The lesson offered by the House has not, however, been wholly lost upon the Senate. The demand in that body for something like the previous for something like the previous barn on Friday last. Walter Grange now, and would-be-obstructors are held in some check by the fear that their power to obstruct will be taken away it they abuse it too flagrantly. There is a hopeful prospect that in a comparatively short time the Sente will yield to the force of example and commit to the majority the contact of the state of the contact question was never so strong as it is is the boss carpenter, now, and would-be-obstructors are reconstruction has Congress set about and advanced so far so many yerv important measures. The obvery important measures. The obstructive rules of all the later Congresses had caused necessary measures to accumulate, and this Congress applied itself most industrious-ly to their disposition. The elec-tions bill, the shipping bills, Supreme Court relief and the bankruptcy bills are among the very weighty measures that are so far matured that the next session is certain to see them become laws. Friends in Columbia county.

By the work already accomplished Mr. Scules feels quite relottery business healy crippled, if not killed, the soldiers and sailors of the evil war have been most liberally created in the matter of pensions, truets have received a mortal blow, two new States have most been admitted to the Union, silver restored more nearly to its parity with gold, a way opened athrough repirecoity for an increased tradic with the nations to the south of us, and a larger measure of protection granted to American industry.

IN MEMORIAM.

George Albert was born at Wehrden Kreis Saarbrucken Regierungtbeziek Trier Konigreich Prusia, May 31, 1832 and died after a long and painful illness, Sept. 23, 1890, aged 58 years 3 months and 24 days, being the youngest of a family of three brothers and four sisters of whom one brother and two sisters survive him. He came to America in 1852 and located in Schuylkill county Pa., where he engaged in coal mining which occupation he followed for five years. In 1857 he married Eliza Bartch and commenced housekeeping at Danville Pa., but in the same year re-The Republican party has every reason to be proud of the record which has been made by the Repub-House and interminable talkers in land until, at his death, he owned The most important achievement four farms and a large amount of The most important achievement of the session is unquestionably the preliminary work performed in the House, giving to the majority of that body the control of its business. The struggle over this issue extended into the middle of February, and was continued in various forms all through the sessions whenever the minority saw its opportunity but it is worth all the time and trouble it cost, and even the bad blood and outrageous abuse of which it was the occasion. With out that initial trumph the session must have been a comparative failure, being limited to such legislative measures as could pass by unanimous consent or by the grace of the Democratic minority.

Mr. Scules feels quite proud of The next regular meeting will be held at Wm. McHenry's, Oct. 17.

SONESTO WN ITEMS

Miss Laura Lawrence of Dushore, has been visiting her sister Mrs. D. H. Lorah.

Mr. John Ryder was seen on our streets the day of the show, we wonder if he saw May.

Mr. Thos. Simmons attended the Forksville Fair last week, he reports a very good Fair.

Mrs. Emory and daughter, have moved to Bloomsburg. We wish them success in their new home.

Miss Alma Carrig has returned home from Hughesville where has been visiting relatives for the past week.

Mr. Geo. Simmons has the founda tion laid for a new house which he expects to build next spring and when completed will be a very desirable home.

School begins one week from Monday under the supervision of Mr. Jackson Bradley in the upper grade and Miss Linda Lawrence in the lower grade.

We sometimes wonder why Frank goes down toward Squire Simmons so often; maby he is studying law, but we would hate to say for certain what he goes for.

Main & Van Amburgh's show which exhibited here last Friday; drew the largest crowd which has been seen in Sonestown for years, it was a decided success.

Quite an accident happened in our little village last week when one of our young men tied another man up with a shock of corn. John you should be more careful next time.
