

THE REPUBLICAN.

W. M. CHENEY - - Editor

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24th, 1890. ENTERED AT POST-OFFICE, LAPORTE PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. RETTENBURY, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, DUSHORE, PA.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. DELAMATER, of Crawford. FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, LOUIS A. WATRES, of Lackawanna. FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS, THOMAS J. STEWART, of Philadelphia.

REPUBLICAN CO., TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, WILLIAM C. FARNSWORTH, of Sunbury. FOR REPRESENTATIVE, EZRA S. RINEBOLD. FOR COUNTY TREASURER, SAMUEL COLE, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. M. CHENEY, of LaPorte. FOR COUNTY AUDITOR, ULYSSES BIRD, of Estella.

"Z" Confronts Emery.

Lewis Emery, Jr., is getting into a peck of trouble over his charges against Senator Delamater. He relied almost entirely upon a story told him by two persons whom he designated as X and Y, and their conversation included a third person, whom he called Z. The story was so absurd upon its face that it carried little weight. The gist of it was that Delamater secured his election to the State Senate in 1884 by bribery. As his county was strongly Republican there was no occasion whatever for buying a single voter, and the falsehood was apparent. However, X and Y declared that he did buy votes, and upon their unsworn testimony the charges rest.

It has been made public that the algebraic characters are two ex-members of the Legislature, Humes and Beach, and R. H. Odell, a former newspaper man of Meadville. X and Y by their own testimony are self-confessed corruptionists, and their testimony is thus worthless. X confesses that he himself bought votes, and Y confesses that he took hush money and turned it over to X. Both declare that Z was paid $1,300 by Delamater to hush the scandal. The letter from Mr. Odell, the Z of this entertaining political conspiracy, knocks in the head the whole miserable fabric of falsehood and malice. In the strongest language he denounces Emery, and declares his intention of facing Emery upon Pennsylvania soil. Gradually the entire ground is being swept from under the feet of this disappointed and malicious politician and Emery has little left but the memory of his slanders and the pangs of his conscience—if he has one.

Forward To Victory!

The Republican ranks are closing up for the final assault. The prospect is flattering for a splendid victory. The Democratic lines, never solid, are weakening everywhere. Pattison is beaten to-day, and the work of the Republican State Committee will now be directed towards making the defeat as overwhelming as possible. It is a question of majority only.

All through the State the Republicans are stiffening up their columns. The reports that come from the interior are all one way. The advance of the Democrats has not only been halted, but has been turned into a retreat. The Republicans are not only holding their own, but are gaining. All that is necessary now is courage: Let every Republican make his vote count at the polls on the 4th of November and crush out the slanders that in never again raise their heads above the graves in which an indignant and outraged people will bury them. Forward to victory!

We congratulate the Republicans of Pennsylvania upon the splendid prospects of a grand triumph. No party ever yet won a victory in this State with nothing but abuse for their battle cry. No such campaign was ever successful and none ever will be. The mistakes of the Pattison campaigners have been fatal. They have declined absolutely to discuss one single issue. They have skulked from their platform. They have sought not Democratic votes but Mngwump support. Born in Maryland and nominated in New York by the free trade cabal, headed by ex-President Cleveland, Mr. Pattison seeks Republican votes in Pennsylvania. He will get some, but he will lose thousands of Democrats who would have voted for Wallace or for any good Democrat, but who cannot support a man who holds himself far above his own party and plays entirely for the Benedict Arnolds of Republicanism. Mr. Pattison's campaign is founded entirely on explanations of the vetoes which consigned worthy but indigent soldiers to the Potter's field and refused hospitals for disabled miners; upon the abuse of the New York free traders; upon the malicious slanders of men who, like Mr. Barker and Mr. Emery, seek revenge, and upon false pretense. He has succeeded in handing the Democratic machinery of the State over to Mr. Cleveland, but there his usefulness ends. He will be defeated because he has deserved defeat.

Mr. Pattison will be taught a lesson by this campaign. He will learn that it is best, even in politics, to be honest. He will learn that if there is anything a fair-minded people detest it is false pretense and slander. He will learn that Pennsylvania Republicans are still for protection, and that they are not to be led into the trap laid for the repeal of the McKinley bill and the success of Cleveland in 1892. The battle is won. Let every Republican stand by his guns for honesty, for ballot reform, for protection and equal taxation and bury out of sight the slanders and vilifiers who have not only disgraced themselves, but brought reproach upon the fair name of the great Commonwealth which indignantly repudiates them.

Farmers and Lumbermen Look Here.

An important election is before us. An office of chief concern to Sullivan county, one which in its direct importance to us is only second to that of the Governorship, is that of Member of Assembly. An honest and capable Representative will in some ways do even more for his county than will a Governor who has no positive legislative powers and who perhaps may know little of the peculiar wants and necessities of our little county.

