

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A severe winter is predicted. The leaves are falling fast. The candidate are seen all along the line.

Election one week from next Tuesday.

Vote for Ezra S. Rinebold for Member.

The roads about Lopez, are somewhat neglected.

Jos. Walburn of Lopez, was doing business at the county seat, on Tuesday.

Ezra S. Rinebold the Republican nominee for Member, is gaining ground daily.

The rain during the early part of this week, was very discouraging to the candidate.

From present appearances the Sauer Kraut crop promises to be a big one this season.

John G. Holmes of Cherry, made us a very pleasant call while on his way to Glen Mawr, on Wednesday.

We will publish a portrait and give a biographical sketch of Ezra S. Rinebold our candidate for Member, in our next week's issue.

Jennings Bros., of Lopez, are building a large addition to their store property. Lawrence Bros., of Dushore, are doing the work.

Miss Ida Keeler of centre Main St., has just received a large assortment of Fall and Winter millinery goods. Ladies take notice.

Atty. J. G. Scouten and deputy sheriff Mahaffey, both of Dushore, passed through the county seat early on Wednesday morning en-route for Williamsport.

The Republican candidates for the county offices should receive the vote of every Republican because they are competent and deserving men.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ingham left for Wysox, on Tuesday, where they will make a short visit. They will reside in Philadelphia during the winter.

Ulysses Bird, as Auditor, has been tried and has proven himself to be a good official. He will receive a rousing vote, on the 4th of November.

Richard W. Bennett of near Eagles Mere, captured a large black bear in a steel trap last week. This is the second one caught by Mr. B. within the past few months.

Four or five Prohibitionists of LaPorte, attended the Prohibition meeting, addressed by John L. Thomas, of New York, at Forksville, on Wednesday. They were all pleased with his sayings.

Ezra S. Rinebold is a pretty good looking old farmer. His portrait in the REPUBLICAN next week will be to his interest as there are many in the county who have never smiled upon his countenance.

Lycoming county's share of the judicial contest is $14,616. The state pays $7,000 making $21,616 as the total cost. This is about one-half of the amount predicted by several of our Lycoming exchanges.

Mr. D. Kennedy proprietor of Hotel Kennedy, while engaged in the loft of his barn, on Thursday last fell through a hole in the floor and broke one rib and bruised his side quite badly. He is so as to be around.

Every Republican voter in the county should cast his vote on the 4th of November for Delamater, Watres, Stewart and the whole local ticket. They are all excellent men and represent the true principles of our grand old party.

John P. Kennedy of the firm of Deegan & Kennedy of Lopez, was visiting friends at the county seat, Sunday and Monday. Mr. Kennedy is numbered among the best and most industrious business men of Lopez and has hosts of friends wherever known.

Thos. Farrell of Dushore, who was among the dissatisfied Republicans over a part of the nominations of our convention, declared himself for the full ticket, on Saturday. There are but few Republicans throughout the county who will not support the full ticket. They have concluded to stand by the voice of the convention.

The young men who for years squandered their dollars in purchasing Louisiana lottery tickets will now have a chance to invest in marriage licenses—another kind of a lottery ticket.

Christopher Peale, Jr., and wife of Eagles Mere, were guests of a wedding at Philadelphia on Wednesday of last week. The contracting parties were summer guests of the Allegheny House of which Mr. Peale is proprietor.

The Republican county candidates are gaining friends every day and the voters of Sullivan will make no mistake in electing them to office. All are men of business experience and well qualified in every way to acceptably fill the offices to which they aspire.

Ezra S. Rinebold will represent Sullivan county at Harrisburg in an intelligent and faithful manner if elected to the Legislature next November. He is an energetic and honorable business man, and one in whom our people can safely trust their interests at the State Capital.

During the past few weeks we have been called away from home more or less and have devoted but little attention to the columns of our paper. After the people have decided the issue of the day, we shall go to business and shall not leave our door yard for months to come. We are anxious for the official count when all will be put to rest.

Several of our town people were in attendance at the Bloomsburg Fair last week and pronounce hosts of people in attendance and a splendid exhibition. Jerry Deegan of Lopez, who was a spectator, said it was the largest gathering of people he has witnessed since he served in the war. Twenty-five thousand tickets were sold on Friday.

