

THE REPUBLICAN.

W. M. CHENEY - Editor

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12th, 1890.

ENTERED AT POST-OFFICE, LAPORTE, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR MEMBER, M. E. HERRMANN, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY TREASURER, SAMUEL COLE, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. M. CHENEY, of LaPorte. FOR COUNTY AUDITOR, ULYSSES BIRD, of Estella.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Dr. Herrmann for Assembly-Samuel Cole for Treasurer-W. M. Cheney for Commissioner-Ulysses Bird for Auditor.

The Republican convention of Sullivan county was held in the Court House at LaPorte on Tuesday Sept. 9. At 2 o'clock Chairman Cheney took the stand, called the convention to order and declared nominations for chairman in order. Hon. F. B. Pomeroy of Dushore was elected by acclamation. It was soon manifest however that Mr. Pomeroy was not in the court room, and William Hull Esq., of Hills Grove was unanimously chosen. The organization was completed by the election of J. J. Webster of Elkland, R. H. Guy of Bernice, Geo. Simmons of Davidson and J. W. Rogers of Forkville as vice presidents and Hon. Wm. A. Mason of LaPorte and Hon. E. A. Strong of Dushore as secretaries. The delegates next presented their credentials after which the following motions prevailed: That in districts not fully represented the delegates present be allowed to cast the full vote of the district; that the convention nominate but one candidate for commissioner and one candidate for auditor. The chair announced that the next thing in order was the naming of candidates for the various offices.

Dr. Herrmann of Dushore was nominated for Representative by acclamation. Samuel Cole of Dushore received the unanimous vote of the convention for county treasurer. The following were placed in nomination for county commissioner: B. P. Hunsinger of Forks; A. Wilmot of Bernice; J. C. Pennington of LaPorte twp.; J. J. Webster of Elkland; W. M. Cheney of LaPorte. The first ballot resulted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Hunsinger 4, Wilmot 12, Pennington 7, Webster 7, Cheney 32.

As there were sixty-four delegates no one had a majority of votes and another ballot was ordered. Before the voting began the name of B. P. Hunsinger was withdrawn.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Second Ballot. Wilmot 26, Pennington 5, Webster 2, Cheney 31.

The names of J. C. Pennington and J. J. Webster were withdrawn and the third ballot resulted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Wilmot 31, Cheney 33.

Cheney having received the majority of votes was declared the nominee.

Nominations for auditor being next in order Ulysses Bird of Elkland was nominated by acclamation. J. W. Amiller of Shrewsbury and Geo. W. Simmons of Davidson were chosen congressional conferees and W. C. Rogers of Forkville and E. A. Strong of Dushore Senatorial conferees. F. P. Vincent of Dushore was elected chairman of the Standing Committee, which is constituted as follows:

- Bernice:—Thomas Schell. Cherry:—W. B. Cox. Colley:—William Allen. Davidson:—D. H. Lorah. Dushore:—F. P. Vincent. Elkland:—John J. Webster. Forks:—William Bird. Forkville:—J. W. Rogers. Fox:—J. C. Campbell. Hills Grove:—William Hull. LaPorte twp.:—Joseph Fiester. LaPorte boro.:—W. T. Watrous. Lopez:—William Phillips. Shrewsbury:—J. W. Amiller.

The representation in the next county convention, based upon the Republican vote of '88, as fixed by the resolution that for the first twenty votes two delegates shall be allowed with one more for each twenty votes or moiety thereof additional, is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Districts, Vote, Delegates. Lists names and vote counts for various districts like Bernice, Colley, Cherry, etc.

THE NOMINEES. Dr. M. E. Herrman of Dushore

the nominee of the Republicans of Sullivan county, for Representative is engaged in the practice of medicine at Dushore and is well and favorably known in Sullivan county as a skillful and successful physician and an accomplished and courteous gentleman. This nomination came to Dr. Herrmann without his seeking it and the high esteem in which he is held by the people of the county will manifest itself in a rousing vote in November. We will promise our readers a biographical sketch of Dr. Herrmann in a future issue.

Samuel Cole, the candidate for county treasurer is known all over the county as the energetic young business man of the hardware firm of Cunningham & Cole of Dushore. Mr. Cole has been engaged in business in the county so long that he is personally acquainted with most of the leading business men who will all bear testimony to his high character and business standing. Mr. Cole is a worthy man and the people of Sullivan county cannot do better than to elect him county treasurer.

