned. have been pensioned, not from the the run of 105 miles in three hours could be done without imposing an excitement at the ring side as Bud extraordinary burden upon the Renaud, Mike Donovan and Johnny Government. Perhaps this experiment has discovered a way to avoid very much of the troubles heretofore experienced on account of arresting Indian criminals. If the Indians sense their responsibility they may be equal to it.

The recent decision of the Sa prome Court with reference to the licensing of brewers and wholesale dealers will secure licenses to one hundred and twenty-five persons and companies in Allegheny County that were refused license by Judge White. In Pittsburg the number of licenses out the State hundreds of persons now apply as wholesalers.
