

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Longest days.
The picnic season is here.
Hay making is now in order.
The hay crop will be immense.
Big fish stories will now cease.
The summer visitor is on deck.
Tuesday was a sultry warm day.
The town council are very slow to act.

Nature is now taking her yearly outing.
We will soon learn the population of our city.

Member—Whats—the-matter—with Dr. Herrmann?

Miss Sarah Crossley of Bernice, is visiting friends in town.

A party of LaPorters, visited Jamison City, on Sunday last.

Prothy. Walsh of LaPorte, spent Sunday with friends at Dushore.

We publish jury list drawn for Sept., term elsewhere in this issue.

It is now illegal to catch trout.

Tuesday July 15th, was the last day.

John H. Green of LaPorte, is on the sick list. John is failing in health very fast.

The bark peeling season has about ended. The boys are now at work cutting roads.

Atty. J. G. Scouten of Dushore, was doing business at the county seat, on Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Kelley of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, of this place.

Station agent Newman, of Nordmont, was calling on friends in town, on Saturday evening.

A headless child was born in Indiana recently. It will most likely be called "Democracy."

Wm. H. VanBuskirk of Eagles-Mere, was transacting business at the county seat, on Monday.

Please report to us when friends are visiting you, or any items that may be of interest to the public.

The jurors for Sept. term were drawn on Monday by Sheriff Utz and Thos. Farrell, jury commissioner.

J. H. Spencer book keeper for James McFarlane & Co., moved from the 1st to the 2d ward on Wednesday.

The grass grown on the Court House square has recently been cut. The yard presents a very creditable appearance.

Miss Lizzie Hassen of Dushore, formerly of LaPorte, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. James Walsh, of this place.

The Allegheny House, Eagles-Mere, C. Peale, jr., proprietor, is about filled with summer guests. The Allegheny is one of the finest hotels at the Mere.

The Williamsport and Binghamton railroad company has again come to the front. They are now purchasing the right of way near Little Meadows, Pa.

During the past week one hundred and fifty summer guests have registered at Hotel Eagles-Mere. The total number now registered at that popular Hotel, is 200.

The young people of town gave a party in the Hall, on Friday evening last, in honor of Maurice J. Lauer of Danville, and W. L. Stormont of New York, who were home on a vacation.

J. H. Spencer of LaPorte sold his span of gray ponies to Chas. Reeder of Nordmont, on Tuesday. Charley can congratulate himself upon having a dandy and a splendid driving team.

W. C. Mason of LaPorte, has accepted a position as Asst. Engineer of a new railroad company, of Scranton. He left for Scranton on Monday where he will remain a good part of the summer.

The three teachers, Miss Davis, Bishop and Grant, who were the successful contestants of the Philadelphia Press, for a free excursion to the old world, took the steamer at Philadelphia, for said voyage, on Wednesday. The day was beautiful, and was undoubtedly observed by many.

MARRIED—At LaPorte, July 7th, '90, Mr. M. F. Shaw to Miss Belle Stackhouse, both of Muncy, Lycoming county, Robt. Stormont, J. P., officiating.

MARRIED—At LaPorte July 16, 1890, Mr. John Decker to Miss Amelia Hoffer, both of Colley, Robt. Stormont, J. P., officiating. The ceremonies were witnessed by a goodly number of our young people, principally ladies.

S. John Baptist's church, LaPorte, Mr. James B. Werner, A. B. Lay Reader. Divine services next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Even. song, with sermon, at 8 p. m. All welcome.

The Sullivan County Fair which promises to be the best display of agricultural product ever held in the county, will take place, on October 1, 2 and 3. Everybody should take an interest in the county Fair.

Prothy. Walsh of LaPorte disposed of his entire turnout to Thos. E. Kennedy of LaPorte, on Tuesday. Thomas, is now the owner of one of the finest horses and the best out-fit in town. He is happy and will undoubtedly enjoy a good time.

