

THE REPUBLICAN.

W. M. CHENEY - - - Editor

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31st, 1890. REGISTERED AT POST-OFFICE, LAPOORTE PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. DELAMATER, of Crawford. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, LOUIS A. WATKES, of Lackawanna. FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS, THOMAS J. STEWART, of Philadelphia.

REPUBLICAN CO., TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, WILLIAM C. FARNSWORTH, of Sunbury. FOR REPRESENTATIVE, EZRA S. RINEBOLD. FOR COUNTY TREASURER, SAMUEL COLE, of Dushore. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. M. CHENEY, of LaPorte. FOR COUNTY AUDITOR, ULYSSES BIRD, of Estella.

Some reports have been circulated that if I should be elected to the office of county commissioner I would favor the erection of an expensive jail and other extravagant county expenditures; I deem it proper therefore to state my opinion that the finances of the county will not warrant the erection of a new building for a jail at present, nor within the next three years.

It should be remembered that the commissioners alone have no authority to erect a new public building; the approbation of two successive grand juries must first be obtained. It is not likely that two grand juries, each consisting of twenty-four tax-payers taken from all parts of the county, will recommend the erection of a new jail before the mass of the tax-payers are in favor of it. If elected I will in all matters favor a just and economical administration of county affairs with a fixed purpose to reduce the county taxes.

W. M. CHENEY.

District Attorney Graham of Philadelphia is one of the ablest and most respected men of that great city. As a lawyer he stands among the foremost in the State. His opinion as to the weight to be given to the charges against our candidate for Governor are worth considering. In a speech made by him before an immense audience last week he said:

"Unprecedented in splendor, this campaign stands also single and alone in its display of personal malice. The so-called Emery charges appear to me to be malicious and baseless. Three of his affidavits need only a personal to demonstrate that they are aside from the issue and prove no case. All of the remainder of his fulminations consist of the statement of an unknown citizen and the algebraic quantity X. Y. Z. In a court of justice a man without any character or reputation would not be called upon to answer such evidence, much less ought a man to be condemned who is shown by his neighbors and the best people of his city to be the possessor of a spotless character and stainless honor.

Shatts fired from ambush are the most cowardly. Anonymous communications are unworthy of credence. Mr. Emery knows and charges nothing out of his own personal knowledge. His evidence is not more than the meanest kind of hearsay uttered in secret. But revelations outside of him have come to us. The unknown X, Y, and Z are said to be Humes, Beach, and O'Dell—Humes, a Democratic Senator, the opponent of Mr. Delamater, surely would not receive or handle bribes to defeat his party and himself. This is incredible. Beach and O'Dell have denied the whole story, and characterize it as a wicked fabrication. Is the priceless boon, a good reputation, to be shattered and destroyed by charges based upon such unsubstantial and contradicted statements? Ministers and laymen, business men and workmen, unite in testifying to the estimable reputation and personal honor of your candidate for Governor. Will you permit him to be stained by such malicious accusations?

EZRA S. RINEBOLD.

The above cut represents Ezra S. Rinebold, of Forks township, the Republican candidate for Representative. The subject of this sketch was born near Allentown, Lehigh county, this State, July 4, 1827, of German parentage. When eight years of age he with his parents removed to what was then known as the Haverly Settlement, now Overton, Bradford county, his parents being numbered among the pioneers of that section. He remained with them and assisted in converting the unbroken forests of those days into tillable land, until he reached his majority, when he was employed for one year at a saw mill near Forksville, after which he was engaged in lumbering near Barclay. He was married July 4, 1850, to Miss Elizabeth Crown, and settled in Asylum township, Bradford county, where he was engaged in the manufacture of lumber for about eight years. In June 1858 he removed to his present place of residence in Forks township, and together with his brother Lewis entered largely into the manufacture of lumber. This partnership with his brother continued until the spring of 1880 when it was dissolved by mutual consent, Lewis Rinebold retiring, since which time the business has been conducted by Ezra S. Rinebold, who in addition to successfully conducting a very large lumber business, has devoted much attention to farming and now, where thirty years ago, there was almost an unbroken forest, there is one of the best grazing and grain farms in the county. Mr. Rinebold is one of our progressive farmers and spares no pains nor expense to keep up with the times. On his farm may be found the improved labor saving machinery the best breeds of cattle and sheep and in fact everything that constitutes the progressive, practical farmer and man of business. Beginning life with nothing but a strong arm and willing hands, Ezra S. Rinebold has by industry, thrift economy and perseverance, lewed himself a home out of the Sullivan county forest, of which any man might be proud, and which proves him to be a man possessed of both brain and brawn. He is well known to many in this section, with whom he has had business dealings during the past thirty years, and his reputation for truth, integrity and fair business methods is the very best; in fact our most extensive lumbermen frequently solicit his aid and judgment in regard to the value and prospects of mill sites and timber tracts, for which they are negotiating, which is conclusive proof of his excellent judgment and integrity. Such is a brief sketch of the life of the Republican candidate for Representative of Sullivan county. If elected his constituents may rest assured that his name will not be connected with any job, in or out of Harrisburg, and that he will be a credit to the county and to himself.

