THE W. C. T. ALLIANCE BORN.

Non-Partisan Temperance Women Form an Independent Organization.

KIND WOODS FOR THE OLD UNION.

Permanent Delegates From Fourteen Counties Unite for Work, Not Against the W. C. T. U. but in a Different Way.

The non-partisan temperance women of Pennsylvania met in conference yesterday morning and afternoon at the Hall of the American Sunday School Union, 1122 Chestnut Street, and unanimously formed the "Women's Christian Temperance Alliance," not as an opposition to the W. C. T. U., as one of the speakers put it, "but as reinforcements in the great cause of temperance work. A meeting was held at the Chambers' Presbyterian Church, where addresses were delivered by several leading clergymen and others in the evening.

There were delegates present from thirteen counties, and during the convention at least 100 women were present. Among those who participated in the information of the new society were such prominent ladies as these: Mrs. Cyrus E. Foss, of Philadelphia, wife of Bishop Foss; Mrs. Joseph D. Weeks, Mrs. H. J. Campbell and Mrs. Ellen M. Watson, of Allegheny; Mrs. Harry White, wife of Judge White of Indiana County, and Mrs. H. W. Williams, wife of Judge Williams of the Supreme Court.

DR. DODSON TAKING NOTES.

Throughout the session there was the kindest feeling expressed toward the W. C. T. U. from which most of those present were seceding. A possible exception of this might have been found in the report of the secretary, Miss M. S. Shepherd, who declared that it was "better to serve God than the W. C. T. U." and who made one or two other kindred associations wherein sarcasm was latent. There was bitter debate during the day and all the business which will be completed to-day was unanimously adopted. Throughout both sessions Dr. Caroline M. Dodson, of this city, an enthusiastic W. C. T. U. woman and a supporter of the larger organization, occupied a front seat, not as a sympathizer but as a note taker. During the afternoon Mrs. Dr. H. M. French, President of the Philadelphia County W. C. T. U., also came in and took a seat well toward the front. The meeting was called for those who sympathized with the new movement and hence neither Dr. Dodson nor Dr. French took any part in the meeting.

The opening session began with prayer by Mrs. Campbell. After the Scripture had been read, beginning with the following significant words: "For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace." Mrs. M. A. Miller led in prayer, and then the Secretary, Mrs. Shepard, read the address of Mrs. Harry White, who presided. The address recited the cause for the formation of the new movement, was firm in tone, but dealt kindly with the W. C. T. U. These words show the temper of the address.

It is submitted that the scenes of discordant discussion of the Pittsburg Convention of a year ago, and those of the recent Chicago Convention, bring more reproach, discouragement, and defeat to the Christian women, than two separate organizations, one pursuing the partisan course, the other positively prohibiting it. Each in their sphere, may be blessed with fruits meet for their efforts, and the strife and dissensions now before us avoided.

Mrs. White also said that matters had come to the condition that it was necessary to choose between working further by the side of those with whom they had not the proper kind of sympathy or making a cessation of work entirely. Owing to partial loss of Mrs. White's voice through cold, Mrs. Campbell was chosen as temporary presiding officer. Greetings from a Putnam, Connecticut, non-partisan society and from Rev. T. H. Amos and Bishop Campbell of this city were read.

Miss Shepard then read the Secretary's report, in which she said there were no definite figures to offer, but showed how the movement was spreading in various counties. From Beaver County she had received a letter containing thirty-six signatures, from Millin County, fourteen had signed another, and from other Counties had come quick responses. While she was reading a similar letter arrived from LaPorte Sullivan County, containing the names of twenty-five others. Miss Shepard closed by giving some of the "don'ts" that had come to her the most prominent of which were many admonitions against calling the new association anything like W. C. T. U. and against mixing up woman's suffrage with the object for existence. Before closing the morning session, the following Committee on Constitution was appointed: Mrs. Joseph D. Weeks, Allegheny County; Mrs. M. M. Hullings, Venango; Mrs. D. Price, Chester; Mrs. C. R. Jones, Allen-town; Mrs. C. E. Roney, Philadelphia; Mrs. Judge White, Indiana County.

