

DUSHORE ITEMS.

Miss Helen Frey has returned to her home at Tunkhannock.

Mrs. D. H. Fairchild is confined to her bed with sickness.

A. L. Fawcett of New Albany, was in town on business Monday.

The new literary society has been named the "Clie Literary League."

There is to be a select party in 'Garey's hall this Thursday evening.

Misses Mary Dieffenbach and Ida Schock, of Colley, spent Sunday in town.

Ball playing on the street is becoming quite popular among the boys.

There are no new developments in the Wilcox murder case at this writing.

Everybody seems to be pleased with the work done by the new road machine.

Three dwellings and a barn at Monroeton were destroyed by fire Monday.

Fifteen new members were confirmed in the Reformed church Saturday.

W. H. Kennedy, Lewis Barth and Sam Kester are making preparations to build a sidewalk along their property on Headley Avenue.

A "Crazy Tea Party" will be held at A. E. Seuteman's on Friday evening for the benefit of the Reformed church. A good time is expected.

Work on the new school building will begin in a short time. The school board receives many complaints on their selection of the lot in Cole's grove.

A daughter of Peter Kelly, of Cherry, seven years of age died last week of diphtheria. Several other children in the neighborhood are afflicted with the same disease.

Newell—that egotistic editor of the Review—says the Dushore correspondent of the REPUBLICAN does not like him. As yet we have said nothing to prove this, but we will now inform him that he is correct, and he might say the same of nearly all who know him and his statement would meet with no objection. He need not be afraid to guess again that somebody don't like him, for he can seldom miss it. All seem to be proud to acknowledge that they are not in love with so insignificant a person as the Review man.

NOVUS HOMO.

Our Dushore correspondent is inclined to be sarcastic this week. He strikes Newell pretty hard, however, it will be gratifying to the people of Dushore, to know that their town contains a person equally as bright as the Review man if not a trifle brighter. Of course this argument to Newell would be of no account, but the people like our correspondent, have a mind of their own.

The W. C. T. U., will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Meylert, Friday April 25th, at 3, p. m.

The Democratic Speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives has followed the example set by Speaker Reed, of the National House, and counted enough Republicans who refused to vote to make up a quorum. This is the usual method with the Democrats. The air has hardly ceased as yet to vibrate with the exclamations of rage and defeat uttered by Democrats and Democratic organs over Speaker Reed's ruling. The Louisville Courier-Journal's circus poster type still stands out on the horizon like a barn door, and Blackburn's mouth has not got out of kink after calling Mr. Reed a "dirty despot." The fragments of other vociferous exclamations are also still lying around loose. But ignoring all these, and without once thinking into what a hole he is putting his party, the Speaker of the Ohio House says Mr. Reed the highest flattery in his power by following exactly in his footsteps. What a pity that the Democratic party cannot make its policy "consistent" now and then.

HON. EDWIN K. MARTIN, The Distinguished Soldier from Milesville, Pa., a Leading Republican Candidate for Lieut. Governor.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR. Lancaster Furnishes a Soldier Candidate of Brilliant Attainment.

Very few people can read the record of Hon. Edwin K. Martin whose portrait, kindly loaned us by the Williamsport Breakfast Table is published in the REPUBLICAN without being inspired with attachment, admiration and love for such a noble man. Hon. Edwin Martin was born in Lancaster county, in 1844, at Milesville, the site of the great normal school which his father helped to found. When the war began Edwin was at Andover Academy, Massachusetts. Though only 16 years of age he was fired with patriotic zeal and hastened home, and then, a mere school boy, joined the boys in blue who went to the front with "the first three hundred thousand."

His regiment was promptly assigned to duty in Kentucky and afterwards became celebrated in the army of the Cumberland, as the gallant 79th Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Infantry; it participated in over twenty battles and engagements; sustained as great losses, and endured as hard continuous service as any other Regiments of the South-western Army. At Perryville, in its first engagement, it lost thirty-three per cent. in a few hours of the most desperate fighting of the war; at Chickamauga it stood in the famous horse-shoe line which under Thomas saved the fragments of Rosecrant's Army.

Stone river, Chattanooga, the severe fighting around Atlanta, the march with Sherman through Georgia and the Carolians are all inscribed on its tattered battle flags. In the engagement at Resaca in 1863, the Colonel of the regiment was wounded and being unwilling to leave the field General Thomas ordered the Regiment to do depot duty.

