

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Did you give thanks. Court next Monday. It froze solid on Tuesday night.

We shall soon have a week vacation. Local items in this section are scarce, this week.

Sunday the 1st day of December, was a beautiful day.

Nine more days and the time for legally hunting deer expires.

A. M. Mints of Eaglesmere, was transacting business in town, on Monday.

The earth in this vicinity, was covered with the beautiful, on Wednesday morning.

Miss Ida Keeler of LaPorte, is visiting her sister Miss Mollie Keeler of Philadelphia.

Atty. E. P. Ingham, of Philadelphia will not be in attendance at this term of court.

The Review and Gazette are still in war. A stove pipe hat seems to be the bull's eye.

While attending Court call and examine the stock of holiday goods at Meylert & Co's store.

W. B. Jennings, J. P. of Lopez, was transacting business at the county seat, on Monday.

Mrs. James Walsh of LaPorte, and her three little children, are all ill with the whooping cough.

Lake Mokoma is frozen over and a number of the young people enjoyed a skate on Wednesday.

Who of our hunters will be the first to surprise the neighborhood by killing a deer? We guess, A. B.

The W. C. T. U., of LaPorte will meet at the house of Mrs. Wm. C. Mason, Friday December the 6th, at 3 p. m.

WILL EXCHANGE—A two seated platform wagon for sucking colt. For further information call at the REPUBLICAN office.

Prof. F. W. Meylert principal of the Forksville graded school, spent the latter part of last week visiting friends in LaPorte.

Several of our young gentlemen attended the Thanksgiving ball at Dushore on Thursday evening last. They report a good time.

Edward Nolan of LaPorte twp., was granted a pension last week of four dollars per month with arrearage amounting to $210.

A shooting match for turkeys will take place at LaPorte, during the week of Christmas. The date of which will be given later.

In the event of the railroad being built to this place we shall enlarge our paper, otherwise the business of the town will not warrant the investment.

Persons desiring a place to stop, during court week, can be entertained by Mr. Wm. Meylert at reasonable rates. Call at the store of Meylert & Co.

Thos. B. Reed of Maine, was chosen speaker of the Fifty-first Congress on Monday last. The oath of office was administered by Judge Kelly, of Pennsylvania.

Newell of the Review issued a seven column paper last week. It appeared very neat and attractive. Newell will continue the enlargement until the holiday season closes.

The town or station along the W. & N. B., called Pennsville was christened "Pennsdale" on the 1st of Dec., to avoid errors from station called Pennsville, in Fayette county Pa.

Morris J. Lauer of LaPorte, who has been following his trade as molder in the city of Chicago, for the past year, returned home on Monday, where he will spend the holiday season.

Dr. Robert S. Sinington associate Judge of Montour county, died very suddenly of rheumatism about the heart on Saturday morning Nov. 23d. He arose early on the morning above mentioned dressed himself and descended to his study where he was found shortly afterwards dead. The Governor will fill the vacancy by appointment. There are many applicants in the field.

Our night mail by the way of the W. & N. B. has been a complete failure for the past ten days. What is the cause?

"Nothing new" is what the reporter is told when he enquires for news, and yet the readers expect lots of news when nothing is happening.

Russel Karns of LaPorte, visited Williamsport on Saturday and was treated for rheumatism by Dr. Hunt of that city. The treatment proved beneficial to Mr. Karns.

J. H. Thomas of LaPorte, gave a shooting match for turkeys on Thursday Nov. 28. Five turkeys were shot for. The winners were: Atty. E. M. Dunham 2; Chas. Mead 1; W. M. Cheney 2.

It is reported that the Jennings Bros. of Lopez have purchased a two-thirds interest in the kindling wood factory at Lopez. The Jennings Bros. are exceedingly good business men and are reaping a grand harvest financially.

Col. John Schieski, of Missouri delivered a good templars address in the M. E. church at this place on Saturday evening. His object was to organize a lodge of Good Templars but failed to get the desired number of signers. His lecture was pronounced excellent by all present.

The law extending the term of constables from one to three years applies to such constables as are elected at the coming February election and not to those elected a year ago. Assessors elected last February will hold office three years.

