The Harlaw was the first arrival at Flower Cove this season and when she entered the cove the entire population flocked to the shore, some cheering, others crying with joy at the sight of a sail, after the long and severe winter.

THEY ATE ROTTEN SEALS.

Captain Farquhar brought a letter signed by Rev. G. Raymond Howells. the Church of England clergyman at Flower Cove, giving harrowing statements of the conditions under which the population of his extensive district have managed to exist during the past nine months. He says the Colonial Government failed to respond to several appeals for aid which were made last fall, and for that reason during the whole of the long months till the steamer Harlaw called there, most of the people were on the verge of starvation, the food that was obtainable having to be given out in quantities only sufficient to barely keep life in their bodies. The people were reduced to such extreme want that after they had nothing else to appease the pangs of hunger they resorted to the rotting carcasses of seals .- Ex.
