Again that Sullivan county man according to the Williamsport Republican turns up in the Lumber city. The Scranton Truth says: "The anomalous verdict of 'not guilty but to pay the costs' continues to be given in the courts. If a man is guilty enough to pay the costs the verdict should state, and if he is not guilty he should not be required to pay costs. There is room for reform in this peculiar system of verdict rendering."

The road between this place and Eagles Mere is in a disreputable condition. We understand that the supervisors of both Shrewsbury and LaPorte twps., will be indicted at this term of court if some improvements are not made or a promise to this end given by the proper officials. Obstinate nose-bleeding is frequently one of the most difficult things to check. Several aggravated cases have lately occurred at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. As a last resort Dr. D. Hayes Agnew tried ham-fat with great success. Two large cylinders of bacon were forced well into the nostrils and the hemorrhage ceased at once. This is a very simple remedy, and one which should be remembered for cases of emergency.

The people of Sonestown come to LaPorte in large numbers to assist in Decorating the soldier's graves on Memorial Day. Why are we not duty bound through respect to assist them on this occasion? We are told that unless our people join in the exercises at Sonestown this year Washington's Camp will cease their visits to LaPorte on similar occasions. We ask the people of LaPorte to consider this and if possible arrange to be present at the Sonestown exercises. The time fixed by the Post is 9 a. m., Friday May 30th, and at LaPorte 3 p. m.

The United States Supreme Court recently decided that any one can import liquor and sell it in the original packages, the law of any State to the contrary notwithstanding, as the liquor does not become subject to the laws of the State until sold by individuals of the State. This is the most legal set back that prohibition has yet received. It only requires that importers shall make the packages small enough for general consumption and then sell only as originally imported.

Owing to our position taken in the Hawk matter of Cherry twp., we added three new subscribers to our list, on Tuesday last. Our new patrons stated that the REPUBLICAN was the only paper published in the county that would dare come out and give the facts in this case. We are led to believe that we made many friends by denouncing the treatment of Hawk, and we sincerely believe it to be true, as we have received a number of letters of persons who were acquainted with the case given the old man who heartily concur with the course pursued by us.

There will be services at St. John's church, next Sunday morning, at 10:30 a. m., evening, at 8 p. m. Holy communion at morning services.

REV. J. P. KELLY, D.M.

Bradford County's Puglist.

John Hefferman, Long Valley, this county, has challenged Michael Beatty of Wilkes-Barre to fight to a finish under London Prize Ring rules, for $200 a side. He also challenges any man in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Bradford, Sullivan or Wyoming county to wrestle at 155 pounds. He will wrestle any style preferred.

W. H. McCabe of the 2d ward, was arrested on Thursday of last week for striking and abusing his wife while in a drunken state. The case was tried before Robert Stormont J. P., who held the prisoner under $200. bail. McCabe, not being able to find a bondsman for the required amount, was placed in jail to await a hearing at this term of court. Follow is the sentence of Judge Thayer of Philadelphia, upon a convicted wife-beater, of said city, rendered on Wednesday of last week:

"This wife-beating has got to stop. The only way we can stop it is by giving severe punishment for the crime. You see your wife's face is covered with the marks of your brutality. Take eighteen months in the Eastern Penitentiary for your cruelty."

Good for Judge Thayer. If his example was followed by every Judge in the land who is called upon to pass sentence upon the brutes who, because they are able, are mean and low-down enough to strike women, there would be fewer victims among the poor wives of the country. A brute of a man who will strike a woman deserves every day of eighteen months in jail and should not get off a day short of it.

Memorial Day will soon be here when the graves of the fallen soldier boys will be decorated by nature's blossoms in memory of those dark days of 61-65. We can just remember of our home boys accompanied by a number of Cherry twp. comrades, passing through town on lumber wagons with flags in the air and drums beating, on their way to Muncy where they took the train for Harrisburg thence to Washington. A very large percentage of these comrades never returned to relate their hardships to their wives and families and aged mothers and to those we owe a feeling of gratitude and for this purpose one day of the year has been set apart to bring back in memory the hardships suffered by those who fought and died for their country and saved the North from rebel grasp and slavery. This custom of strewing flowers upon the soldier's graves was adopted in 1868 by an order issued by Gen. Logan to the Grand Army of the Public and no sooner had the order been publicly announced when the citizens of our patriotic village called a meeting and arranged to comply with the wishes and request of General Logan on the 30th day of May 1868 and although twenty-two years have come and gone, we are proud to say we have never once neglected this duty or let the enthusiasm die out, and by a call of the S. S. Simmons Post, No. 477, G. A. R., of LaPorte will meet to strew flowers upon the grassy mounds of those dear ones who now rest in the Sonestown cemetery at 9 a. m., and in Mountain Ash cemetery at 3 p. m., on Friday next. The Post has extended invitations to the P. O. S. of A., Camp of Sonestown and the many Sunday schools throughout this vicinity to take part in the exercises and we understand that the Camp has accepted and will turn out almost to a man and that several Sunday Schools will join the procession. With this end Memorial Day in LaPorte and Sonestown will be made one long to be remembered by her patriotic citizens.