They were located at Cartersville, Ga. The mails for the Army began to accumulate at Louisville and the general in command requested the Colonel of the 79th Penn'a. to supply a man to take charge of the mails for Sherman's entire army. Edward Martin, still a private soldier, was selected for the purpose. In it he inaugurated many important changes, and on the Louisville and Nashville railroads introduced a railway mail distribution which was probably the first of its kind in the country; and for all we know the beginning of the present extended system, which has revolutionized the transportation of mails in this country. He has trained a corps of enlisted men did their work not only on the railway cars, but on the steamboats, in ambulances by the bivouac and under the fire of battle.

The position Mr. Martin held during the last eight months of his service was probably the most responsible place occupied by an enlisted man during the war. Neither of his superior officers, owing to their extended duties, could remain at the front except for very brief intervals, and he, though not yet of age, handled the tons of army mail with a promptness and efficiency that drew the highest praise from officers and men on every hand.

This was subsequent to his enlistment as a veteran private which took place at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on February 9, 1864, when he was still but nineteen. Mr. Martin was mustered out of service of the United States by an honorable discharge on the 5th day of July, 1865, at Washington, after the war had closed. He resumed his duties at Andover, Mass., and afterwards attended both Princeton and Amherst college, graduating at the latter institution. He engaged in the lumber business, often visiting Centre county. Then he read law and graduated at Columbia Law School, New York City in the same class with U. S. Grant, Jr. Ever since he has practiced his profession in Lancaster and has won hundreds of friends. So unanimous is the sentiment in favor of his nomination throughout Lancaster county that nineteen of the twenty-two papers published in the county are heartily endorsing him. The people throughout the state will be glad to vote for him.

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE. G. W. Vincent of Wysox Sued for $10,000 Damages.

An affidavit filed at the Prothonotary's office last week, by M. E. Nicholson of Rapid City, Ill., charges G. W. Vincent of Wysox, this county, with breach of promise, and the said M. E. Nicholson has brought suit for damages in the sum of $10,000. The records of our courts often contain cases full of interest, but seldom is there any that will excite the general public more than one of this class.

According to the affidavit of the plaintiff now on file, the defendant, longing for that companionship and love which the fair sex only can bestow, sent a letter to the plaintiff which she received September the 25, 1889, stating that he had been a widower two years, and desired a correspondence with a view to matrimony. The letter was answered by the plaintiff and a correspondence kept up until December 24, 1889, during which time the parties exchanged photographs. At this date the defendant went to Rapid City, the home of the plaintiff, where he remained until December 30. During this visit the fair plaintiff claims an agreement and marriage engagement was entered into where-in the defendant was to return to Rapid City unless he concluded to remain on his farm in Wysox, in which case she was to come East on the 10th of March, 1890, she received a letter and a request to come to Wysox. Accordingly she sold the most of her household goods and packed up the balance and shipped them to Wysox, and came on, arriving at that place April 9th, ready and willing to fulfill the agreement. She now claims that Mr. Vincent neglects, and refuses to marry her, and therefore she brings suit for damages as above stated.

On Saturday last a capias ad respondentum was issued, requiring Mr. Vincent to give bail in the sum of $5,000 for an appearance, which was furnished. The plaintiff's attorney filed a rule to choose arbitrators, and the case will come up before such a body the fore part of May.—Towanda Republican.

The work of preparing for the grand demonstration to be held here on May 14th, the tenth anniversary of Milton's destruction by fire, in commemoration of the complete recovery of our growing city from the terrible devastation inflicted upon her ten years ago, is progressing quite favorably. The P. O. S. of A., aided by the Miltonian Steam Fire Company are pushing the matter and they should receive a liberal response from all to whom they appeal for aid, especially from our business men and hotel keepers.—Milton Record.

Treasurer's Sale of Unseated Lands. Table with columns for location, acreage, and amount. Includes locations like Woodside Thomas, Woodside Archibald, etc.

Cherry Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Baker John, Epple Henry, etc.

Colley Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Anderson John, Campbell Robert, etc.

Davidson Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Beasley Johnson, Brady John, etc.

Seated List. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Reed Daniels Heirs, Wright James & Martin, etc.

Cherry Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Reed Daniels Heirs, Wright James & Martin, etc.

Cherry Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Reed Daniels Heirs, Wright James & Martin, etc.

Elkland Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Bryson John, Bryson Samuel, etc.

Forks Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Abbott George, Dorsey John, etc.

Shrewsbury Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Barrow John, Beauwont Miss, etc.

Hillsgrove. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Annon William, Bingham William, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Boyd James, Same, etc.

Shrewsbury Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Brodie William, Baston William, etc.

Seated List. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like Reed Daniels Heirs, Wright James & Martin, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Laporte Township. Table with columns for name, acreage, and amount. Includes names like House and lot, Hill B F, etc.

Pianos Organs. Advertisement for T. F. Crisken, Merchant Tailor, and Mason & Hamlin Organ and Piano Co. Includes text about piano improvements and closing out sale.