Mrs. Judge Ingham and Miss Ettie Lauer, of LaPorte, were elected delegates of the LaPorte Non Partisan W. C. T. U., to the State convention which convened at Indiana, Pa., on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. They took the train at Nordmont on Monday and expect to remain at Indiana until the convention adjourns.

Samuel Cole the Republican nominee for Treasurer is so well known throughout the county that it is useless to say more in his behalf. His business ability is acknowledged by all to be excellent and his honest straight forward walk through life has made him hosts of friends, who will rally to the polls and give him their support in November.

In our age improvements follow so fast upon one another that no sooner is a patent granted for an invention than the next day it is superseded by something better. Now we hear of a new gun which uses carbonic acid gas for an explosive, which has a pressure of 500 pounds to the square inch and so cheap that 250 bullets can be fired for a penny.

All of the new States are going Republican. Idaho has followed Wyoming, with 2500 majority, a Republican member of Congress and two Republican U. S. Senators. In nearly every county the Republican gains were heavy. All of the recent elections show that the farmers appreciate the fact that the McKinley bill is more to their interest than any measure ever adopted.

Mr. A. H. Marr of Eagles Mere, who represents the head of the Prohibition party of Sullivan county, was engaged in working for his chosen principles in the Western districts last week. Mr. Marr is sincere in his convictions and takes pleasure in bringing before the people in a convincing way, his chosen political position. This sincerity of Mr. Marr of his party principles, is winning for him many friends throughout the county.

Robert Simmons son of Geo. W. Simmons of Sonestown, was married to Miss Lizzie Keeler, daughter of Mr. F. R. Keeler of near Nordmont, on Thursday Oct. 16th, Rev. S. Mummy officiating. The ceremonies took place at the home of the bride and was witnessed by many friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple have the best wishes of the REPUBLICAN together with a large score of friends in this section of the county.

Samuel Cole the Republican nominee for Treasurer, is an excellent young man and would make a model officer.

Ex-Senator Emery has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. His promised revelations have dwindled away to nothing. Senator Delamater steadily rises in public estimation as the canvass progresses, the reaction of the charges without any foundation benefiting him materially.

In Chicago Pittsburg and Baltimore steps are in progress to build large tin plate plants. If we can within the next ten years manufacture all the tin plate we consume we shall keep $20,000,000 at home annually to distribute among our own workmen. This is the result of the McKinley bill, just passed in Congress.

Our next Governor, George Wallace Delamater, visited the city of Bradford the home of Emery the X. Y. and Z., man last week and was greeted by one of the largest political gatherings ever gazed upon in that section. He denied the charges made by Emery and was cheered in the extreme by the enthusiastic crowd. When Emery's name was mentioned it was hissed, which inferred that he is a reptile of the lowest type. Poor Emery.

A number of middle aged men of Lopez anticipate the organization of an old bachelor's club at said place. Among those who will take a prominent part in the welfare of the new organization are: C. W. Higgins, who is the largest stock holder in the kindling wood factory; Frank Rice, the genteel and good looking clerk of Jennings Bros.; E. P. Kester the druggist and Henry Castle also clerk in the store of Jennings Bros. The boys will furnish a room with the latest pattern. Pins, needles and pantaloons buttons will be ordered by the gross and the first member of the club guilty of wearing pantaloons minus a button will be fined according to the offense caused by the vacancy of the same. The club is made up of moral and good young men of the age of 30 respectively and we bespeak many pleasant evenings enjoyed by the old "bachelors."

At every intersection of roads in the county sign-boards should be placed, directing travelers which way each road leads and the distance to the nearest village or town. Nothing is more confusing to a stranger than to come to the meeting of two, three or four roadways, and no guide-board pointing in direction which he should continue his journey. And what is more, there is a law upon our statute books requiring supervisors to erect such sign-boards, under a penalty for neglecting to do so. That law should be rigidly enforced.

He Was a Jumbo Indeed.

