THE REPUBLICAD, the tariff remaining as it now is, W.M. CRENE? - - - Editor

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 21th, 1890 ENTERED AT POST-OFFICE. LAPORTE PA., ASSECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. RETTENBURY, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, DUSHORE, PA.

It is useless to waste time in explaining why the Republican party was beaten. We are licked and badly licked at that, and that's enough. But we now make the prophecy that the principal cause of our defeat this year will also be the plincipal cause of our victory in 1892. We refer of course to the new tariff law. Up to this time only the bad side of that measure has been visible, and that has been greatly magnified and exaggerated by greedy and unscrupulous merchants, who have taken advantage of the passage of that measure, to add to the prices of hundreds of articles which are in no way affected by it, in order to put money in their pockets at the expense of the consumers. And that this policy which was ably aided and abetted by the Democratic managers, was the direct cause of thousands of Republican votes being cast for Democratic nominees cannot for a moment be doubted. Long before two years have rolled around this law will have by its workings, practically shown that it is the best of its kind feared that they will succeed to rendered and a fair profit realized. ever enacted, and the same people who voted against the Republicans because of its enactment by a Republican Congress, will be the loudest shouters in favor. Mark the prediction.

It Will End Right.

As the Democratic leaders begin to return to Washington it is leak. ing out how they managed to make such a showing at the recent elec tion. The game they worked is best described in a Washington dispatch, as follows :

"The hue and cry about higher prices due to the Republican Tariff bill, it now appears, was all a game and was very effectually worked.

It appears that the scheme was started by the Free Trade League acting in connection with the foreign manufacturers and their agents in the United States, and wholesale merchants in New York. An immense number of circulars were sent all over the country to the store-keepers in the cities and at cross roads announcing that owing to the new tariff prices would advance a certain per cent., and that higher prices should be charged on goods in stock. The interior merchants as a rule fell into the trap and play-ed into the hands of the Free Traded into the hands of the Free Trad-ers most effectually. Many of the very articles upon which prices were advanced were scheduled in the new bill at a lower rate than the old. Now that the elections are over and the importers, mostly foreigners, have had their revenge, prices have gone back to their normal figure."

It was undoubtedly a sharp trick, and the Democrats can enjoy the laugh, but it really was the best thing that could happen the Republican party. The two years between this time and the struggle of 1892 will show how well the Free Traders pulled the wool over the and a sud them will be
