

CHICAGO, June 21.—The late details concerning the awful cyclone that swept over a portion of this State last night are horrible beyond description, many of the tales told concerning the death of persons and destruction of persons being heart-rending.

At Artville ten people are reported to have been killed by the falling of buildings and trees, while the list of injured will exceed twenty.

A dispatch received in this city from Earleville says that two men were killed near that place outright during the progress of the storm, while nine persons sustained injuries more or less serious.

From Dixon comes a like report. Four persons met death in the path of the cyclone while the number of injured has already reached fifty, some of whom are supposed to be fatally hurt.

At Pawpaw seventeen persons were killed, many of the bodies having been dug out from beneath debris after the storm while several were badly mangled. Terror reigned during the storm's fury, and people went nearly wild with fright. One hundred people are injured, and the picture presented at some places is horrible. The injured were found all over and in every conceivable place and position.

The ruin in all places where the storm swept over is complete, and as yet it is impossible to form any estimate of the damage to property. Everybody is overwhelmed with grief on account of the loss and injury to life. Friends and relatives are searching everywhere for missing ones.

The saddest tale of all comes today at noon from Earleville, giving the particulars of the finding of a lady school teacher and her ten pupils buried beneath the ruins of a school house near that place. All were dead, several of them being almost unrecognizable.

The small town of Suttle is reported to have been completely destroyed. The courier who brought the news to the nearest telegraph station was unable to give the number of killed or injured.

Resolutions of Condolence. Whereas: It has seemed good to the Ruler of the Universe to remove from among us one beloved friend and fellow member, John G. Osler, therefore, in view of the loss we have sustained, and the still heavier loss occasioned to his respected relatives, be it:

Resolved: That the members of Sullivan Lodge No. 522, I. O. O. F. Pa., hereby desire to express their sense of bereavement and grief at the loss of one of their youngest and faithful members, and to record the enjoyment and profit which they have had in the genial social qualities of the deceased.

Resolved: That we sincerely sympathize with the relatives and near friends of our late beloved brother, and that we respectfully commend them for consolation to that Divine Power which through some times inscrutable in its dispensations, yet, "doeth all things well," feeling sure that to them, as to us, there is comfort in the knowledge that the deceased was not only honorable and manly in all respects, but that he also died a consistent christian.

Resolved: That in token of our sorrow at the death of our brother, the members of this lodge wear a badge of crape for thirty days.

Resolved: That the secretary of this meeting be instituted to send a copy of these resolutions to the parents of the deceased, and a copy to each of the county papers for publication in the next issue of said papers, as a testimonial of our grief and sympathy.

Mr. Kelly apologized for them and delivered an address on the meaning of the consecration of the churches. At its close five of the expected Clergy arrived and the Rev. W. H. Graf of Williamsport made a short congratulatory address.

The morning of St. John's Baptist's Day rose bright and clear over the Mountains and Valleys of Sullivan as it did in the days of St. John's preaching in the wilderness of Judea and the people gathered to see the consecration and hear the announcement of Gospel of the Kingdom at half past ten o'clock the Clergy approached the church in the church in the following order: The Reverend Messrs Morris Christman S. P. Kelly, W. H. Graf, Stuart Hamilton, William Heakes and Rev. Mr. Cameron of Newark arrived at the door which was closed, the Bishop sounded three distinct raps from without answered by a voice within, "Who comes here?" The reply was "The Bishop of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania to take possession of this Church in the name of the Lord."

The doors were then thrown open, and in response to the invitation, "enter in the name of the Lord," the Clergy proceeded by the Trustees passed up the aisle to the chancel, repeating the XXIV Psalm "the earth is the Lords and all that therein is, the compass of the world and they that dwell therein, the Bishop saying 1 verse and the Clergy the other. The visiting Clergy sat in the Chancel and the Bishop and the General Diocesan Missionary entered the Sanctuary. When the Bishop was seated in his chair the instrument of donation and request to consecrate was read by H. T. Downs Esq., of LaPorte and presented to him, whereupon he arose, and made the declaration of consecration and offered the prayer set forth in the solemn O'ffer. The Bishop again being seated the sentence of Consecration was read by the Rev. Samuel P. Kelly handed to the Bishop and by him placed upon the communion table, and the act of consecration was performed with the prayer of blessing."

Morning prayer then followed, which was offered by the Reverend Stuart Hamilton, the Rev. Wm. Heakes reading the lesson. The Bishop then proceeded to the Communion service the Rev. Mr. Cameron acting as Epistoller and the Rev. Samuel P. Kelly as Gospeller. The Consecration Sermon was delivered by the Bishop on "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the House of the Lord." He also made a feeling address to the people. There were 25 persons came forward to receive the Holy Communion. A large number of persons were present from Eagles-Mere and from different parts of the county. The music at all the services was excellent and heartily rendered, under the direction of Mrs. Rosa Van Fleet organist and a volunteer choir of local talent assisted by Miss Anna Brush of Eagles-Mere. The decoration of the church were simply exquisite and much credit is due Miss Lizzie Downs and Mrs. B. F. Hill, for the tasteful display which evinced much care and labor. While frontals adorned with golden crosses, were pendant from the respectable and lectern. Upon the former was a large cross of white roses and orange blossoms on a pedestal of ferns, supported on either side by bouquets, in vases, of orange blossoms and laurel. In front of the lectern and Clergy statts were large geraniums all in bloom, while the chapters of the chancel pillars were adorned with fresh bouquets of fragrant wild flowers from the mountain side. At the entrance to the sanctuary were vases filled with flowers of all variety and hue. The occasion was one of much interest, not only to the church people, but to the town as it makes an era in moral and religious progress which cannot but be of advantage to the county and the town.

BUNKER HILL ITEMS.

The farmers say there will be no fruit of any kind this year.

The hay crop promises to be one of the largest known for years in this township.

Miss Maggie and Jennie Roach returned home from attending the Muey School on Saturday.

Our supervisors are busy repairing the roads, Their work proves them men of good judgment.

The M. E. church festival which was to take place at Mount Vernon church on the 21st was postponed until Wednesday evening June 25.

The Shrewsbury school directors contracted with M. J. Phillips general agent for the Bloomsburg Desk Co., to furnish the new Allegheny school building with desks and slate for blackboard, on Saturday last.

We hear that our late teacher Miss Rattie Harvey will return and teach the coming term of school. Miss H. has taught two successful terms at this place and all are pleased that she is about to return to manipulate the third one.
