Boyer 62,000.

Clean Sweep for the Old Flag.
Philadelphia 40,000

Complete returns from the State gives Henry K. Boyer a majority of at least 62,000, in the State. It is a grand triumph, and shows that the people of Pennsylvania favor Protection, Honesty and Free Schools. The same mail shows that the board of judges (a majority of whom were Democrats) rebuke the tremendous Democratic fraud in Montana and the State goes Republican, and makes a gain of two Senators. This is glory enough for one day. The four new States are all Republican and this means at least a quarter of a Century of wholesome Republi-

RIOT IN A CHURCH.

Conflict Between Catholics and Methodists.

TOPEKA, Oct. 31.—Adjutant General Roberts received a telegram today notifying him of a riot at Axtell Marshall county, and asking that a detachment of militia be sent at once to quell the disturbance. The Adjutant General at once ordered out Company G. of the Third Regiment, located at Marysville, and left on the first train for the scene of trouble. As yet only meagre particulars have been received. Axtell, a town of about 700 people is settled largely by Catholics.

On Wednesday a Methodist minister, named Johnson, from the Eastern part of the State, arrived at Axtell to hold a revival meeting. He had quite a large congregation in the evening, and in the audience were a number of Catholics. Soon after beginning his remarks, the minister began an attack upon the Catholic Church, and he became so abusive that one of the Catholics present called him a liar. He continued his remarks until the Catholics could stand it no longer.

Four of them rushed to the pulpit and threw him down. In a moment the pulpit was surrounded by an angry mob, and a general row ensued.

Although the Catholics were in the minority they were too much for the Methodists, succeeded in throwing the preacher and two others out of the house. The whole town was soon aroused. Four Catholics were arrested and put in the city prison. This so enraged the Catholic population that they organized this morning to assist the imprisoned men.

The town of St. Bridget, a few miles distant, is settled entirely by Catholics, and it is reported that the whole town is organizing to go to the rescue of the Axtell Catholics.

The Mayor says he is powerless to control them, and fears a conflict between the two elements. The Adjutant General will not reach the city until 9 o'clock this evening.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

A Decision at Pittsburg Affecting the Brooks Law.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—An important decision was rendered by the Supreme Court to-day in a liquor case affecting the Brooks law. Joseph Fleming, a druggist of this city, was convicted of selling liquor in Mercer County, a prohibitory district, and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and undergo an imprisonment for five months. A supercedas was obtained and an appeal taken. The goods were shipped Pittsburg by an express company, "C. O. D.," and Mr. Fleming's counsel claimed that the sale was made in Pittsburg and not in Mercer County, where the whole point of the case was involved. Justice Green in delivering the opinion, held that when the goods left Mr. Fleming's hands he had no more to do with them, and the sale was complete here. He discharged the prisoner. Judges Williams, McCollum and Mitchell filed a dissenting opinion, claiming that the sale was a clear violation of the law. That the goods were paid for in the prohibitory district.

A ROASTED HORSE.
Another Electric Wire Horror In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—An electric light current this morning roasted a horse to death, threw the driver to the street and knocked a police sergeant senseless. The deadly current was carried to its victims through a telephone wire. A pole carrying numberless wires stands on Fourth avenue near the corner of Twenty-eighth street. About 4 o'clock this morning one of the wires, a telephone line, fell to the street and formed a loop across the down track of the Fourth avenue railroad.

STEPS ON THE WIRE.

Soon after it fell Thomas Whalen driver of a Herald delivery wagon, came along. The horse stepped on the wire and instantly came to a halt and then sprang aside and fell. The jolt of the wagon threw Whalen to the ground and when he arose he received a shock which threw him prostrate into the gutter. Regaining his feet the driver undertook to raise his horse, but as soon as he touched the animal another shock passed through him. He then comprehended the cause and lay still. Citizens attracted to the scene noticed flashes of blue flame emitting from the prostrate animal. The flashes came from all parts of the horse's body and the smell of burning flesh was perceptible half a block away. Whalen was helped to his feet, but the horse was given a wide berth.

A BLUE FLAME.

One man ran to the Thirty-fifth street police station and reported the matter, and Sergeant Albert McDonald and Roundsman Thomas Cassidy hurried to the scene. They saw the horse still emitting sparks, and calling out the reserves a guard was established at points sufficiently far from the roasting animal to warn all wayfarers away from the fatal spot. Sergeant McDonald tried to find the fatal wire, and in making a turn around the wagon came in contact with it in the darkness. The wire struck him in the forehead and he fell to the pavement senseless, as though he had been shot. Roundsman Cassidy went to the rescue of his stricken comrade, and when he caught hold of the Sergeant's leg he received a shock which compelled him to release his hold. A second effort was more successful and soon after being carried to the sidewalk the Sergeant slowly recovered his senses. His head was covered with blood, and above his throat was the imprint of the wire, while beside it was a gash evidently occasioned by the fall. He was dazed and almost helpless, so that he was obliged to go home.

THE HORSE DRAGGED AWAY.
About 5 o'clock, up to which time the horse continued to roast slowly, it occurred to some one to send to the Manhattan Electric Light Company's shop in West Twenty-fifth street. Foreman Knight and two linemen visited the scene wearing rubber boots and gloves and found the deadly wire on the end of which the horse's body lay. They pulled it down from the pole and tassel was returned after the horse had been dragged off the track. A deep furrow was burned in the animal's back. Efforts made to find the point where the wire crossed the electric transmitter were of no avail.

MUD RUN ANNIVERSARY.

All Claims Against the Company Settled in Full.

Thursday last was a year since the sorrowful accident occurred on the Lehigh Valley railroad at Mud Run. Immediately after the accident the matter of settling claims arising therefrom was placed in the hands of P. J. Ferguson, Esq., of Shenandoah, as special adjusting agent for the company, and as a result of his excellent work. Thursday anniversary of the great horror sees all damages amicably adjusted and every claim paid in full, and without any suits at law. The record shows 62 deaths and 100 injured for which the company settled in full at a cost of about $250,000. Such was the good judgment and equitable work of Mr. Ferguson that the survivors and relatives have in mass meeting unanimously passed resolutions thanking him and the Lehigh company for their generous treatment in making all the repatriation they could for the sad misfortune. There were no pensions granted, every one being paid in full cash.

A Decision in the Silver Bow Contest.

HELENA, Oct. 31.—A decision was rendered in the Silver Bow contest this morning. The canvassing board was ordered to count the votes cast in the Tunnell precinct for Mr. Hatton. Judge Knowles, counsel for Hall, of the canvassing board, filed a notice of appeal, and asked a stay of proceedings until the case could be brought before the Supreme Court. Shortly after Knowles filed his notice of appeal, Irving, the Democratic member of the board, filed an affidavit setting forth that he is satisfied with the appeal of the case. Hall the Republican member says he is not satisfied with the Court's decision and wants the appeal. Jack, the third member, is out of the Territory. The question before the Court is whether a minority of the Board has a right to appeal, which his colleague, representing the same vote, refused to do.

The State canvassing board met to-day and commenced the canvass of the votes. All returns are in, including those of Silver Bow, which arrived this afternoon. Acting on the decision of the Court the County Clerk included in the returns the votes cast at the Tunnell precinct.

According to an opinion of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, handed down at Pittsburg on Tuesday, Judges of License Courts can refuse the application of a brewer for license without giving any reason for his act. This settles what has been a vexed question and affirms the arbitrary authority of the judiciary in the premises, and whilst the decision will please many persons it will give great offense to others.

There is one thing about death, it never complains that it don't know how to take some people.