Before this the names were taken of those present who wished to become identified with the new organization, and with others added during the day, the following were placed upon the roll of the conference: Chester County.—Mrs. J. J. Price, Miss A. M. Martin, Mrs. S. J. Phillips, Mrs. S. F. Darlington, Mrs. Alfred Darlington, Miss P. S. Pusey, Mrs. Laura R. King, Mrs. H. M. Griffith, Mrs. Agnes Oakland, Miss S. S. Robeson, Miss Rebekah Ashbridge, Mrs. A. S. Ashbridge, Mrs. A. T. Pusey, Miss E. Greenwood, Miss K. C. Rodney, Mrs. Sarah A. Taylor, Mrs. S. J. Roberts, Miss A. A. Melvaine, Mrs. E. W. Bliss, Mrs. Lydia S. Hayman, Mrs. A. J. Hope, Mrs. J. Curtis Smith, Mrs. Jacob Price, Mrs. E. R. Kirk, Mrs. H. J. Hodgson, Mrs. H. P. Ogden, Miss E. L. Stevens, Mrs. H. J. Cox, Mrs. T. L. Evans, L. P. Featman, Mrs. S. A. Darlington.

THE FOUNDERS OF THE ALLIANCE.

Delaware.—Miss Lizzie Mason. Lehigh.—Mrs. C. A. Douglass. Mrs. C. R. James, Mrs. W. L. Blackmore, Miss Gertrude Williams. Butler.—Mrs. Ella Showalter, Mrs. Henry Sheffield. Berks.—Miss M. K. McDowell. Allegheny.—Jos. D. Weeks, Mrs. Ellen M. Watson, Mrs. H. C. Campbell. Venango.—Mrs. Frances Hillings. Montgomery.—Mrs. R. W. Goff, Mrs. H. O. Wilbur. Sullivan.—Mrs. T. J. Ingham, Miss W. S. Shepard. Lancaster.—Mrs. Eliza Baker. Luzerne.—Mrs. W. R. Sax. Philadelphia.—Mrs. Agnes D. Foss, Miss T. A. Lodge, Miss G. H. Foote, Mrs. M. E. Lillagore, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Miss C. Remington, Mrs. M. A. Miller, Mrs. Mary B. Brooks, Mrs. Sarah Jenkins, Miss Agnes McClemon, Miss J. G. Grieb, Miss Helen F. Price, Mrs. H. S. Ellis, Miss H. J. Cox, Mrs. W. H. Hearn, Mrs. M. B. Heritage. Lawrence.—Mrs. T. G. Dalzell, Mrs. A. L. Martin, Mrs. Kate V. Gilman.

The large delegation from Chester represents to some extent the following of Mrs. Darlington those which the Philadelphia delegation was composed of, members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Evangelical Association who, over 120 strong, resolved some time ago to join the new association. Also just before closing, Mrs. Weeks read a letter dated Berlin, Germany, from Mrs. Francis L. Swift, last year's president of the W. C. T. U., in which Mrs. Swift expressed her sympathy for the new society and said that she desired to be identified with it.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon began with devotional exercises, under the leadership of Mrs. S. J. Roberts, of Chester County. A committee from the Prohibitory League, consisting of Rev. Dr. A. J. Kynett, Captain W. W. Wallace, and Horace Geiger, were received, and their assertions of cordial greeting given a unanimous vote of thanks. Dr. Kynett's suggestion to put aside any spirit of antagonism was received with approval. He closed by saying, "We bid you God speed, so that it will soon be seen that this is not a schism, but a reinforcement." Secretary Stearns, of the National Temperance Publication Society also spoke and conveyed greetings. Telegrams of greeting were received from Monmouth, Illinois, and from Clarion, Pennsylvania. The secretary was instructed to answer all by letter.

Mrs. Weeks then presented a draught of the constitution which was adopted, excepting the articles relating to dues and to the state convention meetings. The preamble contained this declaration: "Believing that women's influence in an organized force is indispensable to success in temperance work and that to make it available it must be divested of the spirit of partisanship we, women of Pennsylvania, unite ourselves for non-partisan and non-sectarian christian temperance work and establish the following constitution for our government:"

During the afternoon Mrs. W. A. Hetschu of Lancaster said that as soon as the W. C. T. U. debts were paid she would come over to the new association. Mrs. Campbell when asked for an opinion declared that it was honorable for any member of the W. C. T. U., to hand in her name provided the resignation from the W. C. T. U., was sent to that organization at the very earliest opportunity. The roll committees were then appointed:

Resolutions; Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. T. J. Ingham, Mrs. T. W. Price, Mrs. M. K. McDowell, Mrs. M. A. Miller, Mrs. C. A. Douglass. Plan-of-work, Mrs. E. M. Watson, Mrs. H. S. Ellis, Mrs. W. P. Sax. It was to vote for permanent officers at 10 o'clock this morning, and the adjournment for the day was taken.