The finest trout in the State can be found in Lake Mokoma. Samples of the same can be seen in the trout box near the border of the lake, they were captured in the eel rack at the mouth of Mokoma. Ask Billy Moyer to show them to you?

Democratic State chairman Mr. Harry, who was elected to serve in said capacity at the recent Democratic Convention held in Scranton, has resigned. He evidently perceives the approaching danger of an overwhelming defeat of his party this fall.

The P. O. S. of A. Washingtons Camp which has been organized at Nordmont, is progressing nicely. They initiate from 6 to 10 new members each meeting night. The boys say, the organization is meeting with much better success than they anticipated.

C. B. Jackson accompanied by D. Reedy, I. Spouling and F. Frowler, all of Berwick Pa., drove over from Long Pond where they had been spending a few days, on Saturday and registered at the LaPorte Hotel over Sunday. They spoke very complimentary of Lake Mokoma.

The Pennsylvania State Forestry Association convened Monday at Eagles-Mere. The sessions which are held in the Hotel Eagles-Mere, will continue for several days. A number of prominent people are in attendance, and Governor Beaver is expected to be present before the close.

An inquest to make partition was held on lands near Jamison City of the North Mountain Lumber Co. and the Blanchard estate, on Tuesday. The viewers were: J. H. Farrell, Michael Finlan, G. L. McHenry, B. M. Sylvara, Wm. A. Mason, and H. T. Downs. The Sheriff accompanied the viewers to the lands.

Atty. W. Farnsworth of Sunbury who is census abstracter of judgments and mortgages of this congressional district, was in town the early part of this week looking over the Appearance docket. He finished his labors in Sullivan which completes his appointment, on Thursday. Mr. Farnsworth during his stay at LaPorte, made many friends.

Road commissioner J. H. King of LaPorte twp., is of the opinion that the road leading from this place to the Mere should be repaired, but owing to the fact that this highway is not in his immediate district he refuses to act. Mr. K. informs us that Road commissioner Ring is the proper person to put this road in repair. We understand that Mr. Ring will be brought before a J. P., if he does not act soon.

Cadwalader Biddle Esq., of Philadelphia and a member of the board of Charity of Pennsylvania, visited the county seat of Sullivan, on Friday last in his official capacity and examined the county prison. He said it was the worst he had ever examined and that it was merely an apology of a jail. He condemned it with disgust and inquired the financial standing of our county, when told, he could perceive no reason why we should not have a jail of credit to our county. We are told that he will put it down as the worst in the State in his report to Harrisburg next winter. This is a fine send off for our county officials. He made many comments on the riveted bars three in number which guard against the prisoner jumping through the window.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Maria Miller of Athens formerly of LaPorte, died of inflammatory rheumatism, on Wednesday July 9, aged 59 years 4 months and 19 days.

Deceased was born in Hesse Cassel, Germany, Feb. 20th 1831 and came to this country about the year '49 or '50 to visit her brother Peter Stilsing who resided in Jersey City and who came to this country several years before. She became a member of the South sixth St., M. E. church, Jersey City, of which her brother was one of the originators, and of which she remained a member up to the time of her death. Deceased was married January 6th 1856, to Wm. M. Miller (who died 20 year ago the 27th of last May) and has resided in Sullivan county the greater part of the time since. For the past 20 years deceased had been severely afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism and during the past few years has been a great sufferer from a complication of diseases.

Deceased resided in LaPorte for many years and was a resident of our town at the time of her husband's death. She was known by all as a kind wife, mother and a good christian.

For the past few years her sickness had rendered her almost helpless when she was taken to her daughter's residence Mrs. C. D. Croll, Athens, where she was looked after and her wants cared for. Two children, Mrs. Mary Croll nee Mary Miller and Peter D. Miller, survive her who have the heart felt sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral was held in the M. E. church at this place, on Friday July 11th, and was in charge of undertaker Lawrence of Dushore. Rev. J. F. Glass of Muncy Valley, delivered the funeral sermon. Interment in Mountain Ash cemetery.

