

THE REPUBLICAN.

W. M. CHENEY - - - Editor

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17th, 1890. ENTERED AT POST-OFFICE. LA PORTE, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. RETTENBURY, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, DUSHORE, PA.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. DELAMATER, of Crawford. FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, LOUIS A. WATKINS, of Lackawanna. FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS, THOMAS J. STEWART, of Philadelphia.

REPUBLICAN CO., TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, WILLIAM C. FARNSWORTH, of Sunbury. FOR REPRESENTATIVE, EZRA S. RINEBOLD. FOR COUNTY TREASURER, SAMUEL COLE, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. M. CHENEY, of LaPorte. FOR COUNTY AUDITOR, ULYSSES BIRD, of Estella.

Vote The Straight Ticket.

Time and time again the Republican county ticket has been within easy range of victory, and time and time again it has been defeated by Republican votes simply because the voters "could see no hope" in the face of a Democratic majority. That false notion has cost the party many good county officials, and as long as Republicans view the situation in that light the result cannot be otherwise. There is a remedy and the time for its application has arrived. If every Republican in the county would vote his ticket and work for it, the result would be as surprising as it would be gratifying. Where is the Republican whose influence cannot secure one vote? There may be exceptional cases, but 'hey are few, and where one man would fail there are others who would make up the deficiency.

Did you ever give this matter a thought?

If every Republican would put his shoulder to the wheel there would be no Democratic majority to loom up like an insurmountable barrier in the pathway leading to Republican victory.

It is a duty that every Republican owes his party and himself to stick to his ticket and turn his back on that Democratic turgid majority. If this is practiced by our Republican friends we will soon lead to victory.

Victory in The Air.

A magnificent victory for the Republican ticket is in the air; the people are awakening to the fact that the grand old party of free soil, free speech and free men has ever been faithful to its promises. It promised a revision of the tariff and continued protection to American labor at Chicago, and Harrisburg, and the reverberating guns on College Hill, told how faithfully those promises have been kept. It also promised to restore the inequalities existing between gold and silver and that promise has been faithfully kept; it promises a free ballot and an honest man count in every nook and corner of the Republic and it goes without saying that such a guarantee will be duly spread upon the statute book upon the reassembling of congress. And last but not least the Republican party of Pennsylvania stands pledged to the equalization of taxation and that promise sacredly made will be sacredly kept. Senator Delamater leaves no room for doubt upon this question; his language is clear, decisive and emphatic; we quote his exact words: "If I am elected Governor I will make it my business to see that every promise made in that platform, (referring to the platform adopted at Harrisburg, June 25, 1890), is carried out."

Contrast his manly utterances with the slippery, evasive and non-committal language of his opponent and it will convince any man not blinded by partisan zeal that the welfare of the commonwealth can best be served by placing George Wallace Delamater on guard. His election means continued prosperity for the toiling millions of Pennsylvania, and he who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow should not for a single moment forget it.

Take The Aggressive.

There are times in all great campaigns when the candidates of the majority party, who are almost invariably subjected to false charges, shall defend themselves. Senator Delamater has not escaped the usual experience—that of Hartraft, Hoyt and Beaver—but unlike these gentlemen, he has defended himself in every manly way, and in ways so convincing that only those who will now condemn who really wish to do it for purposes of their own. The defence has been complete at every point. Less than three weeks can now be given to the canvass, and the time is ripe for a bold Republican assault all along the line. Like the Confederate lines in the last days of the war, the Democratic lines but represent an egg shell, which when pierced shows only hollowness within. The egg shell can be readily broken, and the time has come to break it. Let us now quit defending and assail. Let us assail those who, under cover of insincere excuses, are striking at the Republican party, and in so doing let us remind all that we are fighting for the party and its principles, and not for persons or simply against persons. Let us show that the various side committees in Philadelphia and elsewhere have all been organized, as they have, by the Free Traders—that nearly all the money backing them comes from importers, who are ever dangerous enemies of the American system of Protection. The only exception to this general fact is the attitude of the millionaire, Mr. Wharton Barker, who asks the people of Pennsylvania to shoulder his disappointed ambitions. Let us show Pattison in his true colors—his true political colors, for personal assault is never justified. When Governor he served but half of the then Democratic party—its Free Trade faction—and devoted all of his energies to the crushing of Randall. He did this at a cost of half a million to the people of the State. Even worse than this, he was the avowed enemy of every patriotic impulse for the benefit of the Union soldiers. He was harsh and unjust to our State charities, and in the pursuit of that demagoguery which has been ever characteristic of his political conduct, he tried to smirch and destroy the soldiers' orphan schools in advance of their legal limitation. He was a narrow Governor, and insulted the intelligence of our people by pretending to restore the only folly of the Jeffersonian period in his walk to the Capitol. He is too narrow in all of his views to be the Governor of a great State.