cock. His educational opportunities had been meagre, and after one year's service he quit to attend school. One year in school, acquiring the rudiments of a business education, and we find him again with Dr. Heacock, in whose employ he continued until 1878, when his already recognized ability secured him a more lucrative position with the well known firm of Welles & Ackley. Here he passed through the successive stages, from junior clerk to book keeper and general manager, the buying of certain lines of goods and general supervision of stock being left almost entirely to him. In 1885 he married the only daughter of the late Rev. R. S. Wagner, a union which has been blessed with two children, a boy and a girl. After nine years of faithful service with Welles & Ackley he resigned to enter into partnership with James Cunningham in the hardware business, and as a result of his careful management the business has been more than doubled since. He has been one of the Auditors of borough accounts almost continuously for years and in 1887 was unanimously elected Burgess. Later on he was made Receiver of the firm of McGuire & Rouse, proprietors of the foundry and machine shops, known as the Industrial Works. Scarcely had he finished this work than he was called in to act as Assignee for another foundry firm, Bigger, Young & Co., which business is still in his hands and whose tangled threads he is fast straightening and establishing the business on a paying basis. Against his personal character there has never been a breath of scandal and the full measure of trust reposed in him by his associates is illustrated by the fact that in every organization to which he has belonged he has been called upon to act as Treasurer. It was this well known uprightness of character which induced his party to bestow upon him, unsought the nomination for County Treasurer, and in which office, if elected, he will serve the people of Sullivan county just as faithfully as he has heretofore served his employers.

W. M. CHENEY.

William M. Cheney was born at LaPorte, Sullivan county, Penna., Jan. 7, 1859 and was the second son of Beni. L. Cheney deceased who was well known in Sullivan county as a surveyor, a farmer and a merchant. William was educated at the common schools of LaPorte. Benj. L. Cheney died March 24, 1872 and his family was left with small means and Mrs. Cheney was unable to send her sons away to school. At an early age William began work as a printer on the local newspapers, spending some time also at Wilkes-Barre to finish learning his trade. In 1882 he bought out Samuel F. Colt, Jr., who was then editing and publishing the SULLIVAN REPUBLICAN, and since that date Mr. Cheney has been actively engaged as editor and publisher of the REPUBLICAN. Mr. Cheney has served in several borough offices, and in all gave proof of honesty and ability. In 1889 he was appointed Post Master at LaPorte. Although a young man and a poor man, Mr. Cheney has given ample evidence of his honesty and intelligence and will make a fair minded and conservative Commissioner. His large acquaintance throughout the county during his life long residence in it is a sure guarantee that if elected, he will administer the office in an economical and satisfactory manner.

SAMUEL COLE.

The above is an excellent likeness of Samuel Cole, the Republican candidate for Treasurer of Sullivan county. Mr. Cole is a native of the county, having been born at Cherry Mills 34 years ago, at which place he lived with his parents, attending district school and working for surrounding farmers, until he was fourteen years. At this time his father removed to Dushore to take charge of Headley's Mills, and here Sam secured a situation as clerk in the store of the late Dr. John M. Hea-

ULYSSES BIRD.

The above cut is a fair likeness of Ulysses Bird, who was born in Elkland township October 8th, 1856, and has resided there all his life. His early years were spent in assisting his father on the farm and attending the common school of his township. After finishing his common school education he attended the Normal and County Institutes and at the age of nineteen began teaching school. For several years he was a prominent teacher in our county, taking great interest in all our educational affairs and receiving first a professional and then a permanent certificate. He has taught nine terms of school and for one year acted as editor of the Educational column in the Sullivan Review; being a ready writer he occasionally contributes articles of interest to the county papers. Mr. Bird has held the office of Town Clerk, Township Auditor, Justice of the Peace and if elected this fall will be his own successor to the office of County Auditor.

He is well qualified for the office and received the nomination of the late Republican convention unasked for and unsought. In 1883 and 1884, he attended the National Normal University at Lebanon, Warren county, Ohio, where he graduated in the Commercial and Surveyors Departments and he has proved himself a very skillful surveyor and accountant ever since. Ulysses Bird is to well known throughout the county to need a lengthy biographical sketch, for he is personally acquainted with the greater part of the voters in the county. Let his friends regardless of party rally for him and give him a rousing vote in November as a reward for duties faithfully performed.