W. M. Cheney of LaPorte, candidate for county commissioner is the present editor of the REPUBLICAN whose columns are always open for the spread of Republican doctrine, the triumph of Republican principles, and the success of Republican candidates.

Ulysses Bird Esq., of Estella, the present as well as the next county auditor, receives his nomination unsought and as a reward for official duties honorably performed. Mr. Bird is not only a skillful accountant but has shown rare ability as an auditor of the county's accounts.

The Fusionists.

From the Bradford Republican. In contemplating the action of the leaders in the movement for an independent ticket as developed by the so-called independent Republicans assembled at Mercur Hall on Saturday last it is proper to consider the elements that compose the combine with which it is proposed to defeat the regular Republican ticket. For the past year threats have been rife in certain quarters of the county coming from aspirants for Republican nominations, of opposition to the party unless certain candidates were successful. The so-called independent meeting of Saturday last and its fusion with the Democrats in the formation of a ticket is the culmination of the threats made prior to the Republican convention aided and put into operation by a few zealous but shortsighted Democrats. It is doubtful if the ticket put in the field by this aggregation of disappointed candidates on one side and eager and hungry expectants on the other will even vote for itself. The few Democrats on it—and they are very few can scarcely trust companions who are only where they are by breaches of faith and disregard of the commonest principles of honor. With what degree of confidence can men like Benjamin M. Peck and Charley Hull—who spent their lives fighting Democrats—now expect the Democrats to elect them to the highest offices in the gift of our people. How can General Madill vote for Charles M. Hall who in the last few years fined him for crimes to which he has pleaded guilty before him. What is the true position of the late Republicans who now figure on this ticket. The only grievance they can possibly present against the action of the Republican convention is that some men who were candidates were successful and others were unsuccessful in obtaining nominations. The magnitude of the ticket to be placed in nomination inspired a heated and excited contest. It was fair and open to all the candidates concerned, and was every where conducted according to the party rules. We do not now and have not in the past heard a suggestion that the convention was not fairly conducted, or that it did not represent correctly through its delegates the several districts that sent them, as expressed at the primaries. If there were instances of the use of improper methods in the strife between rival aspirants, they were not indulged in by the successful candidates. It is quite apt to be the case that when men are beaten, and weak enough to squeal instead of standing up like men, that they charge their opponents with the very things they themselves have notoriously been guilty of.

If the persons who are engaged in the fusion movement are posing as political reformers the people have a right to know what it is they propose to reform. Let them present a bill of particulars so that the public may judge whether or not anybody is benefitted by their success in electing a ticket of half and half men. Will the office of Prothonotary be any better administered by Gen. Madill than by Mial E. Lilley? Will the judicial emblems be any purer on the shoulders of Benjamin Peck than on those of James H. Codding? Will Benjamin M. Peck bring to the bench judicial capacity superior to that of Mr. Codding? If Mr. Peck's legal attainments are so great why has he practically retired from active practice to accept the office of president of a national bank? Will the funds of the county be any safer in the hands of the cashier of the First National Bank of Athens than they will be if entrusted to Finley N. Hubbard, a farmer of Springfield? Will the people of Bradford County be any better represented at Harrisburg by Messrs. Forrest and Summer than by the election of Messrs. Fanning and Clark? These are legitimate questions and we opine they will be carefully considered by the Republicans of the county before casting their votes. Simple justice requires a notice of the nomination on this ticket of Albert Morgan of Troy. His name was used without his consent and he at once positively and emphatically refused to sanction the movement in any way. By so doing he has acted in accord with all his past record and shown himself a man whose fidelity to the party can not be shaken by the tempting bait of a desirable nomination. The party is proud of such young men and he will receive his reward in the future.

The course of the Republican is fixed an unalterable We propose to stand by the regular Republican ticket and to defend Republican principles against the treachery of self-interested men who have pretended to be in sympathy with it heretofore as well as against its open and avowed foes.

In Memoriam.

Whereas the all wise creator has seen fit to take from our numbers by death, our comrade George W. Wanck, therefore be it resolved. That while we submit to the will of our Heavenly Father, we will fondly cherish all that was pure and noble in the life of our departed comrad.

Resolved, that in the death of comrade Wanck, this Post has lost a faithful member to the principles of the G. A. R.

Resolved, that the comrades of Jones Post, No. 436, tender their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Biddle of Hills Grove, for their kindness to comrade Wanck in his last sickness.

Resolved, that these resolutions be sent to our county papers for publication and that our charter be draped in mourning.

