THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, JANUARY, 16 th, 1891.

ENTERED AT POST-OFFICE, LAPORTE. PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. RETTENBURY,

WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER,

DUSHORE, PA.

THEY ARE ARRESTED.

The Late Crawford County Bankers Held in Heavy Bail.

MEADNILLE, Jan. 10.—All the members of the firm of Delamater & Co. were arrested on the charge of embezzlement under the act of 1889, which makes it a misdemeanor for an insolvent bank or banking firm to receive money on deposit. The members of the firm arrested are George B. Delamater, the father, George Wallace Delamater and T. A. Delamater.

The complaint was made by the County Commissioners who went out of office last Monday. The ex-Commissioners allege that from July 1 to December 1 the firm received large amounts of county money on deposit. The county is a heavy loser by the failure, and they think it due to the taxpayers that a thorough investigation of the affairs of the bank be made. The defendants waived a hearing and gave bail in the sum of $10,000 each for their appearance at the February term of Quarter Sessions. Edgar Huidekoper and D. S. Richmond became their sureties.

GEORGE W. DELAMATER'S STATEMENT.

George Wallace Delamater said in an interview yesterday afternoon he would have his offer for a compromise ready to be presented to the creditors at the meeting which will be held Monday. He said he said he knew arrest would come sooner or later, and he did not seem in the least worried about it. Two of the ex-commissioners, Walter R. Lindsey and Henry P. Marley, who have caused the arrest, are Republicans, but Mr. Baily, the Democratic member, approves of the action. They have employed the ex-attorney for the old board. George F. Davenport, to conduct the prosecution. Mr. Davenport was District Attorney for three years and is hard worker at whatever he undertakes.

Some surprise was manifested because the cashier, Victor M. Delamater, was not arrested, but the complainants say they are after the principals. They have looked over the list of assets, as filed by the appraisers, and say that, reckoning all the assets of the bank at face value or cost, there is still a long gap between the sum total of the liabilities and property available.

The ex-Commissioners are exceedingly annoyed about the condition of the county's account with the bank, because they had warned the treasurer, Henry M. Miller, a nephew of the Delamaters, that he must pay the county's orders and not allow the county's large creditors, like the State Treasurer and the Warren Insane asylum, to go without their pay when there was plenty of money in the treasury to pay them.

STATUS OF THE FIRM.

A gentleman who is quite familiar with the firm's affairs, has made an estimation of its past and present condition with the following somewhat startling result: In 1875 when they started the bank, they were worth in their own right not less than $500,000. They had when they failed over $500,000 of their depositor's money. The individual members owe not less than $250,000 which they have borrowed. This is over and above the collateral put up. This all amounts to $1,250,000.

To show for this they have property, which all told, including everything the members of the family are known to possess, and giving them credit for it at its full cost or par value, is worth $750,000. Where is the other $500,000 ?

The Meadville and Linesville Railroad owes them $35,000 John J. Macfarlane cost the young ex-Senator $100,000. The balance is a large sum to have disappeared, but the income from their own property has been very small, and the bank has been wretchedly managed, whether it is possible for the prosecution to show criminality or not. The February quarter Sessions will determine this, unless there is a compromise.

LATTER:—A compromise has been effected to pay 50c on a dollar.

The expenditures for pensions for the year ending June 30, as now officially stated, amounted to $109,357,534. In the previous year we paid $87,644,779.11, while in the year before that we paid $80,288,508.77. The cost of the German army, it may be interesting to note, is for this year estimated at $91,726,293. Besides our pensions our army costs $30,000,000.

The Demorest-Sewing Machine Co., of Williamsport are protesting against a saloon license in the Ward in which their establishment is located, and urge their employees to assist them to prevent the same. They claim that a drinking place located in said Ward will depreciate their property and cause them many unpleasant greetings. There reasons are just and are corroborated by the majority of people.

Special to the REPUBLICAN:

J. W. Murrelle of Athens, Pa., Deputy Supreme President of "The Provident Shield" will be in town the first of the coming week in the interest of this Order. The Provident Shield is a beneficial organization paying to members a sick benefit of $5.00 to $25.00 per week and from $200.00 to $1000, at the end of six years. The initiation fee is small and the assessments in proportion to the benefit certificate. Full explanations of cost &c. will be given by D. S. P., Murrelle. All white persons between 16 and 65 in good health will be admitted. Men and women on equal basis. The initiation fee is $5.00, dues $1.00 per quarter. Assessments from 50c to $2.50 payable about every four weeks. Trustees of Supreme Lodge funds—"United Security Insurance and Trust Co." of Pennsylvania, which makes it safe and reliable.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

The apparatus for the new bank has arrived.

Sunday's rain made the sleighing thin in this locality.

J. S. Harrington's store has been removed to Saxe's block.

An infant son of Kerr Holmes of Cherry, was buried Sunday.

Miss Effie Bowman, of Monroeton, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. ——— Newell, of Canton, is visiting his brother our noted editor.

A pound party will be tendered to Rev. Miller this (Wednesday) eve.

A donation for the benefit of Rev. S. Wenrich is advertised for Jan. 22.

Rev. Shortess is holding a series of revival meetings at the Evangelical church.

L. S. Burch, of Newark Valley, N. Y., was in town on business the first of the week.

The Review is putting in a new power press this week. Look out for lots of "blowing."

A man from Williamsport has opened a store in Cadden's block to close out a bankrupt stock of clothing, boots, shoes &c.

A. D. McHenry has moved from New Albany to Dushore and occupies the house on Railroad Avenue lately occupied by J. B. Ormsley.

Two sleepy looking sleigh loads of young folks arrived at Dushore about 8 o'clock Saturday morning from LaPorte where the had gone the previous evening to enjoy a private dance and oyster supper. They report a good time and speak well of the courtesy of the LaPorte people.