With the opening of the shooting season the death roll has begun to lengthen. The number of men and boys who have either maimed or killed themselves since the beginning of the present open season is appalling. It was to have been expected. Gunning and accidents are inseparable.

It is reported according to the Wilkes-Barre Record that the pals of Red Nosed Mike have been convicted and sentenced in the Italian courts, one to life imprisonment, and the other to twenty years. It is not known positively that this report is true, but District Attorney Dart of Luzerne county, forwarded to the Italian authorities all the evidence at his disposal, and it is probable that they have been convicted as above.

Already combinations are being formed for the Presidential campaign of 1892. Grover Cleveland has approached Governor-elect Campbell of Ohio to have him accept the nomination for Vice-President, and he is willing. It is said Governor Hill of New York, is very angry with Cleveland for doing so. "Cleveland and Campbell" ought to make a harmonious ticket if there is anything in a name.

Gus Smith of Forksville, is a liberal hearted man. We were told on Wednesday that he has donated more clean cash to the overseers of the poor of Forksville than any other person residing therein, for the year 1889. He made them a present of a small wager at their request, shortly after the recent election. Guss will no doubt use this as an electioneering scheme next Fall. Nothing like assisting the poor with a sincere heart.

Lopez, the new lumber city in Sullivan county, is commanding a great deal of newspaper comment just now, and many persons are making big investments in lumber and other trades. Three years ago where the town now stands it was a howling wilderness, now it contains over 1000 inhabitants and has bright prospects for future prosperity. The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is about erecting a round house there.—Muncy Luminary.

Powderly Will Not be Arrested.

The case of Edward Callaghan against T. V. Powderly, J. R. Byrne and Peter Wise, all prominent Knights of Labor, for conspiracy, came up before Justice Merritt at Scottsdale, Pa., on Nov. 30th. After hearing Callaghan's evidence Justice Merritt decided that it was not sufficient to hold the defendants for court and the case was dismissed: There will be no necessity now for the arrest of Mr. Powderly.

The horse owned by J. Harvey King of LaPorte twp., which we recently mentioned had been kicked by Mr. Pardoe's horse of Elkland and its leg broken, was killed by Mr. King last week. The horse while in the act of laying down broke the fractured limb so that it hung loose on its body proving it worthless. The horse was a valuable beast and Mr. King feels the loss very much.

A short time ago the W. C. T. U., organization of Tuukhannock resolved to arrest barbers of said place who followed their profession on Sunday. They made one arrest last week and the barber pled guilty. The Democrat in commenting on the same says: "If the W. C. T. U., would look after and suppress other evils in our borough more injurious to the morals of the place they would confer a much greater benefit upon the community. The bottling of lager beer and the sale of intoxicating liquors on the Sabbath, as well as gambling, are more serious obstacles in the way of morality and good citizenship than the shaving of dead men, or even live men, on Sunday."

A prominent temperance gentleman in town gives it as his opinion that the proper way to handle the liquor question would be as follows: "Let the United States Government dissolve partnership with the liquor business by repealing the internal revenue laws. Then give every man the right to manufacture and sell liquor that wants to. But if a man is found drunk on the streets, then imprison him until he tells who sold him liquor to make him intoxicated. Then, he says, there should be a law passed making a heavy fine and imprisonment for the person or persons selling any one enough liquor to make them intoxicated. In this way the gentleman says he feels satisfied that not many drunken men would be seen on the streets as the liquor sellers would be very careful not to sell a person enough liquor to put any one under its influence.—Ee.

STRAY BULL.—A bull came to my place in June last, color light red, white on breast and hips also end of tail white. The owner is requested to call and prove property pay costs and remove the same, otherwise it will be sold according to law. G. W. BIGGEL. Shrewsbury twp., Nov. 19, 1889.