THE EVENING MASS MEETING. The evening mass meeting in Chambers Presbyterian Church was very sparsely attended. There was an address by Rev. Dr. McIntosh, of the First Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Dr. Young. Mrs. Weevil sang several temperance solos which was highly appreciated by the audience.

Rev. Dr. McIntosh refrained from any direct criticism of the W. C. T. U., but spoke very enthusiastically of the possibilities and future of the new organization. "We want a liberty of choice," he said. "There have been many combinations in the temperance movement, in all of which I have more or less sympathy, but there are times when one wants to get rid of all ornaments and embellishments and see the work ahead. There fell a shadow across the hearts of not a few when a decision was made in the W. C. T. U., a little while ago to affiliate with a political party. It was one of those mistakes that was worse than defeat. I hope you will rally round you the thousands who have felt that they could not conscientiously follow where the other organization led."

Rev. Dr. Young followed with a eulogy on the grand work that the W. C. T. U., had done, though he deprecated the mistake they made in "leaving the legitimate field in which they had won such victory."

During one of the solos by Mrs. Weevil a gentleman in the audience sent word to the platform that he wished to sign a total abstinence pledge, and when one was written he promptly signed it. The president of the evening, in her closing words, referred to this as, "the first fruits of the new organization and an earnest of the future."

Says the New York Star: "The proposed amendment to the jury law exempting newspaper men from jury duty is a proper one and should be passed by the Legislature at once. Practically the law, as far as journalists are concerned, is a dead letter, since the Commissioners of Jurors and all the Judges in the courts properly and promptly excuse journalists summoned before them from service as jurors."

SONESTOWN ITEMS.

Mr. Mason Pettit of Bloomsburg, made P. M. Keller a short visit last week.

They say our friend Frank Hazzen was taken very sudden with the grip, last Saturday night. How is it old man?

District Pres. H. P. Hall installed the officers of W. C. 344, P. O. S. of A., on Wednesday evening. He will install the officers at Lopez Camp on Friday night next.

Our little village has been attacked with la grippe, among those who have the sneezers, is Geo. Hazzen J. W. Buck, M. A. Phillips, Rily Steenberg, M. L. Keller, Ella Magargle, Mrs. H. A. Emory and Mr. Mencer the miller.

Clara Magargle bid farewell to our place on Monday and sailed for the Quaker City, where she expects to abide in the future. May she meet with success.

Rev. S. S. Mumey and wife have returned home from an extended visit, through Columbia and other counties, he like many others received the gripe without the pass, while away from home.

The I. O. O. F. No. 221, had their annual officer supper on Saturday evening, at Hotel Magargle. The crowd was not so large but from the appearance of some of them they enjoyed themselves very well.

All parties that are owing the firm of L. M. Keller & Co. will save time and trouble by settling the same at once or it will be collected with cost.

Lost.—Some time between Dec. and the present time. The finder will be amply rewarded by returning the same to the Lycn Lumber Co.—winter.

Squire Simmons and Jos. Carpenter have taken a log cutting contract of Jacob Lora. Several hundred thousand of hardwood.

Miss Nellie Sheehan and Miss Allie Pennington, our school man's spent Saturday in Williamsport.

The E. V. church has now a steeple. It will not be long before they will hold their regular services in it.

Postal clerk Burrows of the W. & N. B. is at his post again after an attack of gripe.

MEXICAN JOE.

SONESTOWN ITEMS, No. 2.

Charley your girl is at Muncy Valley.

All the lumbermen are waiting for snow.

Miss Grace Miller has gone to Hughesville to spend the winter.

Rev. Mr. Caris has postponed his meeting on account of sickness. Harry was lonesome Saturday night as his lady love was not in town.

Miss Clara Magargle has gone to Philadelphia to spend the winter months.

J. H. Spencer passed through town Saturday evening en-route for LaPorte.

The new church at Sonestown is almost completed. Mr. Pantou is a faithful worker.

We are having a lively time with the la grippe. The well ones busy waiting on the sick.

Mr. G. Phillips has just erected a new barn that adds greatly to the appearance of his farm.

The school master from the Hemlock, made a mash at the oyster supper. How is that Jake?

Gus was very poorly with the la grippe last week, but was able to get to the grist mill Saturday evening. We hope he will be better by next Saturday evening.