H. A. Briggs who has been in the employ of G. W. Hayman in his harness shop at this place for several months moved to Elmira Tuesday. Mr. Briggs was a favorite with all who made his acquaintance and has many friends here who regret to have him leave town. His position will be filled by a young man from Elmira.

Rev. Fr. John Bergan, of Kingston, died on Tuesday of last week and was buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place on Friday. The deceased was 41 years of age, and leaves a father and several brothers living and near Dushore. He was born and reared in Cherry township near this place and was ordained as a priest about twenty years ago. The funeral was one of the largest ever held at this place. There were more than a dozen priests present from different places in Pennsylvania.

FACARCUS.

NORTH MOUNTAIN ITEMS.

Alfred M. Phillips is confined to the house with a sprained ankle.

The sleighing is good and all the boys are taking their best girl out for a ride.

Jacob M——— made a mash last evening—one that he did not enjoy, as the ice provod very hard.

Mr. C. B. Pennington is preparing to fill the ice house at Muncy Valley for his own use next summer.

Misses Magie and Annie Kahler of Hughesville, spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister Mrs. H. G. Phillips of this place.

Mr. James Jordan and wife of Jamison City, were in attendance at their father's funeral, Mr. Clark Mosteller, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stanton and daughter of Williamsport, spent Saturday and Sunday, visiting friends in this neighborhood. They are always welcome.

DIED:—Mr. Clark Mosteller aged 47 years six months, on Friday morning last of heart disease. He got up in the morning as usual and built the fire and not feeling well retired to bed again, Mrs. Mosteller felt his arm jerk inquired the trouble his response was his arm hurt him so. Mrs. M. got up and endeavored to raise him up when she discovered that he was dead.

The P. O. S. of A. of Sonestown Lodge, took charge of the funeral which was held in the M. E. church of Sonestown. Interment also in the Sonestown cemetery. The funeral was largely attended.

M. J. Phillips while splitting wood on Saturday afternoon mistook his thumb for the stick and sliced off a pretty good sized chunk. M. J. is old enough to know better than to do a thing of this kind. The law for committing suicide is very great according to the verdict of a recent Member of Lycoming county and we presume an attempt would, in the Member's mind render the person half guilty, hence Maynard you will stand convicted of sault and battery with intent to kill until sentence is complied with. Dr. Derr was called and pronounced it a very rash act. He sewed on the chunk and at this writing the would-be suicider is doing nicely.

OBSERVER.

SHUNK ITEMS.

Sleighing good.

Business brisk.

Our schools are in a flourishing condition.

Henry Battin from York State, is visiting his parents here.

Geo. Walker and Wise Hines, have their log jobs nearly completed.

The Union Church Association of Shunk, met last week and elected new officers for the ensuing year.

W. J. Tripp expects to move to Canton in the near future, as he has bought an interest in the Canton Tea Store.

A. E. Campbell has at last got it—a boy and consequently he has business on his hands and baby on on his knee.

Mrs. F. B. Warren, Mrs. Julia Wilcox and Lulu Wright have all been on the sick list but all are improving under the skilful treatment of Dr. Gamble.

But two of our school teachers (Cora and Andrew Battin) attended the Institute at Dushore, for various reasons. Some because they did not find a fellow to take them; others because they had too much fellow, and went to Elmira, instead of Dushore; others had fellows, but Eddy and Gus would not go to Elmira, or Dushore either.

THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS has won the formost place among Pennsylvania newspapers by the liberality, enterprise, and fairness with which it conducts its business, reports great events, and the completeness with which it records, day by day, the life of the city, State and country.

Its field is world-wide, and its staff, its special correspondents, so many and well organized, its source of news so numerous, that it appeals to a wider constituency than any other newspaper ever published in Pennsylvania.

"THE PRESS," said one of the managers of the Western Union Telegraph Company, "now receives more telegraphic news than all the other Philadelphia newspapers combined." This statement is authorative and conclusive, and THE PRESS presents as daily witnesses to its truth, its twelve to twenty-four bright and interesting pages.

But it is not only its news enterprise—by the zeal, energy. and integrity of its reporters and correspondents that THE PRESS has won and held the confidence of its many thousands of readers, representing every age and every condition of life. every trade and every profession, every faith and every political opinion. It is the excellence and varied interest of THE PRESS as a general family journal, appealing to women as well as to men, which have made for it so many friends at home, and extended its reputation throughout the country. It prints every important event of the world's progress.

The printing of news is always its first business, but its columns are also enriched by contributions from the most gifted special writers, the most famous novelists, and some of the most eminent public men of the time. The literary engagements already made for 1891, probably surpass in number and variety, and nearly equal in cost, any contemporary magazine, for the field and resources of such a newspaper as THE PRESS make it not only a daily historian, but a daily forum and a daily tribune.

Its steadily growing profits and its steadfast contiuency not only demand, but insure progress. The greatest authors, as well as the brightest news correspondents, find their largest profits derived from any Pennsylvania newspaper, as well as their best Pennsylvania audience, in DAILY, SUNDAY, and WEEKLY PRESS.

In politics THE PRESS is Republican, but it knows no other master than the people whose rights, aspirations, and needs it always defends. It has no enemies to punish, no individual political ambitions to foster or promote, and is subservient to no politician or clique. Faithful to the great body of readers and voters, whom it truely represents, it promotes its own interest and influence by faithfully upholding theirs. Its editorial opinions are fearless and frank—never captious. Its news is always impartial. In its pages the workingmen finds as ready audience as the capitalist: To all commerical and industrial progress, to the best thought and best action in every sphere of human enterprise, it accords a generous and enlightened hospitality. In the columns of THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS justice finds "all seasons summer."

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
