REPUBLICAN STATETICKET

FOR GOVERNOR,
GEORGE W. DELAMATER, of Crawford. LOUIS A. WATRES, of Lackawanna, FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL APPAIRS.
THOMAS J. STEWART, of Philadelphia.

The State of Wyoming will hold its first election on the 11th of September. Conventions of both parties will be held on the 11th of August in Cheyenne to nominate candidates for State officers. At the last election for delegate to Congress the vote was 10,557 Republican and 7,557 Democrat.

laugh on the democratic press of the country which has been railing at him-for allowing his wife to accept a seaside cottage at Cape May Point. The criticism would have been but just if Mrs. Harrison had accepted a cottage from citizens as a gift, but the fact has just leaked out, and it the fact has just leaked out, and it the lides and others charged with country which has been railing at did not come from the President either, that Mr. Harrison gave his check for $10,000 in payment for the cottage which his family is at proof that frauds did not exist, we shall be accepted by Congress as proof that frauds did not exist, the report save is supposing as Point. It was intended by the genther majority decline to be bound tlemen who purchased the ground a criminal case. The report also and built the cottage to have pre-disagrees with other legal proposisented it to Mrs. Harrison, but as tions. soon as the President learned of it he informed them that he had made it an inviolable rule of his public bringing two shot guns, announced life never to accept, nor to allow any member of his family to accept presents of any kind. How many democratic papers will have the decency to correct the wrong accusations they have been making?

THE MURDER OF CLAYTON.

Report of the Congressional Committee Ousting Breckinridge.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 .- Representative Lacey, of Iowa, has prepared for submission to the House elected, and at the same time aid in the majority report of the Elections the payment of a fine imposed upon Committee upon the Clayton-Breck- another violater of the law, and that inridge contested election case and the murder of the Republican contestant. Commenting on Clayton's murder the report says: "The State and Nation were horrified, research to the faw, and that such conduct should not be met with anything but condemnation and approval by his political followers, shows a state of disregard for the principles of popular government which may well make the future of the fauture which may well make the future of the fauture which may be a such conduct should not be met with anything but condemnation and approval by his political followers. State and Nation were horrified, rewards were offered, and the community of Morritton, near which the be found lawless enough to commit murder occurred, passed appropriate resolutions, but no earnest at when men of bigh character and tempt to bring the murders to justice has been made by the local authorities. The efforts of the Governor have been in vain. Much of the turn upon such methods, it no long-work done has been upon a miswork done has been upon a mistaken idea, and due weight has not been given to the suspicion that should naturally attach to the bal-who was investigating the ballot-box theft, and of George Bently, a brother of O. T. Bently, who was suspected of being one of the thieves. George Bently at the time was negotiating with the Pinkertons to give selves upon the improved moral tone Government evidence when he was never before has a contest for a seat said to have been accidentally shot in Congress been terminated by the by his brother. The theory that Clayton's murder was due to the enmity of one Hooper is taken up, and the report says it clearly appears that Hooper was not only in California when the murder occurred, but ill with dropsy. This theory, says the majority, was naturally pleasing to the contestee (Breckinridge), though the friends of Clayton very naturally com-plained that so important a clue should have been consealed for ten months, and only made known when the Congressional investigation be-

The necessity for the enactment of some laws which will prevent ballot-box stealing and murder from conferring a prima facia title to a seat in Congress is evititle to a seat in Congress is evident from the result in the contest. Had such laws been in force as would have prevented the contestee from taking his seat with such a title, no one would have attempted to confer such title by stealing the ballot-boxes. Evidently ballot-box stealing was looked upon as a joke in the community until the awful consequences that have resulted have appalled the good people of this country. No doubt some of these men would have been deterred from taking the first step in the crime if they had realized that murder would be the end, but they crossed their Rubicon. Breckinridge got the seat, and one crime followed in the footsteps of the other. The least guilty steps of the other. The least guilty of the criminals dare not expose the more guilty lest the fate of Clayton should overtake him.

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tone.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