Hall of Jones Post, No. 436. F. C. SCHANABACHER, Com. HENRY BROWN, FRANK HANNON, Aug. 23, 1890.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

Henry Welles and wife, of Newark Valley, are visiting at L. E. Wells's.

The number in attendance at the institute is still increasing. There are now about 100. Geo. H. Welles, of Wyalusing, was looking after business interests in Dushore Monday. Several of our Republican friends attended the Republican county convention at Laporte, Tuesday. Monday was a big day at the Inter-State fair at Elmira, and several Dushore people were present to enjoy it. There has been an increase in the families of Charlie Jayne and Mr. McCarty, by the addition of a boy in each case. Willard R. Pyle exhibited one of Edison's greatest inventions, the phonograph, in Garey's hall Tuesday evening. This was a great novelty to many of our people. Lawrence Bros., contractors, with a force of men commenced the carpenter work on the new school house Monday. They will be ready for the brick-work in a few weeks. Sheriff Utz disposed of the Lopez Kindling Wood Factory at public sale at Hotel Carroll on Saturday. The Citizen's National Bank of Towanda putting in the highest bid ($8,000) became the owner. The liabilities of the kindling wood firm were nearly $15,000. Quite a large addition is being built to Geo. H. Welles's building occupied by J. E. Finan's store and the post-office. Finan's store room will be enlarged, and as he has added a large stock of dry-goods, he will soon have one of the largest mercantile establishments in Dushore. Great interest is manifest at this place in the Miller-Wilcox murder trial now in progress at Towanda. There is no doubt that J. W. Wilcox, of New Albany, was murdered on the evening of March 26th last, and the evidence seems to show very plainly that Mrs. Belle Miller perpetrated the deed. John Mann has admitted in his testimony that he was an accomplice in laying the plot and went with Mrs. Miller to the barn of H. D. Wilcox (or within a few rods of it) and testifies that Mrs. Miller went into the barn and when Wilcox entered, in the dark, she struck him on the head with an axe, which he (Mann) had brought for the purpose, and afterwards stabbed him. She then set fire to the barn and they left together. He also states that the wife of the murdered man was aware of the plot, who, it seems, was anxious for its execution. Your readers will remember that John Mann was arrested last spring, as well as Mrs. Miller. It is the general impression here at present that Belle Miller will die on the gallows and John Mann and Mrs. Alice Wilcox will be sentenced to a term in the penitentiary, though Mrs. Wilcox has not yet been arrested. If the evidence of Mann is correct, which is generally believed, this is not the first murderous deed Mrs. Miller has committed, having poisoned her husband in April, 1889, as plotted by herself and J. W. Wilcox, and being afraid that Wilcox would reveal the fact she concluded to get him out of the way. The case has been on trial ever since Thursday of last week and will likely continue all of the present week.

SUGAR RIDGE ITEMS.

A. L. Lovelass intends moving to Nordmont in the near future. W. M. Fairman of Columbia county, was visiting his sister Miss Libbie Fairman of this place.

Mrs. John Watson of Nordmont is visiting her parents, M. M. Fiester, of this place. E. H. was seen going up the LaPorte road Saturday evening. I guess he was going to see his best girl, what do you think about it Ellen?

Harry Fiester and Charley Gower made a flying trip to the 'Mere, recently. Harry you did not get left did you?

Mr. Ben King and Miss Lulu Reed took a flying trip to Elmira N. Y., on Thursday Aug. 28th. The purpose of the trip we did not learn, what was it B. K.?

DAISY.

THE OLD RELIABLE Jewelry Store Still leaves all competitors in the Dark.

Established April 1, 1875. And is the only one that has ever remained here more than two years at a time, or long enough to make its promises good. Don't be deceived by Auctioneers or Peddlers or any body else, but come and see the Largest and of goods every shown in Sullivan county, or that is usually found in Jewelry Stores. Expensive goods for those that want them. Cheap goods for those that think they can buy no other. It is no trouble to show goods, and you will not be urged to buy unless you want to.

In society goods I carry a good assortment in both high and low prices. I am not going to tell you that I will give you goods, nor am I going to tell you that I will sell at cost. That is not business and is not the way to continue business in one place and keep out of the Sheriff's hands. But I do say that I will sell you goods and work for you as low as any other First Class Jeweler, or as low as is consistent with sound business principles. Thanking

The Public for the patronage that has sustained me for the last seven years. I shall try to merit a continuance of the same. You will please remember that my motto is "Live and Let Live, and Fair Play to All."

Very Respectfully Yours, J. V. RETTENBURY, Feb 28, 90 DUSHORE, PA.