Now that Mr. Wallace is known to be out on the ocean the Democratic organs are saying some queer things of him. The most interesting of the compliments paid him comes from the Sun, of this city, which, in its issue of yesterday, speaking of Pattison, said:

He is a Democrat, but not in ofensive partisan. It cannot be said of him as a Governor that he ever shirked his duty to the people, nor as a Democrat that he ever ran away if he failed to carry a convention in a fair and square fight such as that in which he was nominated.

The Wallace men of this section and there are many of them, will doubtless die with joy over this beautiful comparison between Bill Scott's man Pattison and ex-Senator Wallace.—Williamsport Rep.

Hon. Thos. V. Cooper Collector of the Port of Philadelphia and for a long time Chairman of the Republican State Committee, will, with Mrs. Cooper, spend the latter part of July and the first week in August at Hotel Eagles-Mere. Alfred Gratz, Register of Wills of the same city, with his wife and family will also be at the same hotel during the summer.

Prof. M. F. Albert, formerly principal of the Watsontown graded school, is an applicant for the LaPorte graded school. Mr. Albert is well known in this section having taught one term at LaPorte, and is complimented very highly as a teacher by our people. It is the wish of the people that he be successful in receiving the appointment.

Chas. B. Jackson, Esq., of Berwick, and a world renown fisherman, while in town, on Sunday visited Lake Mokoma and took a look at the trout in the fish box. He said they were the finest he had ever seen. There are forty in the box and the average length of the same is 15 inches. They were all taken out of Lake Mokoma.

With the hay taken off, the Park presents a very creditable appearance. Now if the town council would vote new gates constructed, so that people could have access to the same, without 'straddling' the fence, they would do a worth act.

Deputy Collector E. P. Ingham of Philadelphia, is home on a vacation, and will remain on the Mountain until Monday next.

James Gansel of LaPorte twp., claims he is the owner of a horse that if properly hitched could move the Court House to Dushore. The animal weighs a ton or less. The people of Dushore should club together and purchase the beast, but then, Stewart Chase is Warden and should an attempt be made to remove the building to the Metropolis of the county some dark night, Stew would catch them in the act and call them to a halt. There is always something to interfere with moving the county seat to Dushore.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The President and Secretary Windom have approved of the designs of the new treasury notes provided for by the new Silver bill, which were recently prepared at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in anticipation of the passage of the bill. These notes will be of eight different denominations, as follows: One dollar, two dollars, five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, fifty dollars, one hundred dollars and one thousand dollars.

NOTICE.

Sealed proposals will be received by the chairman, until July 18th 1890, for work to be done in Mountain Ash cemetery of LaPorte, as follows: Fence straightened, and new posts put in where needed; briers dug, or ploughed out; grass cut and raked up; trees trimmed; drive staked out and neglected graves put in good shape.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN ANGRY.

The Boston Sluggish Vehemently Abuses Wrestler Muldoon.

BOSTON, July 12.—Champion John L. Sullivan was yesterday afternoon shown Muldoon's open letter reflecting on his courage and character, and there was a pretty how-de-do. The big fellow flung down the paper, his hand striking the table with force enough to chip a large splinter off the hard pine top. For a moment he was silent, and then his mouth opened and a torrent of abuse poured forth such as the reporter had never heard.

"That snake in the grass," yelled John, "has hounded me without reason for weeks. He is a sniveling snipe, a frog, a viper and a scoundrelly blackguard. He calls me a liar. Why, his very letter proves him a liar of the deepest dye. When he says he didn't write the letter to the Southern authorities he is a proven liar, as I saw the letter with my own eyes."

"As to my being a coward, a slur on my bravery from such a sneaking, cheap copper as he, cannot hurt me. I have proven my courage in many a hard fought battle and the remarks of Muldoon himself, published a year ago in your paper and in others, I will take as my just measurement."

"As for his contemptible offer to match Kilrain against me again. I have already refused to meet that little sneak, but if Muldoon can show $2,500 in cash I might be tempted to essay the task. That I ever asked him to train me for Jackson is only a plain simple lie, like all of his other statements."