Last Saturday afternoon a man weighing 616 pounds passed through Harrisburg on his way to Washington, D. C. A circular told his weight and it gave him the name of "Jumbo." He was too large to move himself, and he was lying flat on his stomach in the baggage car. It required the combined efforts of nine men to lift him on a truck and transfer him to the Washington train. A great crowd of people gathered around the car to see him.

A Cold Winter Predicted.

The mean temperature of September was below normal this year and there are signs, meteorologists tell us, that the coming winter is not to have the ethereal mildness of the last. Dr. M. A. Veeder, who has made a specialty of sun spots, auroras and magnetic storms, is convinced that a winter of some severity is in store for America. He bases his passage upon the slight increase of auroras noticeable this autumn. It has been observed that these electric discharges in the upper air coincide with disturbances of our atmosphere that invariably produce cold. The appearance of Northern Lights at this season has been followed in many previous years by cold weather, and the prediction of a severe winter may be taken as reasonable. A winter of uniform frosty weather would be a welcome novelty.—Ez.

A VERDICT OF $9,000 RENDERED.

Against The Borough of Shamokin

A law suit that is of interest to every borough in the State has just been decided in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania against the town of Shamokin. It would be well for the authorities of LaPorte to take heed and warning by the result. In 1886 Mrs. Robinson, who lives on Shamokin street, in Shamokin, wanted to put down a new sidewalk in front of her property. She applied to the Council, and the borough regulator gave her a grade and down went the pavement. Her next door neighbor, John Weir, had his pavement down and after Mrs. Robinson's was in place it was nine inches higher than Weir's. This made a high step and the Council notified Weir to raise his sidewalk. Weir paid no attention to the notice and Council did not move in the matter after notifying him. In May, a few weeks after Weir had been notified, Mrs. Mary Reddy came walking along Mrs. Robinson's sidewalk one dark and gloomy night, and when she reached the end where the step of nine inches dropped her to Weir's sidewalk she fell and broke her right arm. Her husband employed two attorneys, Messrs. Ryan and Mahan to bring two suits against the town of Shamokin. One for the injuries she had received from the broken arm, and the other from the loss he had sustained by reason of losing her service while the arm was getting well. Messrs. Boyer, of Sunbury, and Gillespie, of Shamokin, appeared for the borough. In March, 1889, the suit for damages the wife had sustained, was tried before Judge Rockefeller, and after a stubborn contest the jury rendered a verdict of $1,207 in favor of Mrs. Reddy. In May following the husband's suit came up for damages he had sustained through the loss of her services and Mr. Reddy got a verdict of $912. The case was then taken to the Supreme Court by Messrs. Boyer and Gillespie and argued there in full. The court of last resort rendered their decision on Monday, sustaining Judge Rockefeller and the borough will have to pay. The whole sum with the costs amount to $3000. The ground taken by the Supreme Court was that after the council had given Weir notice to fix his sidewalk and he did not do it, it was their duty to make him do so at once, and their failing to do this made them liable for the damages.

Another Boomerang.

From the Towanda Republican.

Canton, Pa., Oct. 9, 1890.

To THE ARGUS:—You ask me if I intend to vote for Pattison for Governor. I say no, a man that will not protect the boys that fought to save this country, ought not to be called a citizen, nor owned by the Almighty. He is a traitor to his country, and contaminates the air which he breathes. Your man Pattison has done nothing but insult the soldiers. Say, just read his record, he will read his own record by the light of Judgement day. I will not vote for Pattison:

I will help bury him away in the woods,
In a beautiful hole in the ground,
Where the wood pecker peeks, and the bumblebee hums,
And the straddle bug straddles around.
SOLDIER.

The Reporter-Journal and the Towanda Republican both, give some very strong reasons in their last week's issue, why the Republicans of Bradford county should vote for their regular nominees. For our part we can not perceive how men with a spark of republican principles in their souls can vote the dictations of that sheet called the Argus, which has during its existence degraded the Republican party of Bradford county to its utmost extent. It is to be hoped by the believers of republicanism that there is no truth in the predictions of the Argus that a good portion of the Republican party of Bradford county, will vote the fusion ticket. We have every reason to believe that the Cheney element of both North Drwell and East Smithfield will stand firm for the regular nominees of the good old Republican party.
