REPUBLICAN STATETICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
GEORGE W. DELAMATER, of Crawford. BOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, LOUIS A. WATRES, of Lackawanna, SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS. THOMAS J. STEWART, of Philadelphia.

REPUBLICAN CO., TICKET

FOR COUNTY TREASURER; SAMUEL COLE, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. M. CHENEY, of LaPorte.

ULYSSES BIRD, of Estella. To the Voters of Sullivan County.

FOR COUNTY AUDITOR,

Some reports have been circulated that if I should be elected to the office of county commissioner I would favor the erection of an expensive jail and other extravagant county expenditures; I deem it proper therefore to state my opinion that the finances of the county will not warrant the erection of a new building for a jail at present, nor within quest into the disaster on the Readthe next three years.

It should be remembered that the commissioners alone have no aut- collision of the coal trains, by which thority to erect a new public building; the approbation of two suc- passenger train, wrecking it and cessive grand juries must first be killing twenty-one persons and inobtained. It is not likely that two juring as many more, were laid upon grand juries, each consisting of twenty-four tax-payers taken from all parts of the county, will recommend the erection of a new jail be- track adjoining the one on which exfore the mass of the tax-payers are press trains were running. in favor of it. If elected I will in all matters favor a just and economical administration of county affairs with a fixed purpose to reduce the county taxes.

Poor Emery.

Well, Mr. Emery has tried to substantiate his charges against Delamater and has miserably failed. His speech, excluding his tirade against the Republican candidate, which, of course, is not proof, consists of a few affidavits, which have already been given and the report of a conversation engaged in by three anonymous individuals who dare not give their names to the public-These individuals claim to have distributed money to influence elections, and the public will understand how to judge such people. It will be observed that these annoymous Office, at Washington, giving valupersons, whose oaths, of course, would carry no weight whatever, are very carefully shielded by Mr. The letter states: Emery, and for a very good reason.

mery, and for a very good reason. "Over six million pieces of mail postmasters, who are provided with Beyond the charges of these men matter are sent annually to the postal laws and regulations.

Mr. Emery's statement amounts to nothing. It is a pity he could not give their names, and it is another pity that he could not give them to openly perjure themselves, in order that they might be brought into a court of justice and sent to the penitentiary, where they certainly belong. No one knows better than Mr. Emery that the unsupported declarations of anonymous individuals, who openly confess that they make a business of dealing out money at election time, is simply no evidence at all. Such men would be as willing to swear to a lie as they would to the truth, and it is doubtless a knowledge of the weakness of his case that keeps Mr. Emery from exposing these shameless persons to public gaze. Meanwhile, it is in order for the gentlemen to explain the affidavit from Milwaukee, which would seem to show the desperate methods adopted to get together testimony of a shady

Again, the character of the man who makes these charges must be taken into account. He poses as a reformer, and yet while a member of the State Senate his duplicity was of such stupendous nature that its mere recital would cause an cutburst of indignation from the constituents he so signally misrepresented.

We pity Mr. Emery. While vent. ing his spite upon Delamater he has called his own career into the light of public scrutiny. Were the facts published there would be none so poor to do him reverence.

Poor Emery.

An Unsatisfactory Verdict.

The outcome of the Coroners ining Railroad last Friday, near Shoemakersville, is not at all satisfactory to the public. The blame for the debris was thrown in front of the a brakeman, and the case left there. No attempt was made to arrest the man, or to inquire why coal trains were placed so near together on a

This is not the way in which similar events have been treated elsewhere. In Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, and in other States where trains have been wrecked and lives lost recently, all those concerned have been held to a rigid responsibility. Searching investigations were made, and the guilty persons handed over to the courts to be dealt with according to the law. Not only was the record of those who were immediately concerned to a searching examination, and any The organization is known as weak points were mercilessly ex-

If the Reading Railroad wishes to keep the confidence of the traveling public, it should make a more rigid examination into the recent disaster than the one had, find out where the blame rests, and then hold the culpable persons to an accountabili-

> > IN THE DEAD LETTERS.

