THE GETTSBURG ENCAMPMENT.

Many Hundreds of Applicants for Free Transportation.

HARRISBURG, August 22.—The work incident to the furnishing of transportation to Gettysburg on Pennsylvania monument day to soldiers who participated in the three days' fight has thus far required the services of Colonel D. S. Keller, of Bellefonte, and three clerks for several weeks, and an additional force was pressed into service to-day owing to the large number of applications received for free transportation under the act appropriating $50,000. Every mail brings hundreds of applications and up to this time about 4,000 have been recorded. In a few days the business will be so shaped as to enable a proper application to be disposed of twenty-four hours after its receipt. Blank applications for transportation, prepared by the Gettysburg Commission having charge of the deicatory ceremonies, have been furnished to secretaries of the several regiments that participated in the battle and by them distributed among the veterans. Many blank applications have also been sent to individuals on request by the department here. Eleven hundred applications were received yesterday, besides a large number of miscellaneous letters. Ten thousand is a conservative estimate of the number of applications that will be received before Pennsylvania Day.

WITHOUT FOOD FOR 60 DAYS

The Indianapolis Faster Pays the Penalty for His Foolhardy Feat—

Robert Marvel died at Indianapolis Tuesday morning. It was sixty-seven days ago that he entered upon his fast, the longest and most wonderful of which there is any record. He was 85 years old and exceptionally vigorous and healthful, and it was pride in his strength that had caused him for the last few years to assume the care of cultivating a garden. He returned from his work on June 9 almost helpless from a strange attack and stood before the door of his home unable to enter when he was found by members of his family. The doctors, after examining him, said that he was paralyzed, and for a period of five days he was helpless. Then he gradually began to recover the use of his hands, and at the end of nine days he arose from his bed. During the time, however, he had taken neither water nor food. When an effort was made to force him to take nourishment he resisted four men with such force that they were compelled to abandon the attempt. On the ninth day of his abstinence he voluntarily drank a small quantity of water and a day or two afterwards he took a few spoonfuls of milk. He would permit no one to touch him if he could prevent it. The laying of a hand upon him, no matter how gently, seemed to cause him excruciating pain. He could not talk and he seemed incapable of giving manifestations of any impression upon his mind. Not until three weeks ago did he become too weak to walk about his home, but until within the last three days he would occasionally gather sufficient strength to rise from his bed. He gradually failed, until from sheer exhaustion he expired. In the days of his fast his sleeping became longer and more frequent. 'In the sixty-seven days that have elapsed since the beginning of his strange attack,' said Dr. Hasty, 'Marvel has not taken into his body as much as a gallon of milk. His flesh has shriveled up, and there was really nothing of the man but skin and bones when he died. His back bone could be felt from in front as well as from behind. His condition was due, I think from degeneration of the arteries and paralysis of the organs of the throat, but the case is, so far as I have been able to learn without a parallel.'

EXPLOSION IN A MINE

Five Men Narrowly Escape Death Near Scranton.

SCRANTON, Aug. 22.—At an early hour this morning a cave-in occurred in No. 2 mine of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company at Olyphant, a few miles from here. Mine Superintendent A. B. Nicol, of this city, entered the mine in company with Inside Foreman John Jones and Richard Mason, Driver Boss Samuel Williams and Fire Boss John Lavin to investigate the extent of the fall. Their lamps ignited the gas that accumulated as a result of the fall and the men were hurled along the underground galleries and frightfully burned. The explosion occurred about a mile and a quarter from the foot of the shaft. The injured men walked the entire distance without light, having to grope their way to the foot, all the time suffering the most intense agony. When they arrived there they gave the engineer the signal to hoist. This was the first information the outside world had of the accident in the mine. It was about 9:30 when the gas was set off and the men were hoisted to the surface soon after ten o'clock. Mason, Jones and Williams were burned from the head down and Nicol on the head, neck and hands. The latter prevented his face from being scorched by covering it with his hat. Lavin's burns are on his hands and neck. P. W. Fadden, one of the driver bosses, and Enoch Thomas, one of the fire bosses, procured oil and alleviated as much as possible the sufferings of the burned men, after which the latter were taken home in ambulances. The only other employe who was working in the mine when the explosion occurred was William Day, who is a water boiler. He was employed, however, a long distance from the scene of the explosion and was not in danger. All the burned men with the exception of Nicol are residence of Olyphant and all are married except Williams. Mason was the only survivor out of five men who were burned in No. 2 five years ago and Lavin was caught by an explosion in the same mine about seven years ago.

There will be celebrated at Neshaunim, in Bucks county, on the 5th, of next month, an event which will serve to commemorate one of the most important occasions in the religious history of the United States—the founding of the Log College—the first institution in this country wherein young men were given an opportunity to study for the Presbyterian ministry. It is to be one of the largest, most imposing and notable gatherings that has ever occurred in this State, and will be graced by the presence of President and Mrs. Harrison,

Rev. Dr. Scott, the latter's father, and in fact, the whole Harrison family, from the top down to Baby McKee. The invitation which was sent to the President was most graciously accepted, and he signified his intention of being present unless some unforeseen accident happens. He is booked for a speech, and so are Postmaster General Wanamaker, Governor Beaver, Governor Green, of New Jersey; Rev. Dr. Scott, father-in-law of the President; Rev. Dr. Patton, President, and D. McCosh, ex-President of Princeton College.

SONESTOWN ITEMS

The E. V. Sunday school picnic from here to Tivoli, was a grand success, there being 139 tickets sold. All report a good time and plenty of tulip salve. Prof. Black is at hand to instruct our pretty fair maids, in the way all should go. Quite a good number are present for the first week. Thos. Mencer is erecting a fine and convenient shop for a shoe store, and will also use it for the Mfg. of boots and shoes. If we only had more such go ahead men as Mr. Mencer, our town would be second to none in the county for industries. We were sorry to hear that our former townsman Geo. Figgles buried their only baby on Sunday. Death caused by whooping cough and cloera infantum. Wm. Miller of Pennsville was home visiting his patents on Sunday. Frank Crossley and R. Karrs visited our place on Saturday evening, shaking hands with their many friends and talking a little about the election of sheriff. All candidates of course are sure of election. Wish they could all be elected. Our agent M. L. Keller has in his possession a set of false teeth found near the depot. Any person calling for them can get them by paying 25c. adv. They are a lower set. How did they get there? Oh my I am sick. Miss Bird of Forksville is stopping at J. Lorah's during Institute. Geo. Rea, the Sullivan county bridge contractor, is at work now on the Muncy Creek bridge near Boatmans, his boss. Architect Oscar Miller from South Fork, Pa. arrived here sately and is now hard at work laying out marks, for his carpenters. Hope his brave attempt may not prove futile. New goods just arrived at Lorah's. 12c. per gallon—Crockery. The proprietor of the Sonestown Iron Works has placed two new men in his shop. Business is booming and Geo. is the lad that knows how to handle it too. Mr. Robert Stormont was seen upon our streets on Tuesday, shaking hands with his many friends. They say Harry likes cake, and skip likes watermelon and what does Gus like? Why he don't like to be seen coming home mornings.

NIAGARA FALLS Aug. 25.—C. D. Graham, of Suspension Bridge, went through the whirlpool rapids in Niagara river this afternoon in a barrel shaped boat, and up to a late hour to-night he had not been heard from. It is feared that he has perished.

LATER—He was taken out of the water at Lewistown, pretty well bruised. When asked what would be his next move he replied: "Oh, I'll never let go till I go over the falls."