Under a recent law of this Commonwealth, passed to prevent a deterioration of stock by animals running at large, it was enacted that no stallion, bull, ram, jack or boar shall be permitted to run at large on the public highway of the State. Any person who finds such animals running at large may impound them, advertise them within a period of ten days in one weekly newspaper for two weeks, and if the animal is not redeemed within twenty days after such public notice and all damages and costs paid, besides one dollar to the impounder, it shall be sold at public sale and the amount realized, less costs and charges, be paid to the treasurer of the school district where the animal was taken up.

The young folks of LaPorte, gave a party in the Hall on Thursday evening Nov. 28th. The party was represented by a goodly number of our young people who were enjoying a good time when their fun at about 11 p. m. was somewhat interfered with by the presence of several intruders who had to some extent been indulging in "fire water." The new comers seated themselves at the west end of the Hall and were only present a short time when they became very restless and were exceedingly anxious to show their strength. The manager of the Hall requested them to keep quiet but they refused, when they were picked up body and britches and removed from the dancing department to the entrance way like a flash of lightning. Here a free-for-all combat was indulged in and several black eyes were the result. Such work is a disgrace to our town and should not be tolerated by the proper officials. People who in such a state crowd themselves into private circles should be taught to act the part of a gentleman or be removed by the proper officials to the place provided by the county.

The terrible condition of our roads every fall and spring causing great inconvenience and in many cases entire cessation of travel and much loss should arouse the people into devising and procuring some method of road making that will at least give some return for the money expended in this direction. The present systems of road working and road taxing are alike, defective and expensive, for where roads are made by digging useless ditches and throwing the surplus dirt into the centre of the road, where it makes when rain comes an unfathomable mass of mud and in dry weather a cloud of choking dust, both of which are to say the least inconvenient, disagreeable and destructive to horse, wagon and harness, your road is wretched and your money wasted. Good roads can be and should be had, especially in this country which abounds in good material for making roads. There is only one efficient way to make good and durable country roads, and that is by breaking stone into small pieces and filling in with the chips and stone dust that accumulate while breaking the stone. A bed made in this manner and topped off with red shell or a light covering of a hard blue clay will last for years and always be in good shape with very little repairing. Some steps should be taken in this direction at once, and it does seem that the amount of money expended in our township every year, should entitle the taxpayers to better roads as above described. If we cannot build but a mile or two a year we would be making some progress and in time would get the whole completed. While at the same time the taxpayers would see some result for the annual amount he expends for this purpose.

Pronounced Insane.

John Harris who was held for trial at the December term of court, on the charge of stealing a horse, of Mrs. Wildrick, of New Albany township, an account of which appeared in the Republican, has been cutting up all sorts of pranks in the county jail here, and the first of the week was pronounced insane by two physicians who examined him. On Tuesday he was taken to the County House, at Burlington, where he will be kept for a short time and if his condition is not improved, will be removed to the insane asylum, at Danville.—Bradford Republican.

Unclaimed Letters in Post office.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the LaPorte Post Office for the week ending Saturday Nov. 30 1889. John Burrell; Michael Lowe; Lincoln Moyer; John W. Russert; W. S. Gardner; J. J. Schooley; Lizzie Shoemaker; John Snider; O. A. Wilkinson; Norman Young; Ward Cooper. Persons calling for any of these letters will please state that they have been "advertised." W. M. CHENEY, P. M.

EAGLESMERE.

The Chapel near the Allegheny house is so far completed that it is now used for Sabbath Schools and other religious meetings. Prayer meetings on each Sabbath and Wednesday evening and preaching on each alternate Sunday morning. The house is well calculated to meet the wants of the place for winter use. The Baptist church at a business meeting held on Saturday last voted to place subscription books in the hands of Mr. Miles of Philadelphia and Mr. E. A. Rawley of Williamsport, to solicit subscriptions for the building of a suitable edifice to accommodate the church and visitors who desire to worship with them during the summer season. It is found that a very large number of those who come to this place for a summer resort are church going people. The owners of cottages being nearly all active church workers, and zealous in this work at Eaglesmere. The Baptists who until the recent building up of this village struggled for many years almost alone in sustaining the cause greatly appreciate the timely help them in aiding to erect a Chapel and hope in the near future to be able to occupy a home large enough to accommodate their full share of summer visitors.