Republicans of Pennsylvania, the time has come to assail! The defense has been complete. Now for a charge along the line, and a victory will follow worthy of the courage displayed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Justice Miller, died to-night at eight minutes of eleven o'clock, without a struggle, and apparently without pain. Besides Mrs. Miller and her son Irvine, there was present Dr. Cook, J. W. Woodworth, an old friend of Justice Miller, who had just arrived from Omaha, the family servants and Chief Clerk McKenney, of the Supreme Court.

No arrangements for the funeral will be made until to-morrow, but it is certain that his remains will be removed to his home at Keokuk, Iowa, where they will be interred in the family burying grounds.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

The forests are fast losing their golden hue. As the weather grows colder politics grows warmer.

The Gazette says there are 204 registered voters in Dushore.

Editor Strey and wife attended the Hughesville fair last week.

There are about 100 pupils in attendance at the Catholic school.

The street fakir was selling goods on our streets Monday evening.

R. J. Thomson is attending to legal business in Williamsport this week.

Miss Fannie Kellogg, who has spent a fortnight with friends at Monroeton, returned home on Saturday.

The number in attendance at the public school is at present about 80, an increase of 20 in the past two weeks.

Nearly every candidate for county office has been in town during the past week. Some of them seem to be getting quite uneasy.

Mrs. C. E. Jackson, of Bernice, who has been ill at the home of her father Sheriff Utz, at this place for several weeks is convalescing.

Besides erecting the large addition to the post-office building, which is nearing completion, Welles & Co., are making many minor improvements to their property.

Frank P. Dempsey, of Erie Pa., has entered the office of John G. Scouter as a law student. He has the appearance of a young man with the qualities expedient to become a good attorney. We hope he will meet with success.

As the election approaches and politics absorbs the mind of the editor of the Gazette, he seems to be quite absent minded in other matters. He became the victim of a capital joke on Saturday. He went into a barber shop, waited half an hour for his turn, and when he was "next" crawled into the chair and chancing to look in the glass found that he had been shaved during the day.

The oyster supper given at the residence of Fred Newell for the benefit of the Reformed church on Thursday evening of last week was a success. There were about 50 supper tickets sold and all present enjoyed the occasion. The Clio Literary League again did itself credit in rendering a suitable program. The Harmony Orchestra also deserves mention for the excellent music rendered.

N'IMPORTE.

SUGAR RIDGE ITEMS.

Mrs. Benj. King, was calling on relatives in the neighborhood, on Tuesday.

Harry Fiester made Hughesville a call on Saturday. I wonder if he saw Dora.

Mrs. Mary Fiester was visiting friends at Muncy Hills, the early part of last week.

Mr. John Harrison, is quite ill with rheumatism. He can scarcely use his right hand. Dr. Derr is the attending physician.

Mrs. John Low was taken quite ill on Wednesday evening of last week, but at this writing is some what improving under the care of Dr. Hill.

ROVER.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facus issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Sullivan County and to me directed there to good order and sale at the County Jail in Forksville, on Friday the 28th DAY OF NOVEMBER A. D. 1890, at 1 o'clock p. m. the following property to wit:

All that piece or parcel of land situate in Forksville County of Sullivan and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stone at side of Loyal Sock Creek, thence north 61 degrees west 182 perches to a stake, thence by land of Allen Little north 29 degrees east 153 perches to a stake, thence by land of John Brown south 61 degrees east 242 perches to white maple, thence south 20 degrees west 44 perches, thence south 60 degrees west 124 perches to the place of beginning containing two hundred acres and five perches and allowance.

Nearly all of this land is improved and over 50 acres in an excellent state of cultivation, with a good dwelling house, two framed barns, two good orchards and other out buildings thereon and well watered.

Seized and taken in execution at the suit of Joseph McCarty and others vs Isaac Rogers. JOHN UTZ, High Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, LaPorte, Pa., Oct. 13, 1890.
