John M. Seeman, proprietor of the hotel on the turnpike road two miles beyond Bernice, died very suddenly of heart disease on Thurs-day evening and was buried at Thrasher's church in Cherry near this place on Sunday. The funeral was very largely attended. Mr. Seeman was an Odd Fellow and the funeral exercises were conducted by brethren of the order.

The excitement caused by the murder at Wilcox station has abated to a considerable extent, but the proceedings are being prudently carried on. John Mann was again arrested on Thursday of last week on the charge of having been implicated in the crime. At a hearing before a Justice he was also bound over to court and was placed where he will be a near neighbor to Mrs. Miller until court convenes which will be the first Monday in May. It is expected that there will be much interest taken in the trial of these prisoners. There has already been a large number of witnesses subpænaed.