It is therefore of that highest importance that we send a man to Harrisburg who is competent to represent us, who is identified with our best interests and who can be depended on to look out for our interests. One of two candidates before us will be elected to the high and responsible office of Representative. It will be either Mr. Rinebold or Mr. Karns. Let us consider soberly and without partisan prejudice, the respective fitness of these men for the office which they have been nominated. Apply the same hard sense in weighing the matter that you would in deciding some matter connected with your business for politics is after all a matter of business and one of the greatest practical importance to every citizen of the land.

Which of the two candidates has been best identified with our best interests in the past? What business has done most for Sullivan county? Has it been lumbering, farming, or whiskey selling? Who will best represent our interests at Harrisburg, a farmer and lumberman or a whiskey seller? Who also is most entitled to our support? Is it a man whose industry has conducted to the common good, who represents the classes chiefly who have employed the labor of the county, and turned its products into wealth, or is it a man whose business gives no poor man employment, produces no wealth excepting by drawing from others their hard earned savings, in return for what all will admit is not an article of general good.

Whether you drink liquor or not, whether you believe in its sale as a beverage or not, fellow citizens of Sullivan county, do you want whiskey represented at Harrisburg, or do you want your splendid lumber resources and your good but only partially developed agricultural resources represented there. Has whiskey done any thing for you my fellow farmer? Has it done anything for you, the laboring man? Has it ever put a coat on your back, a hat on your head or shoes on your feet? Has it not with some of you made it hard even to get these things at all? Has it ever nailed a board on your house, placed a carpet on your floor, or planted the sunbeams of prosperity in your heart, to radiate upon your family and make them glad and happy?

What causes the bulk of taxation in our county? Is it the farming and lumbering business, or is it the whiskey business? Is it the farmer or the lumberman, or the whiskey seller? What business tends to our weakness, what conduces to our strength? Few men will believe that the liquor business is a good thing for the general public. There are few men who do not know and believe that we would be better off without it. But where are the men who doubt the good of the farmers' and lumberman's business. Where are the many who believe we would be better off without them. Let us then voice our sentiment at the polls. Let us be true to our convictions and true to the interests of Sullivan county, even if some of us must vote against our party candidate in favor of Mr. Rinebold, the honest and upright farmer. We have long felt that the farmer was too much overlooked in the matter of offices. Now let us rally to the support of a worthy Representative of our number who did not even ask for his nomination. The question of tax revision will be up during next meeting of our Legislative, let us meet.

FARMER. Eagles Mere, Oct. 20th, 1890.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

Excessive rains the fore part of the week. The funeral of a small child from Bernice was held at this place Sunday.

Mr. Miller, of Northampton county, is visiting his brother Rev. Geo. H. Miller. Geo. Hirtleman, of Illinois, is in town with another car load of western horses.

Sullivan county has 20 candidates for county office, 12 of whom are sure to fall "in the soup". R. H. Brewer, of the new "Farmers' Hotel" has hung out a new sign. He is also having a well drilled.

Walter Appleman and wife, of Wilkes-Barre, are visiting Mrs. Appleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pomeroy at this place.

The political heat from Bradford county is so intense that it is felt even in Dushore and the politics of that county is quite freely discussed here.

Many may wonder the meaning of the signature of this communication. It is a french word and the definition given by Webster is simply—"it matters not."

The Clio Literary League held a regular meeting at the residence of Wm. McHenry on Friday night last at which the usual interesting program was given. There is talk that the League will give a public entertainment in a few weeks.

Geo. Sturdevant and Chas. Heverly have rented the rooms in Scouten's block in the rear of the Gazette office. Mr. Sturdevant is a professional musician of the first class order and is engaged in selling instruments and giving instructions in the art.

B. Kline is moving into his new store in Scouten's block this week. When he is settled in his new quarters he can boast of one of the finest stores in town. He has placed a handsome large sign on top of the building. It is the work of Ed. Benjamin.

W. M. Cheney of LaPorte, Republican candidate for county commissioner, was in town Saturday. He feels confident of election, and he has reason to. From a liberal stand-point of view we would say that he will have a plurality of several hundred over any one of the independent candidates.

Your weekly communication from Dushore is non political but we cannot refrain from saying a word for Samuel Cole, the Republican candidate for county treasurer. He is a young man of ability always progressive, honest and accommodating. Just such a man as should be entrusted with our county offices. He has hosts of friends in this part of the county in all political parties and will poll a great deal more than his party vote.

N'IMPORTE. ESTELLA ITEMS.

Frank Campbell is reported to be lying very low with fever at Browns, camp.

S. S. Rogers and Geo. C. Bird are busy banking logs on the little Loyal Sock.

Robert Hartly aged about 60 years died on Friday, his funeral took place on Sunday the 19th, at the Wesleyan church.

D. F. McCarty and E. G. Rogers are the full pledged Democratic orators of Elkland. Go in boys you feel better now than you will after election.