A Circular from Washington Gives the Figures of a Year.

Postmasters are receiving circu lar letters from D. P. Leibhardt, Superintendent of the Dead Letter able instructions on how to prevent letters from reaching that office.

"Over six million pieces of mail

Dead Letter Office by reason of incorrect, illegible, or deficient postage, insecure inclosing, whereby matter mailed becomes separated from the envelope or wrapper, or the failure to be called for or delivered to the person addressed. This is a daily average of over twenty thousand pieces. Of these the greater portion either are not called for at the post-office to which they are directed, or, in case of free de livery offices, the addresses cannot be found, notwithstanding every known means is resorted to on the part of the postal officials to effect delivery.

WHAT BECOMES OF IT.

"Matter sent to the Dead Letter Office which cannot be delivered to the person addressed is required to be opened in its treatment for the purpose of returning to the sender and if the name and address of the sender be not shown or cannot be ascertained from the contents, and it contains no valuable inclosure, it must be destroyed. Letters opened and found to contain any inclosure of obvious value are entered upon proper records, and, of such, those which do not disclose sufficient in-information to enable them to be returned are filed, subject to reclama tion upon proper application and identification.

"Letters which contain no inclosure of obvious value are not recorded: Packages and parcels are re-corded, and where they do not dis-close the name and address of the owner are filed; if not called for or claimed within two years they are disposed of at public auction and the proceeds covered into the United States treasury. A large pro-portion of the packages and parcels sent to the dead letter office fail to be restored to the owners because of the absence on the wrappers or inclosures of anything to indicate ownership thereof."

The Superintendent states that of the unclaimed and undelivered mail matter received at the Dead Letter office during the first year, 451,000 were letters misdirected, while 24,000 000 were entirely blank; 98,000 were letters held for postage; 165,-000 were letters addressed to persons in care of hotels; 42,000 were letters to fictitious addresses, and principally correspondence relating to what is known as "green goods" or "sawdust" swindles, and etc., many of them containing money with orders for the purchase of these fraundlent goods. fraundulent goods.

MONEY AND CHECKS.

About 28,000 contained money amounting in all to $48,642, and 4,000 had inclosures of postal notes in sums under $5, aggregating $5,

300. "Twenty-seven thousand were found to contain drafts, checks, notes, commercial paper, etc., etc., in the sum of $1,471,871, while 48,000 contained paid and cancelled obligations, receipts evidencing payments of money, deeds, mortgages, general miscellaneous papers, etc.,

"Forty-two thousand contained photographs, 1,000 contained articles forbidden to be transmitted through the mails, and 11,000 upon being opened were found to contain lottery tickets, which under the terms of the law, are declared unmailable.

One hundred and sixty-two thousand contained postage stamps. 531,000 were letters and 41,000 parcels mailed in foreign countries to posoffices within the United States. 205,000 were letters and 47,900 were parcels mailed within the Uni-ted States addressed to foreign

REMEDIES SUGGESTED.

"Misdirection, incorrect, illegible and deficient address," says the super intendent, "are the main causes which occasion mail matter to fail to reach its proper destination.

He advise that all letters should be plainly addressed, giving the name of town, county and State. If the letter is sent to a city where there is free delivery, the street and house numbers should be given and the number of the post-office box when possible. The name and address of the sender, either printed or written, should be placed upon the upper left hand corner of the envelope or wrapper of mail matter. This will secure its immediate return to the sendor if defective in an Packages and all matter mail way. Packages and all matter mailed at less than letter rates of postage should, in addition to the name and address of the sender upon the and address of the sender upon the envelope or wrapper, bear a request for its return in the event of non-delivery. This will insure its re-turn to sender. All matter mail-able at less than letter rates of post-age must be so wrapped or inclosed that it can be readily examined without destroying the wrapper otherwise it is subject to letter postage. Only bona fide trade samples are transmissable at reduced rates of postage. He also advises all persons desiring to mail matter to foreign countries to consult their

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tone. Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sont free.
