MR. DELAMATER'S ANSWER.

The Republican Candidate Replies to Ex-Senator Emery's Charges.

CHAMBERSBURG, Aug. 14.—Senator George Wallace Delamater, the Republican candidate for Governor, to-night entered publicly in the most emphatic language a general denial of the charges preferred against him before his nomination by ex-Senator Lewis Emery, Jr. The Senator had finished a speech he was making in the court house, when one of his auditors called on him to answer Emery's charges, which he did without hesitancy.

Senator Delamater spent the day in Chambersburg, the guest of Judge John Stewart, who was the Independent Republican candidate for Governor in 1882. Upon his arrival from Philadelphia at 9:50 a. m. the Senator was met at the train and escorted to the Montgomery Hotel, when an informal reception was held pending the adjournment of the Republican County Committee, which was holding a previously arranged meeting, and which when, it became known that the candidate was to be in town, had invited him to the Republican headquarters to meet the members of the committee.
The reception was attended by hundreds of citizens, and when the business meeting of the committee was over Senator Delamater was introduced and spoke briefly upon the condition of the campaign throughout the State, and the duties of members of the county committees.
He was enthusiastically received.
W. C. Kreps, Republican candidate for the Legislature, and Hon. Hast-Gehr, Republican candidate for Congress, also made brief addresses to the committee.

THE RECEPTION.

Senator Delamater spent the afternoon and evening at the residence of Judge Stewart. To-night at 8 o'clock a public reception was tendered the Republican standard bearer in the court house. Although the notice of the reception was short, the building was packed to its utmost capacity. County Chairman A. Nevin Pomeroy presided, and Hon. W. U. Brewer delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the citizens of the town and country. When Senator Delamater rose to respond he was greeted with applause which continued so long that his opening remarks were almost unheard. He said he had not come to make a political speech, as he was only making a visit to friends and relatives here, but that he was deeply gratified at the warmth of his reception. He gloried in the fact that he was the representative of the great Republican party of Pennsylvania. He said this is not to be a campaign of personalities, but a campaign based upon party records.

He had been charged with being a young man. The Republican party was a party of young and progressive men, and had always led in great measures, not followed, as the Democracy had done. The party, he said, lived up to its professions, and if elected he would carry out the professions and promises of the party. He concluded in this strain, and as the loud applause which followed his closing words died away T. L. White, a well known colored Republican, arose and said:

"How about the Emery charges?"
DELAMATER'S DENIAL.

Stepping quickly to the front of the platform again, Senator Delamater spoke as follows:—
"On April 4 last, during my candidacy for the nomination, ex-Senator Lewis Emery, Jr., made certain charges affecting my honor as a citizen and Senator. Until now I have refrained from making public reply.

"Prior to my nomination I claimed the right to make my own contest in my own way, and was content to rely for my vindication upon my life-long character and reputation built up in a very active professional and business career in Northwestern Pennsylvania. The enthusiastic and unanimous indorsement of my own country; the cordial support of a majority of the delegates elected from the country counties; the exceptionally strong endorsement by citizens and business men of Philadelphia, and finally, my nomination by the Harrisburg convention, all in the face of these un-denied charges, had seemed to me sufficient answer.

"The question now addressed to me implies that continued silence on my part may be misinterpreted by certain good citizens whose affiliations are with the Republican party. As the candidate of that party I cannot allow its interests to be prejudiced in the same estimation of any citizen by a refusal to answer any inquiry touching my personal and official integrity, and I take this occasion to enter my most positive, emphatic and unequivocal denial of each and every charge preferred by Senator Emery.

"So that I may be fully understood, and that the real questions of the hour may not be obscured by personalities growing out of these attacks, and future reference to this subject may be avoided, I enter this denial to all charges, by whomsoever preferred, which assail my honor as a man and my integrity as a citizen."

The speech was twice interrupted by applause and cheers. At its conclusion nearly all of the audience came forward to be introduced to the candidate, and many congratulations were tendered him. The Senator spent to-night at Judge Stewart's residence. He will return to Philadelphia to-morrow.—Press.

parsonage and a large commodious school building. The bell towerly on the church is to be placed at the school building.

The picnic given by St. Basil's church on Friday was large attended, and considering the hot time in which the arrangements were made, the church realized a in-dosome profit. We have not been able to learn the amount but would estimate it at $700. The contests so far as we have been able to learn were won as follows: Gold fidd cane by A. Walsh; gold watch by Miss Jennie Cadden; gold bracelets by Miss Mary Finan. There were other contests and drawings but we have been unable to learn what the lucky ones were.

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.
Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
