AT JOHNSTOWN.

The force of State Employees Stop Work.

JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 30.—To-night the force of workmen for the State laid down their tools for good. In the morning they will be paid off and many of them not residents of the place will leave town. There have been about 1,000 men employed during the past week or two, and 200 teams. When these men leave town it is anticipated that the residents more than ever will feel their losses on account of their loneliness. A committee of three citizens went to Harrisburg last night to present the condition of things here in such light as to prevent the discontinuing of the work, but nothing favorable has been received from them.

The school children were out today in force, but where there were thirty-six rooms in operation last year there are only twenty-four now. Some of them are crowded a little, but the average to a room is not much greater than last year. Of these thirty-six teachers eight of them are gone. This is in Johnstown borough. In one portion of Millville borough, and in Woodvale borough, the loss is much greater.

Harry Bischoff, who has been here every day since the flood looking for the body of his sister, who was lost from the Day express, leaves for his home in St. Louis tonight, the body having been recovered a few days ago. Although a greater part of the State forces worked in the river to-day but little headway was made, and the work is left undone.

THE NEW STATES VOTE.

Returns of the Election Come in Slowly.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 1.—In the clear crispness of an October day the elections of North and South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, are casting their first votes for State officers and Congressmen. A full vote was assured when the sun set last night on the closing of as warm a campaign as any State ever had, and the reports thus far received indicate the active interests of the people in the birth of the new States.

Although there have been charges and counter charges of frauds preliminary to the election, all reports thus far received are to the effect that Statehood is being quietly accomplished. The close fight for the offices in Montana, and the bitter capital fight in South Dakota developed most of this talk of fraud, but it has not yet materialized at the polls.

NO FIGURES YET.

As yet there seems no reason to change the predictions made heretofore in these dispatches that the Republicans will carry North and South Dakota, and have the apparent advantage in Washington, while Montana seems inclined somewhat favorably to the Democracy.

Further than this it will not be possible to make a further statement as to the result until the votes have been counted. Changes in district lines, the arrival of new citizens since the last Territorial election and the consequent lack of data on which to base predictions makes the prophet business but a losing one. Still the last vote for delegate and the canvass by the two parties indicate the result above stated.

Washington's capital fight will be probably not settled until a later election, a majority vote being required, but each of the South Dakota capital competitors is confident of winning, although the contest seems to have narrowed down to Pierre and Huron, with Sioux Falls and Mitchell not far behind.

The State League of Republican Club met last week in Pittsburgh and passed resolutions endorsing President Harrison's administration and the platform of the last Republican National and State Conventions; pledging support to H. K. Boyer, Republican candidate for State Treasurer; calling upon the President and Congress to take such action, relative to the colored people of the south, as would secure the rights guaranteed to every citizen, without distinction of race, color or previous condition of servitude; denouncing the Democracy and expressing the belief that General Goff, the Republican gubernatorial candidate in West Virginia, had been fairly elected. The following officers were selected: President, Edwin S. Stuart, Phil.; Vice Presidents, A. S. Logan, Pittsburg; J. B. Rhen, Lancaster; Hon. J. F. Downing, Erie; recording secretary, R. H. Lindsay, Pittsburg; treasurer, Wm. Thornton, Philadelphia. Four representatives from each Congressional district were elected as delegates to the National Convention to be held at Nashville. The next meeting of the league will be held in Philadelphia.

HAMILTON VISITS EVA.

An Affection Meeting in Sheriff Johnson's Attic.

MAY'S LANDING, September 27.—Robert Ray Hamilton in company with a friend arrived here at 8:15 this evening, having driven from Pleasantville, twelve miles. They walked into the American Hotel, left their baggage and engaged rooms for the night, and immediately went to the residence of the Sheriff, in the attic of which Mrs. Hamilton has been incarcerated since the day after the stabbing of Nurse Donnelly in Atlantic City. They were met at the door by Mrs. Johnson and escorted to the second-story front room. Mrs. Johnson left them there and went to the room of Mrs. Hamilton and apprised her of her husband's presence. At the announcement Mrs. Hamilton became much agitated.

Upon his approach she hesitated a moment, and as she drew near with outstretched hands he clasped them, and he drew her gently toward him, placed one arm around her waist, her head fell forward on his shoulder, and there was one long, tender embrace, the presence of a third party in the room probably preventing any more violent demonstration, but the subdued and impressive manner of each betokened the depth of feeling in that one embrace.

There was evidently some very earnest conversation, as Mrs. Hamilton assumed the role of the caged beast and paced the floor rapidly, evidently laboring under a severe mental strain.

What the purport of his visit was and what will be the outcome of course can only be conjectured, but the fact remains that the frail but unfortunate Eva has by no means lost that power over him which has caused him so much suffering.

BRIDGE LETTING.—Notice is hereby given that the Commissioners of Sullivan county, will on the 12th, day of October, 1889, receive proposals on the premises at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day by open bids, for the building and furnishing necessary material for a wooden covered bridge across Muncy creek, near the residence of Geo. E. Ra, in Davidson township. Plans and specifications can be seen on the premises the day fixed for the letting. The Commissioners reserving the right to reject any or all bids if they deem it for the interest of the county to do so.
